A Critical Review of Sotunsa's "Features of Talking Drum Poetry" Luqman Kiaribee, 2016-11-18 Literature Review from the year 2015 in the subject Literature Africa grade 70% University of Ibadan UNIVERSITY OF IBADAN IBADAN NIGERIA course YOR B LITERATURE language English abstract This paper critically reviews Sotunsa's 2005 Features of Talking Drum Poetry a doctoral thesis submitted to the English Department Faculty of Arts University of Ibadan To present this paper in a simpler form an attempt has been made to divide it into sections Section one discusses the introduction which is the background to the paper while section two the abstract discusses the paper's goals The third section covers the summary of the thesis Section four as well is a critical review of affirmations made by the author We considered some scholars' views on these affirmations and looked at their genuineness We made assumptions to rectify some views likewise we made comment to credit the genuineness of author's arguments where it is necessary In the last section we do the summary and make some recommendations in support of author's arguments established in the last chapter of the thesis Our goal in this paper is to do a constructive criticism on Sotunsa's doctoral thesis basically it is for academic purposes Jazz Griots Jean-Philippe Marcoux, 2012-06-27 This book studies how four representative African American poets of the 1960s Langston Hughes Umbra's David Henderson and the Black Arts Movement's Sonia Sanchez and Amiri Baraka engage in the tradition of griots in poetic dialogues with aesthetics music politics and Black History In so doing they narrate using jazz as meta language genealogies etymologies cultural legacies and Black histories In intersecting and complementary ways Hughes Henderson Sanchez and Baraka fashioned their griotism from theorizations of artistry as political engagement and in turn formulated a Black aesthetic based on jazz performativity on a series of jazz infused iterations that form a complex pattern of literary musical historical and political moments in constant cross fertilizing dialogues with one another This form of poetic call and response becomes a definitional literary template for these poets as it allows both the possibility of intergenerational dialogues between poets and musicians and dialogic potential between song and politics between Africa and Black America between vernacular continuums in their poems Technicians of the Sacred Jerome Rothenberg, 1985-05-08 Technicians of the Sacred presents primitive and ancient poetries as the incantations they are loaded with power and very full of the magic that invests all good poetry The treatment is fascinating the commentaries are a gold mine of responses to the material by a strong poet the editor and his selection of analogous writings from a broad range of contemporary poets David P McAllester THE AFRICAN BOOK OF POEMS Lenine Morfontem KASWA , 2025-07-03 This famous book has 34 African Poems that has beautiful expressions power of wisdom spirituality cultural strength connection to the cosmos and galactic heritage Read all of them and be transported to another realm Talking Drums Peter Eric Adotey Addo, 1999 Off to the Sweet Shores of Africa Uzoamaka Chinyelu Unobagha, 2000-07 A collection of poems featuring the animals people and cultures of Africa Caribbean Writers / Les auteurs Caribéens , 2023-12-21 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Oral Poetry Ruth Finnegan, 2025-05-28 This book offers a comprehensive introduction to the vast field of oral poetry encompassing everything from American folksongs contemporary pop songs and Inuit lyrics to the heroic epics of Homer biblical psalms and epic traditions in Asia and the Pacific Taking a broad comparative approach it explores oral poetry across Africa Asia Oceania Europe and the Americas Drawing on global research Ruth Finnegan the author of the seminal Oral Literature in Africa sheds light on key debates such as the nature of oral tradition the relationship between poetry and society the differences between oral and written forms and the role of poets in predominantly non literate contexts Written from a primarily anthropological and literary perspective this study contributes to the socio cultural aspects of verbal art while also engaging with the literary dimensions of poetry which happens at any given moment to be unwritten Finnegan's clear non technical language and extensive use of translated examples make this work accessible to a wide audience appealing not only to sociologists and anthropologists but also to those with an interest in poetry in comparative literature and in global folk traditions The re issue of this classic study is now augmented by further illustrations and a newly written Introduction and Conclusion situating it in the context of the contemporary study of literature The Struggle for Justice, Equity, and Peace in the Global Classroom McClean, Marva, 2023-06-23 In the current state of global upheaval with the rallying call for human rights and justice for people who have been historically marginalized the curriculum must be decolonized to ensure that children identified as marginalized and at risk are receiving an equitable education that is based on respect and acceptance of their cultural heritage as well as their human rights The Struggle for Justice Equity and Peace in the Global Classroom investigates the global classroom as a site of transformation for educators who dare to take action to replace oppressive and repressive practices with emancipatory strategies grounded in critical consciousness The book s contents convey the pluralism that defines America and the world investigating how educators can re envision the future through an engagement with the past and an understanding of how the historical continuities of racial intolerance and social injustice continue to impact classroom teaching and the outcomes of children whose lives are shaped by the aftermath of slavery and oppression Covering topics such as colonial education inclusive classrooms and student agency this premier reference source is an excellent resource for teachers school administrators literary scholars community activists teacher educators preservice teachers researchers and academicians African Traditional Oral Literature and Visual cultures as Pedagogical Tools in Diverse Classroom Contexts Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2018-06-01 This book the second in the series is a distinct exploration of how educational policy makers curriculum developers educators learners and social activists can utilize the hitherto untapped rich resource of African traditional oral literature and visual cultures These are epistemological reservoirs and invaluable pedagogical tools in the delivery of content in the classrooms of the present global village most of whom contain diverse student populations from varying backgrounds The content of the book is thus designed to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the hitherto conventional wisdom most of which are either outdated or are colonial impositions on former colonial entities Our motivation for pulling together this anthology was due to the fact scholars educators and educational policy makers have hitherto paid little attention to the epistemological and pedagogical value of Traditional Indigenous Knowledge systems TIKS Our objective has been largely achieved by this anthology in the sense that the research perspectives of the contributors to this effort have enhanced the hitherto limited exposure and knowledge about traditional oral literature and visual cultures in Africa The torch that has been lighted from this endeavor heightens the epistemological and pedagogical implications of TIKS In launching this book we are extending a clarion call to researchers and disciples of Indigenous Knowledge systems in Africa and elsewhere to seize this opportunity and interest generated by this endeavor to undertake more studies in this area Our current efforts were focused mainly on Africa TIKS systems but we strongly believe that there are similar and equally powerful and important TIKS systems in other parts of the world Asia the Far East Central and Southern America as well as the Caribbean that are longing for exploration and exposition It is therefore our fervent hope that exploration and dissemination of knowledge in this field will continue with the flame lighted from this endeavor We believe that these efforts will greatly enhance awareness an otherwise neglected and almost forgotten but important aspects of knowledge creation and dissemination especially about traditional and hitherto unwritten histories and knowledge systems around the world These undertakings will help to broaden the conceptualization of what constitutes global knowledge within the current reality of globalization
