Talks With Jonathon 1:

Television Talk Shows Andrew Tolson, 2001-06 This study provides a deconstruction of the actual talk of television talk shows and seeks to demonstrate how this talk is a dramatic performance discursive dynamics fed by the host of the show with certain formulaic progress designed to get the audience hyped up

Talking with Television Helen Wood, 2009 Television talk shows have fueled debates about television's faltering role as a medium for social interaction but this book points out that many viewers don't just absorb the shows they react to them and even talk back to their televisions By observing and analyzing the daily viewing habits of a dozen women viewers Helen Wood interprets these experiences as daily rituals of self reflexivity focusing on the performance of gender as a doubling of place in contemporary conditions of modernity Directly challenging the fundamental assumption that new media forms are uniquely interactive Talking with Television reveals that televisual styles particularly talk based TV have always sought to encourage a participatory relationship with viewers at home

Street Talk Malcolm Frost, Angharad Lewis, Aidan Winterburn, 2006 This is a fascinating look at the medium of the poster in the current climate of competing electronic communication Angharad Lewis from UK magazine Grafik discusses the success and failure of the poster as a medium today against rival mediums such as
