Sitsky Conversations With The Composer:

Sitsky Jim Cotter, 2004 Over the past 40 years composer and pianist Larry Sitsky has played a significant role in Australian musical culture In honour of his 70th birthday the National Library presents this celebratory publication In conversation with fellow composer Jim Cotter Professor Sitsky discusses his early experiences as a migrant from China to Australia studying under Eugene Goossens at the Sydney Conservatorium in the 1950s the development of contemporary music in Australia and his life as a composer The Symphony in Australia, 1960-2020 Rhoderick McNeill, 2022-08-26 The Symphony remained a major orchestral form in Australia between 1960 and 2020 with a body of diverse and interesting symphonies produced during the 1960s and 1970s that defied the widespread modernist trends of serialism electronic music and indeterminism that seemed harbingers of the symphony's demise From the late 1970s onwards many Australian composers chose to work in styles that admitted modal and tonal melodic and harmonic elements with regular pulse Major cycles of symphonies by Carl Vine Brenton Broadstock and Ross Edwards began to appear in the late 1980s Other prolific symphonists like Paul Paviour 10 symphonies David Morgan 15 symphonies Philip Bracanin 11 Peter Tahourdin 5 John Polglase 5 and many others demonstrated a revived interest in the form This trend continued into the first two decades of the present century with symphonies by Matthew Hindson Katy Abbott Stuart Greenbaum Andrew Schultz Mark Isaacs and Gordon Kerry This renewed interest in the symphony reflects similar trends in Britain and the United States Rhoderick McNeill provides a comprehensive introduction to this large body of music with the aim of making the music and its composers known to concert goers music educators and students conductors and music entrepreneurs Australian Chamber Music with Piano Larry Sitsky, 2011-10-01 This book represents the first critical survey of a section of a rich Australian corpus of chamber music The author has included various instrumental combinations with piano as well as vocal music with piano The survey is chronological as well as by composer An appendix to the work provides source material for future research into this area The research has concentrated on progressive modernist music by Australian composers The commentary utilizes the author's rich experience as composer pianist and educator The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 Rhoderick McNeill, 2016-03-23 The symphony retained its primacy as the most prestigious large scale orchestral form throughout the first half of the twentieth century particularly in Britain Russia and the United States Likewise Australian composers produced a steady stream of symphonies throughout the period from Federation 1901 through to the end of the 1950s Stylistically these works ranged from essays in late nineteenth century romanticism twentieth century nationalism neo classicism and near atonality Australian symphonies were most prolific during the 1950s with 36 local entries in the 1951 Commonwealth Jubilee Symphony competition This extensive repertoire was overshadowed by the emergence of a new generation of composers and critics during the 1960s who tended to regard older Australian music as old fashioned and derivative The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 is the first study of this neglected genre and has four aims firstly to show the development of symphonic composition in Australia from Federation to 1960 secondly to highlight the achievement of the main composers who wrote symphonies thirdly to advocate the restoration and revival of this repertory and lastly to take a step towards a recasting of the narrative of Australian concert music from Federation to the present In particular symphonies by Marshall Hall Hart Bainton Hughes Le Gallienne and Morgan emerge as works of particular note Australia's Music: Themes of a New Society (2nd ed.) Roger Covell, 2016-12-01

Described on its first publication in 1967 as a scholarly account of Australian music that is also entertaining social history Roger Covell's Australia's Music Themes of a New Society has become a classic of Australian music history for its beautifully written explorations of almost two hundred years of music making across classical Indigenous and Anglo Celtic traditions This revised edition including more than sixty musical examples is supplemented by a new postscript written by the author

Ferruccio Busoni and His Legacy Erinn E. Knyt, 2017-05-22 An analysis of the composer's unconventional teaching style and philosophy his relationship with his students and his effect on twentieth century music Many students of renowned composer conductor and teacher Ferruccio Busoni had illustrious careers of their own yet the extent to which their mentor's influence helped shape their success was largely unexplored until now Through rich archival research including correspondence essays and scores Erinn E Knyt presents an evocative account of Busoni's idiosyncratic pedagogy focused on aesthetic ideals rather than methodologies or techniques and how this teaching style and philosophy can be seen and heard in the Nordic inspired musical works of Sibelius the unusual soundscapes of Var se the polystylistic meldings of music and technology in Louis Gruenberg's radio operas and film scores the electronic music of Otto Luening and the experimentalism of Philip Jarnach Equal parts critical biography and interpretive analysis Knyt's work compels a reconsideration of Busoni's legacy and puts forth the notion of a Busoni School as one that shaped the trajectory of twentieth century music Erinn Knyt's Ferruccio Busoni and His Legacy is a most welcome addition to the literature on Busoni as a fine example of research based on primary sources

Australia's Jindyworobak Composers David Symons, 2020-11-29 Australia's Jindyworobak Composers examines the music of a historically and artistically significant group of Australian composers active during the later post colonial period 1930s c 1960 These composers sought to establish a uniquely Australian identity through the evocation of the country's landscape and environment including notably the use of Aboriginal elements or imagery in their music texts dramatic scenarios or programmes Nevertheless it must be observed that this word was originally adopted as a manifesto for an Australian literary movement and was for the most part only retrospectively applied by commentators rather than the composers themselves to art music that was seen to share similar aesthetic aims Chapter One demonstrates to what extent a meaningful relationship may or may not be discernible between the artistic tenets of Jindyworobak writers and apparently likeminded composers In doing so it establishes the context for a full exploration of the music of Australian composers to whom Jindyworobak has come to be popularly applied The following chapters explore the music of composers writing within the Jindyworobak period itself and finally the later twentieth century afterlife of Jindyworobakism This will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers of Ethnomusicology Australian Music and Music History
