Snoo Wilson Plays:

Wilson Plays: 1 Snoo Wilson, 1999-11-08 The first collection of plays by one of Britain's most original dramatists. This first volume of Snoo Wilson's plays contains a mixture of his best early work from the 1970s and more recent efforts. Long considered to be a legend of Fringe theatre, Snoo Wilson's early plays had such absurd titles as Girl Mad as Pigs and Ella Daybellfesse's Machine. All of Wilson's plays search out strange psychological states in his characters and situations. Blowjob is a dark study in alienation and violence; in Pigsnight a Lincolnshire farm is taken by a sinister gang and turned into a machine for the organised butchering of animals. The Soul of the White Ant explores the weird world of the South African naturalist Eugene Marais whose ideas about a corporate soul lead to insanity. The volume also includes two plays with a Freudian perspective: More Light and Darwin's Flood. The volume includes an introduction by the author and notes by his various collaborators. Snoo Wilson tackles dark pockets of human endeavour with an original wit and a savage humour. Financial Times

Wilson Plays: 2 Snoo Wilson, 2014-01-03 A second collection of plays from one of Britain's most original dramatists. This second volume of plays includes Vampire, The height of comedy, a manic hellzapoppin of invention sliding from verbal frolics to pure slapstick. The Times. The Glad Hand A full-blooded theatrical experience which is also praise be good fun to watch. Its energetic imaginative nonsense spills out ideas, situations, crises, comedy and political harangue in a firework display of non sequitur, whiz bang, high spirits. Sunday Telegraph. The Grass Widow Hilariously confirms that Mr Wilson is the liveliest and most enlivening English dramatist of his generation. Sunday Telegraph. Sabina A typically surreal and unrestrained work, wonderfully theatrical. Tribune. Snoo Wilson tackles dark pockets of human endeavour with an original wit and a savage humour. Financial Times

Wilson Plays: 1 Snoo Wilson, 1999-11-08 This volume is a collection of plays by Snoo Wilson, often seen as one of Britain's most radical and delightful fringe dramatists. There are a mixture of early 1970s and more contemporary plays including Pig Night, The Soul of the White Ant and Darwin's Flood. Moonshine Snoo Wilson, 2014-05-29 A surreal fantasy plunging Sir Arthur Conan Doyle into a perilous intergalactic conflict. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the author, spiritualist and creator of the great rationalist detective Sherlock Holmes, is in search of home-grown fairies in the English village of Cottingley. Suddenly he is catapulted into another world and, while impending collision with the meteorite Caledonia threatens catastrophe, he embarks on a fantastic journey with Abraxas 365, the god of gods, to meet the malevolent media magnate Moloch and his raving teenage daughters. Weird and wonderful happenings in Plymouth as Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is discovered in search of fairies. Guardian. Lovesong of the Electric Bear Snoo Wilson, 2015-05-05 Nothing is stronger than this love for I am nothing indeed without you. Master Awoken from his deathbed by his favourite childhood teddy bear, Turing is led by the hand through the journey of his life from glowing academia to New York drag bars, from triumph to disgrace. Snoo Wilson's Lovesong of the Electric Bear is an epic psychedelic and electrifying trip through the life of Alan Turing, the computer visionary and maths genius whose gifts made him the code-breaking hero of World War II.

but whose homosexuality led him to betrayal and vilification by the very establishment who had depended on him for victory accounts of the company's practice and a selection of critical readings. The book's combining of testimony from key Wrestling School practitioners with alternative practical perspectives and with analysis by both established and emerging scholars ensures that a spectrum of understanding emerges that is rich in both breadth and depth. In its consideration of the full range of Barker's aesthetic concerns including text, direction, design, acting, narrative, form, poetry, appropriation, painting, photography, electronic media, technology, puppetry and theatre space, the volume makes a radical re-evaluation of Barker's theatre possible. Theatre Record, 2006. Affective Performance and Cognitive Science Nicola Shaughnessy, 2013-12-05

This book explores new developments in the dialogues between science and theatre and offers an introduction to a fast expanding area of research and practice. The cognitive revolution in the humanities is creating new insights into the audience experience, performance processes and training. Scientists are collaborating with artists to investigate how our brains and bodies engage with performance to create new understanding of perception, emotion, imagination and empathy. Divided into four parts, each introduced by an expert editorial from leading researchers in the field, this edited volume offers readers an understanding of some of the main areas of collaboration and research: 1 Dances with Science 2 Touching Texts and Embodied Performance 3 The Multimodal Actor 4 Affecting Audiences. Throughout its history, theatre has provided exciting and accessible stagings of science while contemporary practitioners are increasingly working with scientific and medical material. As Honour Bayes reported in the Guardian in 2011, the relationships between theatre, science and performance are exciting, explosive and unexpected. Affective Performance and Cognitive Science charts new directions in the relations between disciplines, exploring how science and theatre can impact upon each other with reference to training, drama, texts, performance and spectatorship. The book assesses the current state of play in this interdisciplinary field, facilitating cross disciplinary exchange and preparing the way for future studies. Plays For The Poor Theatre Howard

Brenton, 2014-02-03. These five short plays date from Brenton's early involvement in such shoestring groups as Portable Theatre. They are deliberately intended for the poor theatre as relevant today as when they were first written, since each play requires a small cast and minimal set yet yields maximum theatricality. Christie in Love, Gum and Goo, Heads and The Education of Skinny Spew were all first staged in 1969. The Saliva Milkshake was first staged in 1975. Alan Rickman:
