The ultimate grail of flower hunters it has been spotted only once in the past twenty five years Its few flowers have a deathly pallor and are said to smell of over ripe bananas Peter Marren has been a devoted flower finder all his life While the Ghost Orchid offers the toughest challenge of any wild plant there were fifty more British species Peter had yet to see having ticked off the first 1 400 rummaging in hedges slipping down gullies and peering in peat bogs But he set himself the goal of finding the remaining fifty in a single summer As it turned out the wettest summer in years This expert and emotional journey takes Peter the length and the breadth of the British Isles from the dripping ancient woods of the New Forest to the storm lashed cliffs of Sutherland He paddles in lakes clambers up cliffs in mist and rain and walks several hundred miles but does he manage to find them all Partly about plants partly autobiography Chasing the Ghost is also a reminder that to engage with wild flowers all we need to do is look around us and enjoy what we see Praise for Chasing the Ghost Peter Marren is the unsung hero of Britain's nature writers Stephen Moss author of Dynasties Jolly quixotic and ends with real poignancy Guardian A poignant reminder to us all
