collection is a combination of romantic philosophic mystical and spiritual poetry written to warm even the coldest of hearts They come from a very inspired place that speaks of a great desire to understand ourselves The elusive butterfly in all of us that out of its innate curiosity to learn and experience things by necessity transforms itself They also speak of the unique place that we all share in the divine tapestry we call life and how we are all intimately connected The poems reflect on the betrayal and hypocrisy that we all inevitably encounter on our journey through life Most importantly a message of hope and joy runs through them so that we are always reminded that even in our darkest moments the light of truth and love has never abandoned us The book also shares some of the stories that inspired and motivated some of the poems They run the gamut from gut wrenching tearjerkers to deeply impassioned pleas for universal kindness to the whimsical frolic of a playful little child Included is a section titled Musings on Life These are philosophic perspectives intended to be life lessons for the reader It s been said that not all men are masters but all masters have been men Along that same line of thinking the author feels that although not all philosophers are poets all poets are philosophers

Delirious Consumption Sergio Delgado Moya,2017-10-18 In the decades following World War II the creation and expansion of massive domestic markets and relatively stable economies allowed for mass consumption on an unprecedented scale giving rise to the consumer society that exists today Many avant garde artists explored the nexus between consumption and aesthetics questioning how consumerism affects how we perceive the world place ourselves in it and make sense of it via perception and emotion Delirious Consumption focuses on the two largest cultural economies in Latin America Mexico and Brazil and analyzes how their artists and writers both embraced and resisted the spirit of development and progress that defines the consumer moment in late capitalism Sergio Delgado Moya looks specifically at the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros the Brazilian concrete poets Octavio Paz and Lygia Clark to determine how each of them arrived at forms of aesthetic production balanced between high modernism and consumer culture He finds in their works a provocative positioning vis vis urban commodity capitalism an ambivalent position that takes an assured but flexible stance against commodification alienation and the politics of domination and inequality that defines market economies In Delgado Moya s view these poets and artists appeal to uselessness nonutility and noncommunication all markers of the aesthetic while drawing on the terms proper to a world of
