School of Music,1950 Paul Creston Monica J. Slomski, 1994-11-21 Although born Giuseppe Guttovergi to a poor immigrant Italian family it was as Paul Creston that Giuseppe rose to prominence becoming one of the most widely performed American composers Rhythm was a continued subject of research for this composer and by 1945 he had established a terminology of rhythmic structures which he observed both in his music and the music of other composers even writing two books on the subject This volume presents for the first time a complete descriptive account of the life of the composer as well as access to currently available materials by and about him Piano Lessons Vladimir Feltsman, 2019-06-19 Vladimir Feltsman presents insights drawn from a lifetime of devotion to music as a student a teacher a performer and a recording artist Beginning with his early days studying the piano in the Special School for Music in Moscow he writes compellingly about his experience of becoming a professional musician and passing along what he learned to the next generation Along the way he sheds fascinating light on what it was like to pursue his vocation in the former Soviet Union including eight years of artistic exile after he was refused permission to emigrate In addition to these personal reflections the book reproduces the highly informative liner notes Feltsman provided for many of the recordings in his extensive discography ranging from Bach's Goldberg Variations to the 20th century compositions of Soviet Russia's forgotten composers A final inclusion is the text that Feltsman a renowned Bach specialist wrote to accompany a performing edition of The Well Tempered Clavier offering both an expansive overview and detailed analysis of each of the preludes and fugues
