The New History And The Old Critical Essays And Reappraisals:

The New History and the Old Gertrude Himmelfarb, 2004 For this updated edition of her acclaimed work on historians and historiography Himmelfarb adds four new essays In examining the effects of postmodernism the illusions of cosmopolitanism A J P Taylor and revisionism and Fukuyama's end of history Himmelfarb enriches her exploration of the ways historians make sense of the past History Peter Claus, John Marriott, 2017-04-07 Demystifying the subject with clarity and verve History An Introduction to Theory Method and Practice familiarizes the reader with the varied spectrum of historical approaches in a balanced comprehensive and engaging manner Global in scope and covering a wide range of topics from the ancient and medieval worlds to the twenty first century it explores historical perspectives not only from historiography itself but from related areas such as literature sociology geography and anthropology Clearly written accessible and student friendly this second edition is fully updated throughout to include An increased spread of case studies from beyond Europe especially from American and imperial histories New chapters on important and growing areas of historical inquiry such as environmental history and digital history Expanded sections on political cultural and social history More discussion of non traditional forms of historical representation and knowledge like film fiction and video games Accompanied by a new companion website www.routledge.com/cw/clauss containing valuable supporting material for students and instructors such as discussion questions further reading and web links this book is an essential introduction for all students of historical theory and method Gendering Modern German History Karen Hagemann, Jean H. Quataert, 2008-08 To provide a critical overview in a comparative German American perspective is the main aim of this volume which brings together experts from both sides of the Atlantic Through case studies it demonstrates the extraordinary power of the gender perspective to challenge existing interpretations and rewrite mainstream arguments The Red Taylorist Diana Kelly, 2020-06-15 This biography traces the adult life works and relationships of the Taylorist Walter Polakov focusing on his socialist scientific management his ideals and dreams and how these were constrained by conventionality in the USA in the first half of the twentieth century Fifty Key Thinkers on History Marnie Hughes-Warrington, 2007-10-31 Fifty Key Thinkers on History is a superb guide to historiography through the ages The cross section of debates and thinkers covered is unique in its breadth taking in figures from ancient China Greece and Rome through the Middle Ages to contemporary Europe America Africa and Australia from Bede to Braudel Marx to Michelet Ranke to Rowbotham Foucault to Fukuyama Each clear and concise essay offers biographical information a summary and discussion of the subject's approach to history and how others have engaged with it a list of their major works and a guide to diverse resources for further study including books articles films and websites History and Context in Comparative Public Policy Douglas E. Ashford, 2010-11-23 Douglas E Ashford joins a growing number of scholars who have questioned the behavioralist assumptions of much policy science The essays in this volume show why policy analysis cannot be confined to prevailing methods of social science Policy making behavior involves historical contextual and philosophical factors that also raise critical questions about the concepts and theory of the discipline Ashford asks difficult questions about the contextual conjunctural and unintentional circumstances that affect actual decision making His bridging essays summarize opposing viewpoints and conflicting interpretations to help form a new agenda for comparative policy analysis Humanities ,1991 Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace,2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism s message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism s method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism Engagement with the Past William Palmer,2021-10-21 Arthur M Schlesinger Jr John Hope Franklin Daniel Boorstin C Vann Woodward Edmund S Morgan Barbara Tuckman Eric Hobsbawm Hugh Trevor Roper Lawrence Stone aside from carrying the distinction as some of the most successful and well respected historians of the twentieth century these scholars found their lives and careers evolving amid some of the world s pivotal historical moments Dubbed the World War II Generation the twenty two English and American historians chronicled by William Palmer grew up in the aftermath of World War I went to college in the 1930s as the threats of the Great Depression Hitler and Communism loomed over them saw their careers interrupted by World War II and faced the prospect of nuclear annihilation They gained from their experiences the perspective and insight necessary to wrtie definitive histories on topics ranging from slavery to revolution Engagement with the Past offers biographies of these individuals in the context of their generation s intellectual achievement Based upon extensive personal interviews and careful reading of their work Engagement with the Past is a fascinating behind the scenes look at a generation of historians and how they helped record and shape modern history The Limits of Labour David Bright,2011-11-01 In a few short decades before the First World War Calgary was transformed from a frontier outpost into a complex industrial metropolis With industrialization there emerged a diverse and equally complex working class David Bright explores the various levels of class formation and class identity in the city to argue that Calgary s reputation as a prewar centre of labour conservatism is in need of revision Bright also delineates the trials of the Calgary labour movement in the 1920s Internal divisions and dissent prevented the movement from realizing the potential strength of the working class Instead even as local capitalism restructured itself political and industrial labour organizations wilfully fragmented their own base of support In particular they failed to address the concerns and needs of the growing number of unemployed in the city a neglect that foreshadowed events of the 1930s This failure left the labour movement unable to meet the challenge of the Great Depression In part at least the demise of labour as a viable political alternative in Calgary paved the way for the rise of Social Credit Using Calgary as a model The Limits of Labour reasserts the need to place class formation at the heart of the development of western Canada and provides an historical context to the renewed struggle of labour for social justice in the 1990s
