Talking Back Citizen Feedback And Cable Technology:

    Talking Back: Citizen Feedback and Cable Technology Ithiel de Sola Pool,1973 the second section deals with the technology and economics of the system the final section explores the possibilities of interactive two way cable communication and the ways it can be used to encourage group dialogue and register social choice   Talking Back ,1973   Reinventing Government or Reinventing Ourselves Hindy L. Schachter,1997-01-01 By analyzing a turn of the century model of urban reform that depicts this relationship between citizens and government Schachter shows how reinvigorating an active public is essential to increasing agency efficiency and responsiveness She offers two strategies for moving toward active citizenship better citizenship education including service learning and public agencies provision of better focused information for their owners   Communication Yearbook 26 William B. Gudykunst,2003-01-30 Communication Yearbook 26 is devoted to publishing state of the art literature reviews in which authors critique and synthesize a body of communication research This volume continues the tradition of publishing critical integrative reviews of specific lines of research Chapters focus on comprehending speaker meaning understanding family communication patterns and family functioning affection in interpersonal relationships audience activity and passivity the political influence of business organizations in public policy In addition chapters discuss emotional intelligence in organizational communication professionalism and social responsibility in the field of public relations climate of opinion ideology and the study of identity in interethnic communication technology and the physician patient relationship and communication across the life span Representing media interpersonal intercultural and other areas of communication this is an important reference on current research for scholars and students in the social sciences   The Power of Global Community Media Linda K. Fuller,2016-04-30 Drawing on both theoretical and practical case studies this collection moves from developing attempts at local media to case studies and on to cyber examples The contributors all distinguished international communications scholars present a range of perspectives on the ever burgeoning area of grassroots local media   Community Media Linda K. Fuller,2007-06-11 Drawing on case studies this collection offers international perspectives on how community media serves their audiences The contributors present perspectives on the ever burgeoning area of grassroots Their research represents participant observation hands on community involvement boards of directors content analysis and ethical inquiries   Media Decentralization Dän Kaspä, Dan Caspi offers a comprehensive introduction to the Israeli mass media and a fresh theoretical look at the role and function of a free press in a democratic society Two major issues underlie this study patterned after the pioneering work of Morris Janowitz on the community press in the United States relations between social and communications systems and reciprocal relations among various mass media Caspi s primary concern is to determine whether the recent flourishing of a local press in the form of weekly tabloids sold or distributed free throughout their respective cities reflects and in turn contributes to a process of social and political decentralization The Israeli audience thirsts for information The nationwide mass media developed in the shadow of a centralist political system is rigid and inflexible downplaying the news value of local events and attending only to Israel s acutely felt security and economic problems Hence there is a burgeoning of over a hundred local newspapers to fill the need for a more intimate press Contents Media Decentralization in a Centralized System Some General Trends and a Communication Model The Daily Press in Israel The Development of the Local Press Institutional Characteristics Personnel Characteristics Functional Characteristics The Struggle between the Local and Nationwide Press The Inception of the Local Press in Four Major Cities Jerusalem Tel Aviv Haifa and Beersheba Public Support Political Approaches The Information Web Carol C Gould,2019-07-11 This book deals with the major ethical and social implications of computer networking and its technological development In this book a number of leading thinkers philosophers computer scientists and researchers address some fundamental questions posed by the new technology OT Report United States.
