Directions

Explain to the class that a totem pole is a tall pole on which animals and other images from nature are carved or painted. Explain that totem poles are symbolic and often tell a story. If possible show children examples of authentic Native American totem poles from picture books.

Have the class to make a tall totem pole of cardboard boxes or other objects from nature. Have each child to paint a cardboard box with a picture of an animal or a person. Then have the class to put the boxes together to make a tall totem pole. Finally, have the class to tell a story about the totem pole.
