confession to the native population became a primary concern and as a result expansive bodies of Spanish ecclesiastic literature were translated into Quechua In this fascinating study of the semantic changes evident in translations of Catholic catechisms sermons and manuals Regina Harrison demonstrates how the translated texts often retained traces of ancient Andean modes of thought despite the didactic lessons they contained In Sin and Confession in Colonial Peru Harrison draws directly from confession manuals to demonstrate how sin was newly defined in Quechua lexemes how the role of women was circumscribed to fit Old World patterns and how new monetized perspectives on labor and trade were taught to the subjugated indigenous peoples of the Andes by means of the Ten Commandments Although outwardly confession appears to be an instrument of oppression the reformer Bartolom de Las Casas influenced priests working in the Andes through their agency confessional practice ultimately became a political weapon to compel Spanish restitution of Incan lands and wealth Bringing together an unprecedented study and translation of Quechua religious texts with an expansive history of Andean and Spanish transculturation Harrison uses the lens of confession to understand the vast and telling ways in which language changed at the intersection of culture and religion Religion in the Andes Sabine MacCormack,2021-05-11 Addressing problems of objectivity and authenticity Sabine MacCormack reconstructs how Andean religion was understood by the Spanish in light of seventeenth century European theological and philosophical movements and by Andean writers trying to find in it antecedents to their new Christian faith The Myths of the New World Brinton,1868 Return of the Children of Light Judith Bluestone Polich,2001-08-01 A personal exploration of the conjunction between ancient Mesoamerican prophecy and New Age higher consciousness Selected by the Independent Publisher s Book Awards as one of the top two New Age books of the year Explores ancient prophecies and their relevance in the contemporary world The Incan and Mayan cultures saw themselves as children of light descended from celestial realms and their prophecies foretell a time of great spiritual awakening They prophesied a time when the gateways to higher consciousness would open once again That time is now Award winning author Judith Bluestone Polich draws on her extensive research in quantum physics archaeoastronomy holography cosmology and pioneering studies of human consciousness to show how science and contemporary thought are consistent with this ancient knowledge As the ancients predicted the human god seed is beginning to awaken and modern civilization is finally beginning to perceive human potential in ways that the ancient cultures accepted as truth Polich introduces techniques for awakening our own human potential through dreaming meditations and the power of sacred sites
