Indigenous Development in the Andes Robert Andolina, Nina Laurie, Sarah A. Radcliffe, 2009-12-23 Analyzes the transnational relations of indigenous politics after their shift to the global level and explores how the contest between neo liberal economics and anti free market politics generates new forms of development and culture

Haunted Nations Sneja Gunew, 2013-04-15 Postcolonialism has attracted a large amount of interest in cultural theory but the adjacent area of multiculturalism has not been scrutinised to quite the same extent In this innovative new book Sneja Gunew sets out to interrogate the ways in which the transnational discourse of multiculturalism may be related to the politics of race and indigeneity grounding her discussion in a variety of national settings and a variety of literary autobiographical and theoretical texts Using examples from marginal sites the settler societies of Australia and Canada to cast light on the globally dominant discourses of the US and the UK Gunew analyses the political ambiguities and the pitfalls involved in a discourse of multiculturalism haunted by the opposing spectres of anarchy and assimilation

Race in Translation Robert Stam, Ella Shohat, 2012-05-28

Conflicted Commitments Gada Mahrouse, 2014-06-01 Conflicted Commitments analyzes a form of non violent direct transnational solidarity in which activists from the global North travel to support and protect people in the global South Gada Mahrouse contends that this brand of activism is a compelling site of racialized power relations and is highly instructive for a nuanced understanding of systems of race Mahrouse argues that the individuals who partake in this form of activism consciously deploy their white western privilege to offer support and protection to those facing threats of violence Moreover given that this type of activism asserts itself as an exemplary form of anti racist commitment it illustrates that well meaning practices can inadvertently reproduce racialized power structures that are embedded in imperial and colonial legacies Mahrouse focuses on Palestine and Iraq in the post 9 11 era to contemplate the contemporary challenges that these regions pose for solidarity activism By exploring how individual activists manage and negotiate their dominant positioning in these encounters Mahrouse reflects more broadly on the ethics of social justice strategies in an increasingly transnational world A detailed study of the racialized complexities and contradictions inherent in transnational solidarity activism Conflicted Commitments makes a significant contribution to critical race and feminist studies     The Cinematic Life of the Gene Jackie Stacey,2010-04-02 A leading feminist film theorist argues that the cinema animates the tropes of and enacts our fears about cloning and other kinds of genetic engineering     Red Tape Akhil Gupta,2012-07-17 Yet India s poor are not disenfranchised they actively participate in the democratic project

State/Nation/Transnation Katie Willis,Brenda S. A. The Subject of Prostitution Jane Scoular, 2015-12-22 The Subject of Prostitution offers a distinctive analysis of the links between prostitution and social theory in order to advance a critical analysis of the relationship of law to sex work Using the lens of social theory to disrupt fixed meanings the book provides an advanced analytical framework through which to understand the complexity and contingencies of sex work in late modernity The book analyses contemporary citizenship discourse and the law's ability to meet the competing demands of empowerment by sex workers and protection by radical feminists who view prostitution as the epitome of patriarchal sexual and economic relations Its central focus is the role of law in both structuring and responding to the problem of prostitution By developing a distinctive constitutive approach to law the author offers a more advanced analytical framework from which to understand how law matters in contemporary debates and also suggests how law could matter in more imaginative justice reforms This is particularly pertinent in a period of unprecedented legal reform both internationally and nationally as legal norms simultaneously attempt to protect empower and criminalise parties involved in the purchase of sexual services The Subject of Prostitution aims to overcome the current aporia in these debates and suggest new ways to engage with the subject and law As such The Subject of Prostitution provides an advanced theoretical resource for policymakers researchers and activists involved in contemporary struggles over the meanings and place of sex work in late modernity

(En)Gendering the War on Terror Kim Rygiel, 2016-03-03 The war on terror has been raging for many years now and subsequently there is a growing body of literature examining the development motivation and effects of this US led aggression Virtually absent from these accounts is an examination of the central role that gender race class and sexuality play in the war on terror This lack of attention reflects a continued resistance by analysts to acknowledge and engage identity related social issues as central elements within global politics As this conflict spreads and deepens it is more important than ever to examine how diverse international actors are using the war on terror as an opportunity to reinforce existing gendered raced classed and sexualized international relations This book examines the official war stories being told to the international community about why and against whom the war on terror is being waged The book will benefit students scholars and practitioners in the areas of international relations women s studies and cultural studies

Latina/o Communication Studies Today Angharad N. Valdivia, 2008 This book brings together contemporary and exciting research within communication and Latina o studies Written in a clear accessible manner and based on original research drawn from a broad range of paradigms from textual analysis to reception studies and political economy Latina o Communication Studies Today provides an invaluable resource and excellent case studies for those already conducting research and teaching in Latina o communication studies The media studied include radio television cinema magazines and newspapers

North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21 This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists the stand up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research the analysis is supplemented with semi structured interviews with the artists This book is suitable for scholars and students in Gender Studies Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology and Politics

Venus in the Dark Janell Hobson, 2018-02-01 In this second edition of the remarkable and now classic cultural history of black women s beauty Venus in the Dark Janell Hobson explores the enduring figure of the Hottentot Venus and the history of critical and artistic responses to her by black women in contemporary photography film literature music and dance In 1810 Sara Baartman was taken from South Africa to Europe where she was put on display at circuses salons museums and universities as the Hottentot Venus The subsequent legacy of representations of black women s sexuality from Josephine Baker to Serena Williams to hip hop and dancehall videos refer back to her iconic image Via a new preface Hobson argues for the continuing influence of Baartman s legacy as her image still reverberates through the contemporary marketization of black women s bodies from popular music and pornography to advertising A brand new chapter explores how historical echoes from previous eras map onto highly visible bodies in the twenty first century It analyzes fetishistic spectacles of the black booty with particular emphasis on the role of Beyonc Knowles in the popularization of the bootylicious body and the counter aesthetic the singer has gone on to advance for black women s bodies and beauty politics By studying the imagery of the Hottentot Venus from the nineteenth century to now readers are invited to confront the racial and sexual objectification and embodied resistance that make up a significant part of black women s experience
