Talking Leadership Conversations With Powerful Women:

Talking Leadership Mary S. Hartman, 1999 Interviews with 13 women in areas ranging from philanthropy to politics and from business to academia present a thought provoking look at differences and commonalities in the lives and leadership approaches of women committed to social change Beyond personal details and anecdotes conversations capture a variety of experiences and insights reflecting what it s like to be a woman and a major leader in America at the close of the 20th century Hartman is a professor and director for the Institute of Women s Leadership at Douglass College Rutgers University Lacks a subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice Sarah Wendt, Nicole Moulding, 2016-01-29 Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice explores feminism as core to social work knowledge practice and ethics It demonstrates how gender neutral perspectives and practices obscure gender discourses and power relations It also shows feminist social work practice can transform areas of social work not specifically concerned with gender through its emphasis on relationships and power Within and outside feminism there is a growing assumption that equality has been won and is readily available to all women However women continue to dominate the ranks of the poor in developed and developing countries around the world male perpetrated violence against women and children has not reduced women outnumber men by up to three to one in the diagnosis of common mental health problems and women continue to be severely underrepresented in every realm of power decision making and wealth This worrying context draws attention to the ways gender relations structure most of the problems faced by the women men and children in the day to day worlds in which social work operates Drawing together key contemporary thinking about feminism and its place in social work this international collection looks at both core curriculum areas taught in social work programs and a wide range of practice fields that involve key challenges and opportunities for future feminist social work This book is suitable for all social work students and academics It examines the nuanced nature of power relationships in the everyday and areas such as working with cross cultural communities mental health interpersonal violence and abuse homelessness child protection ageing disability and sexuality

Contemporary Perspectives on Rhetoric Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, Robert Trapp, 2014-04-04 The anniversary edition marks thirty years of offering an indispensable review and analysis of thinkers who have exerted a profound influence on contemporary rhetorical theory I A Richards Ernesto Grassi Cha m Perelman and Lucie Olbrechts Tyteca Stephen Toulmin Richard Weaver Kenneth Burke J rgen Habermas bell hooks Jean Baudrillard and Michel Foucault The brief biographical sketches locate the theorists in time and place showing how life experiences influenced perspectives on rhetorical thought The concise explanations of complex concepts are clear engaging insightful and highly accessible serving as an excellent primer for reading the major works of these scholars The critical commentary is carefully chosen to highlight implications and to place the theories within a broader rhetorical context Each chapter ends with a complete bibliography of works by the theorists

Telling Political Lives Brenda DeVore

Marshall, Molly A. Mayhead, 2008-06-24 This book investigates the autobiographical writings of Barbara Jordan Patricia Schroeder Geraldine Ferraro Elizabeth Dole Wilma Mankiller Hillary Rodham Clinton Madeleine Albright and Christine Todd Whitman These eight women represent the diversity that permeates the cultural backgrounds life adventures and ideologies women bring to the political table From differences in race class and geographic location to variations in personal and family experiences religious beliefs and political ideology these women illustrate many of the divergent standpoints from which women craft their lives in the United States Each essay focuses on the autobiographical text as political discourse and therefore as an appropriate site for the rhetorical construction of a personal and civic self situated within local and national political communities The collection examines issues such as the intersection between the politicization of the private and the personalization of the public evident in the women s narratives the description of U S politics the women provide in their writings the ways in which the women s personal stories craft arguments about their political ideologies the strategies these women leaders employ in navigating the gendered double binds of politics and the manner in which the women s discourse serves to encourage instruct and empower future women leaders The analyses embody and explicate the political and rhetorical strategies these leaders employ in their efforts to act on their convictions highlight the need for and reality of women s involvement in all levels of politics and serve as an impetus and inspiration for scholars and activists alike

Rebel Rank and File Aaron Brenner, Cal Winslow, Robert Brenner, 2020-05-05 Often considered irredeemably conservative the US working class actually has a rich history of revolt Rebel Rank and File uncovers the hidden story of insurgency from below against employers and union bureaucrats in the late 1960s and 1970s From the mid 1960s to 1981 rank and file workers in the United States engaged in a level of sustained militancy not seen since the Great Depression and World War II Millions participated in one of the largest strike waves in US history There were 5 716 stoppages in 1970 alone involving more than 3 million workers Contract rejections collective insubordination sabotage organized slowdowns and wildcat strikes were the order of the day Workers targeted much of their activity at union leaders forming caucuses to fight for more democratic and combative unions that would forcefully resist the mounting offensive from employers that appeared at the end of the postwar economic boom It was a remarkable era in the history of US class struggle one rich in lessons for today s labor movement

Contesting the Terrain of the Ivory Tower Rochelle Garner, 2004-02-01 This study examines the leadership of three African American women administrators in higher education and how they have used their spirituality as a lens to lead in the academy The central questions in this case study include How do African American women make meaning of their spiritual selves in their everyday leadership practices How does their spirituality influence their work and the type of relationships they develop with others in the academy What are the ways in which these three women have used their spirituality as a lens to lead and how does this leadership impact the social cultural and political construct of a male dominated arena

Leading the Way Mary K. Trigg, 2010 Leading the Way is a collection of personal essays written by twenty one young hopeful American women who describe their work activism leadership and efforts to change the world It responds to critical portrayals of this generation of twenty somethings as being disengaged and apathetic about politics social problems and civic causes Bringing together graduates of a women s leadership certificate program at Rutgers University s Institute for Women s Leadership these essays provide a contrasting picture to assumptions about the current death of feminism the rise of selfishness and individualism and the disaffected Millennium Generation Reflecting on a critical juncture in their lives the years during college and the beginning of careers or graduate studies the contributors voices demonstrate the ways that diverse young educated women in the United States are embodying and formulating new models of leadership at the same time as they are finding their own professional paths ways of being and places in the world They reflect on controversial issues such as gay marriage gender racial profiling war immigration poverty urban education and health care reform in a post 9 11 era Leading the Way introduces readers to young women who are being prepared and empowered to assume leadership roles with men in all public arenas and to accept equal responsibility for making positive social change in the twenty first century     Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education Elizabeth J. Allan,Susan Iverson,Rebecca Ropers-Huilman,2009-10-16 Written for Higher Education Masters and PhD programs this landmark textbook joins the theory of feminist post structuralism with research methods for the purpose of policy analysis in Higher Education It showcases the different methods that can be applied to a range of topics in Higher Education policy and policy development Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education highlights the work of accomplished and award winning scholars and provides an in depth examination of theoretical frameworks and concrete examples of how feminist post structuralism effectively informs research methods and can serve as a vital tool for policy makers and analysts     Knocking on Labor's Door Lane Windham,2017-08-01 The power of unions in workers lives and in the American political system has declined dramatically since the 1970s In recent years many have argued that the crisis took root when unions stopped reaching out to workers and workers turned away from unions But here Lane Windham tells a different story Highlighting the integral often overlooked contributions of women people of color young workers and southerners Windham reveals how in the 1970s workers combined old working class tools like unions and labor law with legislative gains from the civil and women s rights movements to help shore up their prospects Through close up studies of workers campaigns in shipbuilding textiles retail and service Windham overturns widely held myths about labor s decline showing instead how employers united to manipulate weak labor law and quash a new wave of worker organizing Recounting how employees attempted to unionize against overwhelming odds Knocking on Labor s Door dramatically refashions the narrative of working class struggle during a crucial decade and shakes up current debates about labor s future Windham s story inspires both hope and indignation and will become a must read in labor civil rights and women s history     Women and Leadership Julia Gillard,Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala,2020-07-23 For readers of Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Sheryl Sandberg and Mary Beard Women and

Leadership is a powerful call to arms about the lack of women at the top Who better qualified to delve into this topic Business Life _____ Women make up less than 10 per cent of national leaders Behind this statistic lies a pattern of unequal access to power Drawing on current research and in conversation with some of the world s most powerful and interesting women about their lived experience Gillard and Okonjo Iweala explore gender bias and ask how we get more women into leadership roles Speaking honestly and freely women leaders such as Jacinda Ardern Hillary Clinton Michelle Bachelet and Theresa May talk about their ideas receiving less acknowledgement than their male colleagues ideas what it s like to be body shamed in the media and the things they wish they had done differently Their stories reveal how gender and sexism affect perceptions of women as leaders their pathways to power and the circumstances in which their leadership comes to an end The result is a rare insight into life as a leader and a powerful call to arms for women everywhere The Other Women's Movement Dorothy Sue Cobble,2011-08-15 American feminism has always been about more than the struggle for individual rights and equal treatment with men There s also a vital and continuing tradition of women s reform that sought social as well as individual rights and argued for the dismantling of the masculine standard In this much anticipated book Dorothy Sue Cobble retrieves the forgotten feminism of the previous generations of working women illuminating the ideas that inspired them and the reforms they secured from employers and the state This socially and ethnically diverse movement for change emerged first from union halls and factory floors and spread to the pink collar domain of telephone operators secretaries and airline hostesses From the 1930s to the 1980s these women pursued answers to problems that are increasingly pressing today how to balance work and family and how to address the growing economic inequalities that confront us The Other Women s Movement traces their impact from the 1940s into the feminist movement of the present The labor reformers whose stories are told in The Other Women s Movement wanted equality and special benefits and they did not see the two as incompatible They argued that gender differences must be accommodated and that equality could not always be achieved by applying an identical standard of treatment to men and women The reform agenda they championed an end to unfair sex discrimination just compensation for their waged labor and the right to care for their families and communities launched a revolution in employment practices that carries on today Unique in its range and perspective this is the first book to link the continuous tradition of social feminism to the leadership of labor women within that movement Women's Political Discourse Molly A. Mayhead,Brenda DeVore Marshall,2005-09-21 Following an overview of women s political discourse from the early twentieth century this book features selected women governors representatives and senators of the past several decades from Jeannette Rank in the first woman elected to the US House of Representatives to Hillary Rodham Clinton Still Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold,2017-05-24 When Madam President moves into the Oval Office of the White House she will share a path that several women have helped to pave Often left off the history pages and out of the minds of many Americans are the presidential bids of several women Margaret Chase Smith 1964 Shirley

Chisholm 1972 Patricia Schroeder 1988 Elizabeth Dole 2000 Carol Moseley Braun 2004 and Hillary Clinton 2008 2016 Still Paving the Way for Madam President shows the progress women candidates have made as they have moved from symbolic candidates to viable candidates and in 2016 the Democratic nominee This study shines a light on the persistent obstacles that face women candidates and offers insight into what it will take to finally shatter the seemingly impenetrable political glass ceiling

Carbon Queen Maia Weinstock,2023-03-07 The life of trailblazing physicist Mildred Dresselhaus who expanded our understanding of the physical world As a girl in New York City in the 1940s Mildred Millie Dresselhaus was taught that there were only three career options open to women secretary nurse or teacher But sneaking into museums purchasing three cent copies of National Geographic and devouring books on the history of science ignited in Dresselhaus 1930 2017 a passion for inquiry In Carbon Queen science writer Maia Weinstock describes how with curiosity and drive Dresselhaus defied expectations and forged a career as a pioneering scientist and engineer Dresselhaus made highly influential discoveries about the properties of carbon and other materials and helped reshape our world in countless ways from electronics to aviation to medicine to energy She was also a trailblazer for women in STEM and a beloved educator mentor and colleague Her path wasn't easy Dresselhaus's Bronx childhood was impoverished Her graduate adviser felt educating women was a waste of time But Dresselhaus persisted finding mentors in Nobel Prize winning physicists Rosalyn Yalow and Enrico Fermi Eventually Dresselhaus became one of the first female professors at MIT where she would spend nearly six decades Weinstock explores the basics of Dresselhaus's work in carbon nanoscience accessibly and engagingly describing how she identified key properties of carbon forms including graphite buckyballs nanotubes and graphene leading to applications that range from lighter stronger aircraft to more energy efficient and flexible electronics

Out of the Shadows Nina Byers,Gary Williams,2006-08-17 Publisher description The Diversity Paradox Kristin Kanthak,George A. Krause,2012-04-11 In legislatures group dynamics affect how the legislature operates who is valued enough to play a critical decision making role and what voices matter in determining policy outcomes An increase in a minority group's size within democratically elected legislatures actually leads to the devaluation of individual minority group members The authors assert that representative institutions such as legislatures face a diversity paradox when the size of a minority group increases beyond mere tokenism in representative institutions it tends to create an unintended backlash toward the minority group's members that emanates from both majority and fellow minority group members The inclusion of minority group voices in representative institutions is critical in a wide range of political decisions ranging from legislative gender quotas in the new Iraqi constitution to attempts in the U S to increase minority representation through redistricting

Stayin' Alive Jefferson Cowie,2010-09-14 Winner of the 2011 Merle Curti award an epic account that recasts the 1970s as the key turning point in modern U S history from the renowned historian A wide ranging cultural and political history that will forever redefine a misunderstood decade Stayin' Alive is prizewinning historian Jefferson Cowie's remarkable account of how working class

America hit the rocks in the political and economic upheavals of the 1970s In this edgy and incisive book part political intrigue part labor history with large doses of American music film and television lore Cowie with an ear for the power and poetry of vernacular speech Cleveland Plain Dealer reveals America s fascinating path from rising incomes and optimism of the New Deal to the widening economic inequalities and dampened expectations of the present     Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold,2006-01-01 This book chronicles the lives communication styles and presidential bids of five remarkable women_Margaret Chase Smith Shirley Chisholm Patricia Schroeder Elizabeth Dole and Carol Moseley Braun_while also addressing the obstacles and opportunities for women as presidential contenders     Engaging with Empowerment Srilatha Batliwala,2015-09-02 In this fascinating collection of writings Srilatha Batliwala feminist thinker and practitioner explores the many dimensions of what empowerment means for and to women Looking back on a life lived through commitment to a cause rather than to an organisation or to a sector and working for it at many levels and locations she traces the evolution of the concept from the late 1980s till now unravelling its ambiguities highlighting insights gained through practice and analysing how and why it has been depoliticised and reduced by the state and aid agencies Along the way Batliwala traverses key sectors including education for women politics outside political systems grassroots movements energy for sustainable development and a controversial questioning of a rights based approach to women s equality     The Quest for Equity in Higher Education Beverly Lindsay,Manuel J. Justiz,2001-08-30 A critical examination of current sociopolitical issues surrounding equity and diversity and their impact on higher education
