Tallest Tree In Our Forest:

The Tallest Tree in Our Forest, 1998* What Has This Got to Do with the Liberation of Black People? Robert C. Smith, Cedric Johnson, Robert G. Newby, 2014-03-01 A compelling intellectual and political study of a leading post civil rights era African American political theorist and strategist It is rare that a major leader of a protest movement also becomes an accomplished scholar who provides valuable insight into the movement in which he participated Yet this was precisely what Ronald W Walters 1938 2010 did Born in Wichita Kansas the young Walters led the first modern sit in protest during the summer of 1958 nearly two years before the more famous Greensboro sit in of 1960 After receiving a doctorate from American University Walters embarked on an extraordinary career of scholarship and activism Shaped by the civil rights and black power movements and the African and Caribbean liberation struggles Walters was a pioneer in the development of black studies and black science in political science A public intellectual as well as advisor and strategist to African American leaders Walters founded numerous organizations that shaped the post civil rights era A must read for scholars students pundits political leaders and activists What Has This Got to Do with the Liberation of Black People is a major contribution to the historiography of the civil rights and black power movements African American intellectual history political science and black studies □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□, 2004-03-31 Lessons expanded from chapel talks Carpenter's New

Struggles for Representation Phyllis Rauch Klotman, Janet K. Cutler, 1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film s mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcom X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor Paul Robeson Martin Duberman,2014-08-12 The remarkable life of Paul Robeson quintessential Harlem Renaissance man scholar all American actor activist and firebrand Born the son of an ex slave in New Jersey in 1898 Paul Robeson endowed with multiple gifts seemed destined for fame In his youth he was as tenacious in the classroom as he was on the football field After graduating from Rutgers with high honors he went on to earn a law degree at Columbia Soon after he began a stage and film career that made him one of the country s most celebrated figures But it was not to last Robeson became increasingly vocal about defending black civil rights and criticizing Western imperialism and his radical views ran counter to the country s evermore conservative posture During the McCarthy period Robeson s passport was lifted he was denounced as a traitor and his career was destroyed Yet he refused to bow His powerful and tragic story is emblematic of the major themes of twentieth century history Martin Duberman s exhaustive biography is the result of years of research and interviews and paints a portrait worthy of its incredible subject and his improbable story Duberman uses primary documents to take us deep into Robeson s life giving Robeson the due that he so richly deserves Robeson Arnold H. Lubasch,2012-10-18 Paul Robeson was a towering figure in American culture conquering many disparate venues from football and film to law to Shakespeare An extraordinary athlete scholar actor singer Robeson also became a crusader for human rights And though he was admired by many his controversial support of the Soviet Union during the Cold War and the era of McCarthyism led to ostracism and his declining health In Robeson An American Ballad Arnold H Lubasch chronicles the remarkable life of this twentieth century original In this concise and readable account Lubasch a New York Times veteran for almost 40 years reports on Robeson s life story more accurately and clearly than any previous books In addition to detailing the highs and lows of Robeson s life and career Lubasch offers several personal anecdotes about this American icon and includes commentary on the 100th anniversary celebration of Robeson s birth This engaging work will be of interest to virtually everyone but especially to scholars and students of U S and African American history and culture Paul Robeson Lindsey R. Swindall,2013-02-07 Paul Robeson A Life of Activism and Art is the biography of an African American icon and a demonstration of historian Lindsey R Swindall s knack for thorough detailed research and reflection Paul Robeson was at points in his life an actor singer football player political activist and writer one of the most diversely talented members of the Harlem Renaissance Swindall centers Robeson s story around the argument that while Robeson leaned toward Socialism a

Pan African perspective is fundamental to understanding his life as an artist and political advocate Many previous works on Robeson have focused primarily on his involvement with the US Communist Party paying little attention to the broader African influences on his politics and art With each chapter focused on a decade of his life this book affords us a fresh look at his story and the ways in which the struggles successes and studies of his formative years came to shape him as an artist activist and man later on Robeson s story is one not simply of politics and protest but of a man s lifelong evolution from an athlete to an entertainer to an indispensable man of letters and African American thought Swindall neatly outlines the events of Robeson s life in a way that freshly presents him as a man whose work was influenced by more than just his circumstances but by a spirit rooted in dedication to the African s place in American art and politics Paul Robeson Scott Allen
