some point during the campaign This book explores the development of the entertainment talk show strategy and assesses its impact on presidential campaigns The chapters mix detailed narrative with extensive empirical data on audiences content viewer reaction and press coverage to explain why candidates have embraced this strategy and the conditions under which these interviews are most likely to meet their expectations The book also explores how these interviews can enhance campaigns by connecting a critical segment of the voting population with candidates who provide useful political information in a casual setting Talk Show Campaigns shows that this is more than a gimmick it s a key part of how candidates communicate with voters which reveals a lot about how campaigns have changed over the past two decades

Tv's Greatest Talk Shows Stephen Winzenburg, 2005-09-01 TV s Greatest Talk Shows is the first comprehensive look at the top television talk shows from the past fifty years From early pioneers Johnny Carson Barbara Walters and Phil Donahue to modern success stories like Oprah Winfrey Larry King and David Letterman the book covers every style of the talk show format Revisit the 90s daytime trash TV era with Jenny Jones Ricki Lake and Jerry Springer Get the inside history on the battle between The Today Show and Good Morning America Find out the common background of confrontational cable hosts like Bill O Reilly Sean Hannity and Bill Maher And discover the growing political influence of late night comedian hosts from Jay Leno to Jon Stewart Behind the scenes stories include the author s personal appearances on Nightline Good Morning America and Live with Regis and Kathie Lee and visits to shows like Ricki Lake David Letterman Geraldo Rivera and 60 Minutes He also shares his personal experiences involving Sally Jessy Raphael Tom Brokaw and Larry King The book covers over 150 talk shows and includes a ranking of the 50 most popular hosts Which five stars were selected as the greatest talk show hosts of all time And who made the list of the biggest talk show failures in TV history

Can We Talk? Gini Graham Scott, 1996-08-21 Can We Talk The Power and Influence of Talk Shows explores the talk show genre and how it affects society Dr Scott a noted expert on social issues and a sometime radio talk show host provides a savvy overview of how and why today s talk shows and their hosts have become so controversial compelling and powerful especially if they own part or all of their own show The first half of the book focuses on radio talk shows the second on television talk shows These two sections start with detailed histories of how talk shows began with the birth of each of these media over a half century ago Subsequent chapters highlight the big movers and shakers in these arenas with brief looks at how top hosts e g Oprah Winfrey Barbara Walters Larry King Howard Stern David Letterman and Rush Limbaugh found professional and financial success Can We Talk is a remarkably fair and balanced look at a profit driven industry for which critics and supporters have become adversarial in arguing their competing claims such as advocating free speech and free markets versus upholding social and community values Anyone interested in talk shows and their impact on society as well as social scientists behavior therapists and psychologists will benefit from Dr Scott s incisive comments as a social scientist host and panelist Entertaining Politics Jeffrey P. Jones, 2005 Contrary to arguments that television is detrimental to democracy Entertaining Politics explores the role of new political television in shaping a changing civic culture Jeffrey P Jones shows how viewers understand and make use of the increasingly blurred lines between serious and entertainment programming and argues that alarmist critics who predict the end of politics in the age of television have misconstrued the role of the medium and the commitment of audiences to both TV and public life Visit our website for sample chapters The Talking Cure Jane M. Shattuc, 2014-04-04 The Talking Cure examines four nationally syndicated television talk shows Donahue The Oprah Winfrey Show Geraldo and Sally Jessy Raphael which are primarily devoted to feminine culture and issues Serving as one of the few public forums where working class women and those with different sexual orientations have a voice these talk shows represent American TV at its most radical Shattuc examines the tension between talk s feminist politics and the television industry who in their need to appeal to women trades on sensation stereotypes and fears in order to engender product consumption However this genre is not a one way form of social interaction The female audience complies and resists in a complex give and take and it is this relationship which The Talking Cure aims to understand and reveal Vulture Culture Christine M. Quail, Kathalene A. Razzano, Loubna H. Skalli, 2005 Vulture Culture presents a new and complex way of thinking about daytime television talk shows Vulture culture is the process by which the media scavenge the personal narratives and popular discourses that make up everyday knowledge and commonsense and re present them back to us as spectacle entertainment and information This book explores these nuances through a probing analysis of the vast landscape of daytime television talk shows and their relation to important political social and economic problems Using an approach that takes into account the multiple perspectives of political economy cultural studies and cultural pedagogy Vulture Culture provides an in depth and well rounded examination of this mainstay of television and media culture Talk Shows and Hosts on Radio Annie M. Brewer, 1995 Strange Bedfellows Russell Peterson, 2008-03-05 It is no coincidence that presidential candidates have been making it a point to add the late night comedy circuit to the campaign trail in recent years In 2004 when John Kerry decided it was time to do his first national television interview he did not choose CBS s 60 Minutes ABC s Nightline or NBC Nightly News Kerry picked Comedy Central s The Daily Show When George W Bush was lagging in the polls his appearance on the David Letterman Show gave him a measurable boost Candidates for the 2008 presidential election began their late night bookings almost as soon as they launched their campaigns How can this be The reason is that polls have been consistently finding that a significant number of Americans and an even larger proportion of those under the age of thirty get at least some of their news about politics and national affairs from comedy shows While this trend toward what some have called infotainment seems to herald the descent of our national discourse the triumph of entertainment over substance the reality according to Russell L Peterson is more complex He explains that this programming is more than a mere replacement for traditional news outlets it plays its own role in shaping public perception of government and the political process From Johnny Carson to Jon Stewart from Chevy Chase s spoofing of President Ford on Saturday Night Live to Stephen Colbert s roasting of President Bush at the White House Correspondents Dinner Strange Bedfellows explores what Americans have found so funny about our political institutions and the people who inhabit them and asks what this says about the health of our democracy Comparing the mainstream network hosts Jay Dave Conan and Johnny before them who have always strived to be equal opportunity offenders to the newer edgier crop of comedians on cable networks Peterson shows how each brand of satire plays off a different level of Americans frustrations with politics Morning Drive Michael A. Smerconish,2009 Smerconish attorney turned political pundit offers his trademark straight talk on hot button issues from stem cell research and balancing budgets to immigration and what he calls the non hunt for Osama bin Laden Faux News Sandra Tillman,2015-10-12 Faux News The Controversies Talking Heads of Fox News is a reference guide for all that is Fox s Faux news This edition covers the history controversies and primary talking heads of the Fox News Channel Love them or hate them Fox News has an effect on the political landscape and is definitely a polarizing entity FNC is 100% biased 100% pushing an agenda and 100% entertainment rather than a legitimate news source This curated collection highlights some of the ridiculousness that is Fox s Faux news This edition also serves as an excellent reference guide
