American Forces Press Service, 1977 Patrick McGrath Jocelyn Dupont, 2013-01-15 This book is the first collected volume to be entirely dedicated to the work of contemporary Anglo American writer Patrick McGrath It follows the international conference that was held in his presence at Perpignan University France in May 2011 It comprises nine chapters as well as an introduction and an index written by scholars specializing in Gothic and American literature each dealing with specific aspects of McGrath's work The volume seeks to encompass the author's whole literary production to date spanning a 25 year writing career It also features an exclusive afterword written by the author himself who attended all the papers given during the conference with great attention and often intensely enthusiastic reactivity The editor's intention is twofold The idea was first to provide a comprehensive survey of Patrick McGrath's writing returning to the aspects that are usually associated with the author's work such as his artful narrative control his inclination for stories of transgression and decay as well as his long lasting reflexive relationship with the Gothic and the Grotesque Yet the aim of this volume is also to open new directions for the study of McGrath's texts taking into account the noticeable evolution of the writer's literary production its growing Americanization and gradual distancing with modes of excess It seems that it is no longer possible to tag McGrath's work as neo or postmodern Gothic His books growing complexity and change of horizons call for fresh investigations This book will be of interest to students of McGrath's work scholars of the Gothic and its contemporary manifestations as well as to all academics specializing in contemporary American fiction The Four Modes of Seeing Elizabeth Carson Pastan, 2017-07-05 Borrowing its title from Madeline Harrison Caviness's influential work on the modes of seeing articulated by the twelfth century cleric Richard of Saint Victor this interdisciplinary collection brings together the work of thirty scholars from England France Germany Italy Switzerland and the United States Each author has contributed an original article that engages with ideas formulated in Caviness's wide ranging scholarship The historiographic introduction discusses themes in Caviness's publications and their importance for art historical and medieval studies today The book's thematic matrix groups together essays concerned with The Material Object Documentary Reconstruction Post Disciplinary Approaches Multiple Readings Gender and Reception Performativity Text and Image Collecting and Consumption and Politics and Ideology The contributors include curators art historians historians and literary scholars Their subjects range from medieval stained glass to the nineteenth century Gothic Revival the Sachsenspiegel and Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ Many foreground issues of gender reception and textuality which have permeated Caviness's scholarship Some also present approaches to
