Sister Spirit:

Patients and Agents Alyson Callan, 2012 Sylhet the area of Bangladesh most closely associated with overseas migration has seen an increase in remittances sent home from abroad introducing new inequalities Social change has also been mediated by the global forces of Western biomedicine and orthodox Islam This book examines the effects of these modernizing trends on mental health and on local traditional healing as the new inequalities have exacerbated existing social tensions and led to increased vulnerability to mental illness It is the young women of Sylhet who are most affected The global economy has increased competition for resources and led to marriage being seen as a route to economic advancement Parents prefer to give their daughters in marriage to families that will widen their social contacts and enhance their economic and social standing Accordingly the young wife's outsider status and hence vulnerability to mental illness has increased as it is no longer customary to give daughters in marriage to local kin Yet patients and their families do not work out tensions passively They are active agents in the construction of their own diagnosis The extent to which patients act or are acted upon is an investigation that runs throughout the book

Lesbian Rites Ramona Faith Oswald, 2014-06-03 Explore affirmation and coping rituals for lesbian singles couples and communities This pioneering book is a multidisciplinary compilation of scholarship addressing lesbians the rituals in their lives and the meaning and impact of those rituals for the women involved and the people and communities around them It offers a diverse range of perspectives on what it means to be a lesbian what ritual is what it means to enact a ritual and how we can understand lesbian ritual experiences Lesbian Rites Symbolic Acts and the Power of Community presents five explorations of ritual that bring forth themes of lesbian centered social change In Death's Midwife Sharon Jaffe creates a narrative that illustrates the power of ritual to reconcile straight and gay Christian and Pagan in end of life situations Next Ruth Barrett's exploration of Dianic traditions provides a brief history of the importance of Goddess worship to radical lesbian feminists and uses those traditions to create life course rituals Marla Brettschneider's Ritual Encounters of the Queer Kind challenges notions of a static lesbian self and instead reworks Judaism and anarchist politics to propose rituals of continuous becoming Krista McQueeney then analyzes the paradoxes of a lesbian commitment ceremony held within a gay affirmative African American congregation in the southern United States Elizabeth Suter and editor Ramona Faith Oswald use exploratory survey data to examine how lesbian couples may use name changing as a strategy to claim family status In addition Lesbian Rites also includes two chapters that examine how lesbians have been compromised if not harmed by the ritualization of heterosexism and homophobia The first is an insightful analysis of the community response to the feminist retreat known as Camp Sister Spirit In this chapter Kate Greene uses Mary Daly's seven patterns of sado ritual syndrome to show how the people opposed to the camp were organized to uphold heterosexual patriarchy through an obsession with purity that defined the camp as a refuge for immorality The second chapter on this subject reviews the editor's own experiences of being hidden and devalued at heterosexual family changing social conditions scientific advances and cultural variation who am I How should I live What happens when I die In modern society traditions no longer integrate the individual into a larger spiritual community and so movements have risen to address the crisis of meaning in a rapidly changing world This collection of essays while considering variables of work class race and gender theoretically and empirically examines how diverse groups are trying to restore a sense of meaning through religious innovation The first group of essays considers new developments in theory framing critical inquiry into recent developments in religion and the larger quest for meaning The second section examines grass roots emancipation movements which seek an expanded role for the individual in both belief and practice Topics addressed include the dialectic between religious and secular values and norms anti Semitism new evangelism Neopaganism on the internet Max

Li,2013-06-01 Aging society is an urgent global issue that challenges almost all human societies in the world When nations evolve into aging societies they must establish and implement policies and approaches to meet the needs of the elderly population such as elderly services long term care health care policies institutional facilities illness and healing processes financial support and retirement life and leisure The fundamental purpose of this book is to help students and readers develop their knowledge on worldwide elderly issues To accomplish this goal the text incorporates 18 chapters from different countries with a variety of aging topics which are divided into continents including Africa Asia Europe North and South America and the Oceanic Islands Specific chapters from the following countries regions are included Sub Saharan Africa South Africa China Japan Israel Singapore Thailand Austria United Kingdom Estonia Portugal Spain Sweden United States Australia New Zealand Argentina and Uruguay By sharing these regions and nations elderly issues and their particular solutions to the challenges it provides readers with global views on current aging processes policies and strategies The book effectively helps readers understand that the increase of the elderly population is a major development of the 21st century. The text further helps comprehend the importance of improving the elderly population's overall quality of life as well as valuing the contribution they can make to their communities and society. The reader will gain insights about why global elderly issues are critical and how the lives of elderly have been impacted and influenced by different policies, societies, and cultures in which they live. The book is designed as a college text for study of aging issues with a global perspective. Also, any readers interested in topics of the elderly will find the book to be a most beneficial resource.

A Garland of Roses, Gathered from the Poems of ... J. Eagles ... by ... J. M. Gutch John EAGLES, 1857 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States. Internal Revenue Service, 2002 Lexical Concordance to the Poetical Works of Percy Bysshe Shelley Frederick Startridge Ellis, 1892 Inclusive Hymns For Liberating Christians Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 2023-02-06 Inclusive Hymns for Liberating Christians will expand the spiritual experience of any group, large or small. These hymns inspire justice and peacemaking. They empower women, men, and children of all races to become all they are created to be in the divine image. These hymns will lift the heart, invigorate the mind, and enliven the spirit. The wide variety of biblical, divine names and images in this hymnbook will contribute to belief in the sacredness of all people and all creation. Peace and justice flow from this belief. These hymns draw from the prophetic, liberating tradition in Scripture. Predominant themes of the hymns are peace, justice, resurrection, abundant life, liberation, new creation, and partnership in relationships. This collection includes hymns that celebrate the seasons of the church year and other special occasions.

The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07

What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins? What if instead, Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame? While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments, Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt. In The Empathic God, Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement. In contrast, Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story. As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister, Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness. Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care. The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care. Most importantly, The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine. This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology. The book also will challenge pastors, ministers of pastoral care, chaplains, pastoral counselors, spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re-interpret traumatic shame-filled

Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation

Spiritual Spectacles Sally M. Promey, 1993-03-22 Promey's book is a penetrating analysis of Shaker art. The book is a gem, a true advance in Shaker studies, art history, religious history, and cultural history. Highly recommended. Choice, a very intelligent and articulate treatment of a stunning set of message images. Art Bulletin. This book is a pleasure to look at and to read. Religious Studies Review. A fascinating investigation into another world. The Shaker spirit drawings offer clues into a remarkable moment of American life as well as an opportunity to rethink just how the visual arts, religious revitalizations, and social memory relate to one another. A model study, clear, absorbing, and significant. Neil Harris, author of The Artist in American Society. Sally Promey's inquiry critically engages current issues in the study of visual culture: what do images do, how do they work, what needs do they fulfill, just what is their power? Her compelling case study joins fundamental concerns of art historians with those of students of religion and history. By means of an exacting examination of Shaker drawings as the site of both expectation and encounter, Promey successfully situates these Spiritual Spectacles at the meeting point of the inner and the outer eye. Linda Seidel, author of Jan van Eyck's Arnolfini Portrait: Stories of an Icon. Promey has brought to her work an excellent sensitivity to the religious issues involved, keen sight and powers of observation, and a very creative interpretive framework. Stephen J. Stein, author of The Shaker Experience in America. Spiritual Awakening Sannyasin Bayaty, 2018-04-18 The author explains how she followed a spiritual trajectory independent of religious traditions or sects, having received the Sannyas in the line of Master Osho. The sannyas is a movement of the seekers of truth who seek to live life in its totality through meditation in search of enlightenment. The goal of Bayaty is to motivate you to follow your own spiritual path in a free and independent way, taking into account that each person is a unique and special individual in himself. Bayaty presents his extrasensory experiences such as mediumship, hypnosis, transmutation, regression, and astral projection, and how he used those resources to solve problems and expand consciousness with the help of enlightened masters.
