Waitschies, 1998 Based on a workshop between clergy members of the United Methodist Church But They Won't Talk With a Woman focuses on justice issues between male and female clergy relying on the personal experiences of the participants as well as their reflections from points made in the book Women s Growth in Connection by Judith V Jordan et al In this book the group posits that unless injustices that female clergy are subjected to in their daily lives are changed the Church may potentially be destroyed Topics covered include the abuse of power by men over women traditional gender roles biblical interpretations of these roles and communication between men and women Grown Woman Talk Sharon Malone, M.D., 2025-04-08 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A must read for anyone who cares about their quality of life Dr Sharon Malone is the first person I turn to for a whole host of issues especially my health MICHELLE OBAMA A practical guide to aging and health for women who have felt ignored or marginalized by the medical profession from a leading OB GYN and expert on menopausal and post reproductive health AN NPR BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR There s not enough talk around women s health and what little there is rarely helps Women are routinely warned lectured or threatened about their health Or they are ignored dismissed or shamed But they are rarely empowered And empowerment more than anything is what women and women of color in particular need Grown Woman Talk is for every woman who has felt marginalized or overwhelmed by a healthcare system that has become more impersonal complex and difficult to navigate than ever It s also for any woman who is simply standing at the intersection of aging and health anxious and wanting solutions Part medical handbook part memoir and part sister girl cheerleader this book is filled with useful resources and real life stories of victory and defeat It not only highlights the current data around women s health issues but it also places that data in a helpful context In a tone that is lively and intimate but unflinchingly direct Dr Sharon Malone details how to live better age better and get better medical treatment especially when it s most needed This is not a medical activism book designed to fight the power This is a book designed to show women that they already have the power they need only to increase their capacity and willingness to use it Most important Grown Woman Talk seeks to eradicate the silence that surrounds women s health by facilitating discussion between women of all ages and encouraging more accurate and productive medical insights It is Dr Sharon s belief that giving women more agency can literally give them life Dealing with Rape ,1994 Psychology of Unwhite Meredith McCarroll, 2018-10-15 Appalachia resides in the American imagination at the intersections of race and class in a very particular way in the tension between deep historic investments in seeing the region as pure white stock and as deeply impoverished and backward Meredith McCarroll's Unwhite analyzes the fraught location of Appalachians within the southern and American imaginaries building on studies of race in literary and cinematic characterizations of the American South Not only do we know what rednecks and white trash are McCarroll argues we rely on the continued use of such categories in fashioning our broader sense of self and other Further we continue to depend upon the existence of the region of Appalachia as a cultural construct As a consequence Appalachia has long been represented in the collective cultural history as the lowest the poorest the most ignorant and the most laughable community McCarroll complicates this understanding by asserting that white privilege remains intact while Appalachia is othered through reliance on recognizable nonwhite cinematic stereotypes Unwhite demonstrates how typical characterizations of Appalachian people serve as foils to set off and define the whiteness of the non Appalachian southerners In this dynamic Appalachian characters become the racial other Analyzing the representation of the people of Appalachia in films such as Deliverance Cold Mountain Medium Cool Norma Rae Cape Fear The Killing Season and Winter s Bone through the critical lens of race and specifically whiteness McCarroll offers a reshaping of the understanding of the relationship between racial and regional identities
