Call of the Sound Dragon: A Branches Book Turtleback Books Publishing, Limited, 2020-06-02 The Dragon Whisperer Lucinda Hare, 2018-05. This is the 2nd edition so all 45 reviews are found under the first edition April 2011. Fantasy Book Review 9/10. Reading Lucinda Hare's debut novel The Dragon Whisperer is like riding a dragon. You have to hold on tight during the twist and turns, take time to stop and enjoy the breathtaking view, prepare yourself for the sudden lows, enjoy the soaring heights and make sure you're not on the wrong end of that fiery breath. A tale hatched from Hare's real life experiences and devotion to all kinds of animals. The Dragon Whisperer follows Earl's daughter and dragon whisperer eleven year old Quenelda. Her best friend is a battle dragon with the comically cautionary name of Two Gulps and You're Gone, who she can command through thought alone. Hare offers a headstrong heroine in Quenelda that chooses dragons over dresses, battles over boys and ultimately dreams of joining her father's side as a warrior in the Stealth Dragon Services. Don't be fooled though just because Hare has chosen a young girl as her protagonist doesn't mean she has written a book solely for that gender. Yes the tale flies in the face of books such as Harry Potter and Artemis Fowl that have strong male protagonists but The Dragon Whisperer contains enough dark magic, fierce battle dragons and slimy hobgoblins to appeal to young boys. Regardless of gender, readers will root for the underdog, a young gnome named Root and wish they had their very own dragon. On the surface Hare describes the relationship between Quenelda and Two Gulps like that between horse and rider but the dragons are given such a depth of history and behaviours that after the book is shut the reader half expects to see these beasts lurking in local paddocks. The one letdown of Hare's work is that in marketing it towards children adults might see it as just another children's book and pass it over. The back cover boasts a 9 age rating and I urge anyone nine or over to snap this read up. Verdict: A battle dragon of a book. Bulk orders to <http://www.printondemand.worldwide.com> or Gardners Books. Call of the Sound Dragon Tracey West, 2020. The city of Remus is being torn apart by a duel between two wizards and Drake Petra and Griffith have traveled there to assist a blind dragon master Tessa in sorting out the situation using the sound dragon's unique power to manipulate sound waves. The dragon masters retrieve the Power Crystal which is embedded inside an unbreakable rock but will it be able to absorb the cloud of uncontrolled magic that is threatening the city before it is too late.
