character statements and providing support working to give the disaffected another chance And all the while in the background is the memory of another fighter his mother and her devastating decline into madness The Fighter is a moving and poetic portrait of a compassionate man but also a window onto the unnoticed recesses of Melbourne Arnold Zable is a highly acclaimed novelist storyteller educator and human rights advocate His books include Jewels and Ashes The Fig Tree Caf Scheherazade Scraps of Heaven Sea of Many Returns and Violin Lessons He lives in Melbourne Written in Zable's lyrical style The Fighter reads like a novel The text provides many aesthetic pleasures it also has heart and soul This is an excellent addition to the literature on the survivors of war focussing on the grief their families inherit Books Publishing A master storyteller Australian Book Review His ability to see the beauty in the ordinary in a world obsessed with the extraordinary informs every aspect of Zable's writing Australian Arnold Zable is a writer who turns the unnoticed and the overlooked into something fine and lustrous Courier Mail Arnold Zable is a long distance athlete among novelists and his command of his material is superb Years of reflection and his own life experiences have contributed to the mastery with which Zable explores the themes of displacement loss nostalgia and homecoming in all of his books Canberra Times Arnold Zable performs his own masterclass in literary shadowboxing in The Fighter He has a superb eye for detail and it serves the narrative exceptionally well Zable channels the story of an ordinary man a good man who to this day is still winning on points Saturday Paper Zable takes the art of the novel the attention to tone rhythm and perspective and applies it to the true story of Nissen This book is about more than boxing endeavor belonging and redemption It's also about Melbourne its light and shade and the people who fall between the cracks and the ones who survive Herald Sun A poignant tale of fortitude love and sorrow Arnold Zable draws an evocative portrait of post war Carlton underpinning his story of the compassionate man and the forces that moulded him Chronicle A truly inspiring slice of life tale Zable skilfully peels back the layers of Henry's troubled mum Sonia and the effect it has had on the family Adelaide Advertiser Nissen is an unlikely hero and Zable recreates his world with the utmost respect The Fighter is an autumnal book with leaves of many colours and limbs heavy with fruit It offers a rich sense of the ways in which pain can mellow and create community Australian Book Review A study of loss memory and displacement embodied in the lives of the previous generation the refugees from Nazism and the war in Europe In Zable's sensitive hands each individual story of survival belongs to all Australian The Fighter does not merely echo the slang of Melbourne's once mean working class streets or the cries and clangs of its equally mean docks but it also utterly inhabits its protagonist's voice and perspective This book is an intriguing compelling moving and lyrical hybrid between memoir and fiction just like the many lives of its subject Henry Nissen Boxer dock worker social worker son brother husband and father Jew and Australian Nissen's life story is literally stranger than fiction and more heart breaking and inspiring than any novel could ever imagine Zable unflinchingly tells Nissen's inspiring and affecting story In vivid evocative prose he celebrates not only Nissen's many unprecedented achievements in the boxing ring and his tireless selfless work with Melbourne's most desperate but also the achievements of his family friends and community Skilfully juxtaposing the intersections between boxing fighting and survival good luck and bad sanity and madness this sensitively written book is ultimately a paean of hope and dignity generosity and optimism courage and love Judges comments NSW Premier s Literary Awards The Writers Directory ,2013 Adaptation, Authorship, and Contemporary Women Filmmakers S.
