Understanding Teenage Girls Horace R. Hall, Andrea Brown-Thirston, 2011-01-16 Understanding Teenage Girls Culture Identity and Schooling focuses on a range of social phenomenon that impact the lives of adolescent females of color The authors highlight the daily challenges that African American Chicana and Puerto Rican teenage girls face with respect to peer and family influences media stereotyping body image community violence pregnancy and education The authors also emphasize the incredible resiliency that young women possess in countering many of the social barriers confronting them This work attempts to communicate the often hushed voices of girls of color for the purpose of understanding their views on life experiences and how they negotiate social and cultural mores In company with their perspectives are the authors analyses guided by their years of teaching and mentoring experiences as well as contemporary research literature from the fields of education counseling psychology nursing and anthropology Practical strategies are also offered for those professionals assisting adolescent girls of color in and outside of schools Girls' Studies Elline Lipkin, 2009-10-06 Professors and students alike are taking interest in Girls Studies the socialization of girls versus boys and beginning to analyze the impact of media pop culture messaging and more on America s girls Girls Studies tackles socialization and gender expectations body image and media impact and gives insight into girl empowerment and how to equip our girls for a brighter future Difficult Dialogues about Twenty-First-Century Girls Donna Marie Johnson, Alice E. Ginsberg, 2015-10-09 Introduces new conceptual frameworks for girls studies Presenting cutting edge research from transnational scholars and activists Difficult Dialogues about Twenty First Century Girls introduces original methodologies and girl centered program design to the field of girls studies The editors pair progressive girls studies research on topics such as differential privilege voice cultural values and access to material resources with provocative questions in order to further the thinking about issues that are often marginalized or overlooked in feminist domains In addition the book serves as a manual for educators and activists designed to promote critical discussions that are accessible and includes a final dialogue with contemporary scholars about their work and the current direction of the field Voices of a Generation Pamela Haag, 1999 Genital Cutting and Transnational Sisterhood Stanlie Myrise James, Claire C. Robertson, 2002 Extrait de la couverture This book is a much needed response to the ethnocentric and arrogant Western perceptions surrounding female genital cutting FGC often referred to as either female genital mutilation or female circumcision but including a variety of practices of varying history severity geographical distribution and consequences In five provocative essays the contributors to this timely volume challenge representations of FGC In doing so they interweave a range of perspectives including history human rights law Balancing feminist ideals with culturally conscious approaches they dispel sensationalized and widely accepted concepts about FGC that influence Western media law and feminism thought Sisterhood Morgan Menzie, 2002 This book contains the stories of women who have traveled the road of despair and found themselves hopeful again They are the few the courageous who are willing to share their triumphs and tragedies with the world And through their words female teen readers can become whole by seeing themselves in these stories and learning how to survive July

Embracing, Evaluating, and Examining African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Wanda M. Brooks, Jonda C. McNair, 2008 Serious scholarship on African American children's and young adult literature is a relatively recent phenomenon To date only a handful of book length works aside from doctoral dissertations have been devoted to the exploration of this body of work and the historical works that are at its foundation Embracing, Evaluating, and Examining African American Children's and Young Adult Literature features 12 original essays that present research related to African American children's literature books intended for youth that are written by and about African Americans conducted by scholars from leading academic institutions Editors Wanda M Brooks and Jonda C McNair offer a bouquet of diverse perspectives on African American children's and young adult literature focusing attention on texts on readers and on pedagogical strategies that have the potential to bring the texts and the readers together Beginning with a foreword by one of the leading scholars in the field of African American children's and young adult literature Rudine Sims Bishop the varied disciplinary perspectives put forth in this book will inspire others to embrace evaluate and examine African American children's and young adult literature for many years to come

Black Girlhood Celebration Ruth Nicole Brown, 2009 This book passionately illustrates why the celebration of Black girlhood is essential Based on the principles and practices of a Black girl centered program it examines how performances of everyday Black girlhood are mediated by popular culture personal truths and lived experiences and how the discussion and critique of these factors can be a great asset in the celebration of Black girls Drawing on scholarship from women's studies African American studies and education the book skillfully joins poetry autobiographical vignettes and keen observations into a wholehearted participatory celebration of Black girls in a context of hip hop feminism and critical pedagogy Through humor honesty and disciplined research it argues that hip hop is not only music but also an effective way of working with Black girls Black Girlhood Celebration recognizes the everyday work many young women of color are doing outside of mainstream categories to create social change by painting an unconventional picture of how complex and necessary the goal of Black girl celebration can be

Humanists in the Hood: Unapologetically Black, Feminist, and Heretical Sikivu Hutchinson, 2020-04-07 Feminism and atheism are dirty words that Americans across the political spectrum love to debate and hate Throw them into a blender and you have a toxic brew that supposedly defies decency respectability and Americana Add an unapologetically Black critique to the mix and it's a deal breaking social taboo Putting gender at the center of the equation progressive Religious Nones of color are spearheading an anti racist social justice humanism that disrupts the colorblind ethos of European American atheist and humanist agendas which focus principally on church state separation These critical interventions build on the lived experiences and social histories of segregated Black and Latinx communities that are increasingly under economic siege In this context Hutchinson makes a valuable and necessary call for social justice change in a polarized climate where Black women's political power has become a galvanizing national force

A Voice Becoming Beth Bruno, 2018-01-16 In A Voice Becoming Beth Bruno helps mothers cast a Godly vision for their daughters and chart a course that will prepare their daughters for womanhood What if you as a mother concentrated on your daughter for one year Who might she become A Voice Becoming is for moms who want to usher their daughters into womanhood but know they need more than tips techniques and programs This is for moms who desire to chart a course for their daughters that helps them know the story of God they are entering and the global sisterhood of women they are joining A Voice Becoming is written by a fellow sojourner still in the middle of the journey processing her own story as she casts a vision for her daughter to discover hers Sometimes road maps are too restrictive and a friend is needed who has made the journey already Beth Bruno seeks to activate moms by infusing them with hope and vision Readers will join Beth in a yearlong journey of teaching their daughters that women lead women love women fight women sacrifice and women create Moms learn how to use film and books tangible experiences volunteering interviewing other women traveling and more in a creative and life altering way to help solidify these important concepts in the mind and life of their young teen
