A Detroit Anthology Anna Clark, 2016-07-13 A unique perspective of the Motor City this anthology combines stories told by both longtime residents and newcomers from activists to teachers to artists to students While Detroit has always been rich in stories too often those stories are told back to the city by outsiders looking in believing they can explain Detroit back to itself As editor Anna Clark writes in the introduction These are the stories we tell each other over late nights at the pub and long afternoons on the porch We share them in coffee shops at church social hours in living rooms and while waiting for the bus These are stories full of nodding asides and knowing laughs These are stories addressed to the rhetorical you with the ratcheted up language that comes with it and these are stories that took real legwork to investigate You will not find positive stories about Detroit in this collection or negative ones But you will find true stories Featuring essays photographs art and poetry by Grace Lee Boggs John Carlisle Desiree Cooper Dream Hampton Steve Hughes Jamaal May Tracie McMillan Marsha Music Shaka Senghor Thomas J Sugrue and many others

Talking Shops David Clements, 2005 A striking collection of full color photographs celebrating Detroit's unique commercial folk art Cruise down the inner city streets of Detroit and your eyes take in an array of familiar images of poverty and decay What renowned photographer David Clements sees on these gritty Detroit streets are the ad displays on so many local businesses including salons churches and car washes In Talking Shops Clements captures mural facades that transform what might have been a typical urban landscape into a canvas for some of the city's most vibrant folk art With more than 130 full color photographs this delightful book uncovers such treasures as the Mr Foote Hand Car Wash and the Kill Them Dead roach exterminator Yet for all their whimsy these subjects were created by artists who have used brilliant colors meticulous words and aggressive messages that seem to talk if not shout to passersby
