Film and Politics in America Brian Neve,2004-08-02 In A Social Cinema Film making and Politics in America Brian Neve presents a study of the social and political nature of American film by concentrating on a generation of writers from the thirties who directed films in Hollywood in the 1940 s He discusses how they negotiated their roles in relation to the studio system itself undergoing change and to what extent their experience in the political and theatre movements of thirties New York was to be reflected in their later films Focusing in particular on Orson Welles Elia Kazan Jules Dassin Abraham Polonsky Nicholas Ray Robert Rossen and Joseph Losey Neve relates the work of these writers and directors to the broader industrial bureaucratic social and political developments of the period 1935 1970 With special emphasis on the post war decade bringing together archive and secondary sources Neve explores a lost tradition of social filmmaking in America

Hollywood's Second Sex Aubrey Malone,2015-04-24 Women stars in Hollywood were invariably in two categories said director Otto Preminger One group was of women who were exploited by men and the other much smaller group was of women who survived by acting like men Beginning with silent film vamp Theda Bara and continuing with icons like Greta Garbo Marilyn Monroe and Raquel Welch this study of film industry misogyny describes how female stars were maltreated by a sexist studio system until women like Katharine Hepburn and Bette Davis fought for parity The careers of Doris Day Brigitte Bardot Carole Landis Frances Farmer Dorothy Dandridge Inger Stevens and many others are examined along with more recent actresses like Demi Moore and Sharon Stone Women who worked behind the scenes writing screenplays producing and directing without due credit are also covered

This Was Hollywood Carla Valderrama,2020-11-17 In this one of a kind Hollywood history the creator of Instagram s celebrated ThisWasHollywood reveals the forgotten past of the film world in a dazzling visual package modeled on the classic fan magazines of yesteryear From former screen legends who have faded into obscurity to new revelations about the biggest movie stars Valderrama unearths the most fascinating little known tales from the birth of Hollywood through its Golden Age The shocking fate of the world s first movie star Clark Gable s secret love child The film that nearly ended Paul Newman s career A former child star who at ninety three reveals her metoo story for the first time Valderrama unfolds these stories and many more in a volume that is by turns riveting maddening hilarious and shocking Drawing on new interviews archival research and an exhaustive library of photographs This Was Hollywood is a compelling and visually stunning catalogue of the lost history of the movies

The Author & Journalist ,1928 Hollywood's Native Americans Angela Aleiss,2022-04-06 This book highlights the contributions and careers of Native Americans who have carved impressive careers in Hollywood from the silent film era of the early 1900s to the present becoming advocates for their heritage This book explores how the heritage and behind the scenes activities of Native American actors and filmmakers helped shape their own movie images Native artists have impacted movies for more than a century but until recently their presence had passed largely unrecognized From the silent era to contemporary movies this book features leading Native American actors whose voices have reached a broad audience and are part of the larger conversation about the exploitation of underrepresented people in Hollywood Each chapter highlights Native actors in lead or supporting roles as well as filmmakers whose movies were financed and distributed by Hollywood studios The text further explores how a pan Indian heritage that applies to all tribes in terms of spirituality historical trauma and a version of ceremony and storytelling have shaped these performers movie identities It will appeal to a wide range of readers including fans of Westerns history buffs of American popular cinema and students and scholars of Native American studies A note from the author Since the publication of this book the CBC news magazine The Fifth Estate released an investigative documentary on October 27 2023 alleging that Buffy Sainte Marie had been fraudulently posing as a Native Canadian throughout her career

Edith Wharton on Film Parley Ann Boswell, 2007-10-23 Edith Wharton 1862-1937 who lived nearly half of her life during the cinema age when she published many of her well known works acknowledged that she disliked the movies characterizing them as an enemy of the imagination Yet her fiction often referenced film and popular Hollywood culture and she even sold the rights to several of her novels to Hollywood studios Edith Wharton on Film explores these seeming contradictions and examines the relationships among Wharton's writings the popular culture in which she published them and the subsequent film adaptations of her work three from the 1930s and four from the 1990s Author Parley Ann Boswell examines the texts in which Wharton referenced film and Hollywood culture and evaluates the extant films adapted from Wharton's fiction The volume introduces Wharton's use of cinema culture in her fiction through the 1917 novella Summer written during the nation's first wave of feminism in which the heroine Charity Royall is moviegoer and new American woman consumer and consumable Boswell considers the source of this conformity and entrapment especially for women She discloses how Wharton struggled to write popular stories and then how she revealed her antipathy toward popular movie culture in two late novels Boswell describes Wharton's financial dependence on the American movie industry which fueled her antagonism toward Hollywood culture her well documented disdain for popular culture and her struggles to publish in women's magazines This first full length study that examines the film adaptations of Wharton's fiction covers seven films adapted from Wharton's works between 1930 and 2000 and the fifty year gap in Wharton film adaptations The study also analyzes Sophy Viner in The Reef as pre-Hollywooding new characters in Twilight Sleep and The Children and the real Hollywood figures who might have inspired them and The Sheik and racial stereotypes Boswell traces the complicated relationship of fiction and narrative film the adaptations and cinematic metaphors of Wharton's work in the 1990s and Wharton's persona as an outsider Wharton's fiction on film corresponds in striking ways to American noir cinema says Boswell because contemporary filmmakers recognize and celebrate the subversive qualities of Wharton's work Edith Wharton on Film which includes eleven illustrations enhances Wharton's stature as a major American author and provides persuasive evidence that her fiction should be read as American noir literature
