Korner, 2020-11-11 In this volume Ralph Korner argues that John s extensive social identification with Judaism s Jewishness and Jewish institutions does not reflect a literary program of replacing Israel with the ekkl siai churches assemblies that is the Jewish and non Jewish followers of Jesus as Israel s Messiah Rather John is emplacing his Christ followers further within Israel without thereby superseding Israel as a national identity for ethnic Jews who do not follow Jesus as the Christos There are three primary roads travelled in this investigative journey First Korner explores ways in which a Jewish heritage is intrinsic to the literary structure genre eschatology symbolism and theological motifs of the Apocalypse Second he challenges the linear chronology of generally supersessionist dispensational readings of Revelation s visionary content by arguing for a reiterative repetitive structure based on certain literary devices that also provide structure for visions within Jewish apocalypses and Hebrew prophecies Third he incorporates the most recent research on ekkl sia usage especially in Asia Minor to assess how John s ekkl sia associations might have been non supersessionally perceived especially by Jews in Roman Asia
