Sisterhood Is Global International Women

Karl Homann, Peter Koslowski

Sisterhood Is Global International Women:

Sisterhood is Global Robin Morgan, 1996 Sisterhood Is Global has been revered as the essential feminist text on the international women's movement since its first appearance when it was hailed as a historic publishing event. The anthology features original essays Morgan commissioned from a deliberately eclectic mix of women both famous and less known: grass roots activists, politicians, scholars, guerrillas, novelists, social scientists, and journalists representing seventy countries from every region and political system with particular emphasis on the Global South. These truth-telling, impassioned essays celebrate the diversity as well as the similarity of women's experience; they also reveal shared female rage, vision, and pragmatic strategies for worldwide feminist solidarity and political transformation. The first such international collection, Sisterhood Is Global became an instant classic and remains unequalled in its breadth and comprehensiveness. The book covers Afghanistan to Zimbabwe and includes moving essays from such distinguished writers as Marjorie Agosin (Chile), Ama Ata Aidoo (Ghana), Shulamit Aloni (Israel), Peggy Antrobus (Caribbean), Simone de Beauvoir (France), Lidia Falcon (Spain), Hema Goonatillake (Sri Lanka), Fatima Mernissi (Morocco), Nawal El Saadawi (Egypt), Ana Titkow (Poland), Marilyn Waring (New Zealand), and Xiao Lu (China).

Feminism Without Borders Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2003-02-28 Essays by a pioneering theorist of feminism, multiculturalism, and antiracism.

Cartographies of Diaspora Avtar Brah, 2005-08-18 By addressing questions of culture, identity, and politics, Cartographies of Diaspora throws new light on discussions about difference and diversity informed by feminism and post-structuralism. It examines these themes by exploring the intersections of race, gender, class, sexuality, ethnicity, generation, and nationalism in different discourses, practices, and political contexts. The first three chapters map the emergence of Asian as a racialized category in post-war British popular and political discourse and state practices. It documents Asian cultural and political responses, paying particular attention to the role of gender and generation. The remaining six chapters analyse the debate on difference, diversity, and diaspora across different sites but mainly within feminism, anti-racism, and post-structuralism.

Global Intersectionality and Contemporary Human Rights Johanna Bond, 2021 This title offers a new way to think about human rights and the type of harm caused by discrimination globally. It traces the growing recognition of intersectionality in the work of human rights organizations around the world. This work argues that these groups should look for ways to fully incorporate intersectional analysis into the work they do.

Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women's studies, covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance, or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. This definitive guide to the literature of women's studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women s studies in the last decades of the 20th century The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women s studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field

Globalisation and Business Ethics Karl Homann,Peter Koslowski,2016-04-22 Globalization has become a common phenomenon yet one that many people experience as a threat not only to their economic existence but also to their cultural and moral self image This volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to provide a theoretical overview of how business ethics deals with the phenomenon of globalization The authors first examine the origins and development of globalization and its interaction with business ethics before discussing the impact on and role of national and multinational corporations The book goes on to examine the relationship between industrialized and developing countries and explores the place of ethics in globalized markets

Women's International Network News Women's International Network,2001 Global Activism Reader Luc Reydam,2011-01-13 Suitable for undergraduate students this title combines essays on actual causes and issues that mobilize activists with theory and concepts of social mobilization It introduces the various causes actors and organization of transnational mobilization to provide a survey of cases and theory The Routledge Global History of Feminism Bonnie G. Smith,Nova Robinson,2022-02-21 Based on the scholarship of a global team of diverse authors this wide ranging handbook surveys the history and current status of pro women thought and activism over millennia The book traces the complex history of feminism across the globe presenting its many identities its heated debates its racism discussion of religious belief and values commitment to social change and the struggles of women around the world for gender justice Authors approach past understandings and today s evolving sense of what feminism or womanism or gender justice are from multiple viewpoints These perspectives are geographical to highlight commonalities and differences from region to region or nation to nation they are also chronological suggesting change or continuity from the ancient world to our digital age Across five parts authors delve into topics such as colonialism empire the arts labor activism family and displacement as the means to take the pulse of feminism from specific vantage points highlighting that there is no single feminist story but rather multiple portraits of a broad cast of activists and thinkers Comprehensive and properly global this is the ideal volume for students and scholars of women s and gender history women s studies social history political movements and feminism The Feminist Challenge to the Socialist State in Yugoslavia Zsófia Lóránd,2018-09-27 This book tells the story of new Yugoslav feminism in the 1970s and 1980s reassessing the effects of state socialism on women s emancipation through the lens of the feminist critique This volume explores the history of the ideas defining a social movement analysing the major debates and arguments this milieu engaged in from the perspective of the history of political thought intellectual history and cultural history Twenty five years after the end of the Cold War societies in and scholars of East Central Europe still struggle to sort out the effects of state socialism on gender relations in the region What could tell us more about the subject than the ideas set out by the only organised and explicitly feminist opposition in the region who as academics artists writers and activists criticised the regime and demanded change Gender Development & Globalization Terryl Blackwell,2018-06-18 Gender Development and Globalization is the leading primer on global feminist economics and development Gender is a development issue because social considerations are not easily incorporated into institutions such as policies regulations markets and organizations This process is often referred to as the mainstreaming of gender in development institutions Women are often in a disadvantaged position in terms of access to assets services information and formal decision making status Gender equality is considered a critical element in achieving Decent Work for All Women and Men in order to effect social and institutional change that leads to sustainable development with equity and growth Gender equality refers to equal rights responsibilities and opportunities that all persons should enjoy regardless of whether one is born male or female Gender developmental scientists are concerned with age related changes in gender typing and more broadly with many issues about the emergence and patterning of gendered behaviors and thinking Description of these changes is vitally important as it informs theoretical approaches to gender development Using a broad lens on age related changes provides important information describing how development occurs but shorter time frames are also useful for identifying processes that may underlie developmental patterns Gender has been increasingly acknowledged as a critical variable in analysis and development planning Gender is an expression of power in social relationship between men and women The book will be very useful to academicians researchers planners students NGOs civil societies and all those who are interested in women studies in general and gender issues in contexts in particular
