The New Hungarian Peace Movement Ferenc Köszegi, 1982 The New Hungarian Peace Movement Ferenc Köszegi, Edward Palmer Thompson, 1984 The New Hungarian Peace Movement Ferenc Köszegi, 1990 The New Hungarian Peace Movement Ferenc Köszegi, 1984 The New Hungarian Peace Movement Ferenc Köszegi, E. P. Thompson, 198? European Peace Movements and the Future of the Western Alliance Walter Laqueur, 2017-09-08 This extraordinary compendium concerns the future of the Western alliance and the development of the peace movements in Europe and in the United States The peace movement is an old phenomenon given new life by NATO decisions concerning nuclear deployment in Europe and the Soviet responses along the same lines After a long postwar marriage Europeans and Americans alike are reexamining the premises of the Western alliance The contributors provide a variety of scenarios extending from the maintenance of the status quo to the complete dismantling of the Western alliance or at least of its NATO component In a context of rapid change and new challenges to the democratic bloc the editors and authors argue for higher levels of economic integration and caution that competition might spill over into political collapse The work deals with thorny security issues in a frank and policy oriented way While each contributor expresses a unique standpoint a surprising consensus emerges The need for democratic nations to move toward a higher policy ground in order to preserve the fundamental alliance that led to the postwar consensus to begin with Some contributors feel this is still possible others that the time has passed and that national rather than regional interests will once more prevail The work contains an extraordinary array of talent from both the American and European perspectives Among the major contributors and their themes are Henry Kissinger on A Plan to Reshape NATO William G Hyland on The European Peace Movement and NATO Irving Kristol on What s Wrong with NATO Theodore Draper on The Western Misalliance Niels Haagerup on The Nordic Peace Movements Martin Ceadel on The British Nuclear Disarmers and Jeffrey Herf on The SPD and the Peace Movement in West Germany This is a well integrated text with no random essays Peace Movements: International Protest and World Politics Since 1945 April Carter, 2014-09-11 There is a long tradition of opposition to war and organized peace campaigns date from 1815 Since 1945 however modern weapons technology has threatened world wide destruction and has stimulated widespread protests This book sketches in the background of thinking about peace and resistance to war before 1945 and then examines how public opposition to nuclear weapons and testing grew in the 1950s and early 1960s Later chapters cover the major resurgence of nuclear disarmament campaigns in the 1980s The book also looks at how peace protest has spread from its origins in North America and North West Europe to embrace many parts of the world opposition to nuclear testing has indeed been particularly strong in Japan Australia New Zealand and the Pacific islands The period 1945 to 1990 was dominated by the Cold War between the USA and USSR and the role of the Soviet sponsored World Peace Council caused difficulties for indeptendent peace groups in the West During the 1980s the emergence of autonomous peace activity in a number of East European countries and even on a very small scale in the USSR itself transformed the possibilities for East West co operation between citizens to urge disarmament and political change A chapter examines these developments Opposition to all forms of militarism has spread in the last 30 years This book charts the struggles to extend the right to conscientious objection to military service and draft resistance to particular wars for example in Southern Africa and Israel It also looks in some detail at the growing opposition to the war in the Vietnam The recent protests against the Gulf War are surveyed briefly in an epilogue Campaigns Against the New European Peace Movement Esko Antola,1984 Documents on the Peace Movement in Hungary Hugh Baldwin,1986 In Search of Civil Society Vladimir Tismaneanu,2014-02-04
