

...unknown reason... which it opened in Stamford... but it didn't get there... Paulton's story concerned Tallulah... woman who, because of her eccentric father's will, before getting her inheritance. She goes to a sanatorium who she hopes will soon die and leave her free to marry. Tom Burton, secretly in love with Blanche and sneaks into the sanatorium and disguises himself as an 8 woos the girl and convinces her to marry him. When a lake and is rescued by Tom, he reveals his true identity love for her. He also tells her that the man she wants to marry is merely interested in her inheritance. A grateful Blanche sticks with Tom.

After a week in Stamford, Tallulah accompanied the Haven, Waterbury and Hartford, before leaving the cast to join Marshall Players in a summer stock production in Baltimore (s). According to some publicity stories published before its Stamford the motion picture star Mitchell Harris was also in the cast, but does not appear in any printed cast list.

Tallulah Bankhead A Bio Bibliography:

Tallulah Bankhead Jeffrey Carrier, 1991-09-20 Tallulah Bankhead was an actress whose talents were greatly overshadowed by her antics. Indeed, the Bankhead personality was much better known than her acting roles. While it is impossible to study her career without exploring her highly charged personality, this bio bibliography honors Tallulah Bankhead, the actress. In a career that spanned five decades, she conquered practically every medium of entertainment: theater, film, radio, and television, leaving her mark in each one. Biographers have several times attempted to chronicle her life, but Bankhead remains too original, too unconventional, too colorful to be captured fully on paper. What can be noted are her many accomplishments, which have previously been ignored. This book corrects that oversight by documenting her 19 motion pictures, 56 stage plays, 167 radio appearances, and 56 television appearances, and also listing other professional appearances, recordings, awards, and tributes. Additional features include a biographical sketch based on research and interviews with associates, a chronology of highlights in her life, an annotated bibliography of books and magazine articles about her or referring to her, and interesting photographs illustrating her career. Fully cross-referenced and indexed, this is a complete source for any research about Bankhead and will also provide helpful data and insights into the theater, films, persons, and events of her world. Tallulah, Darling Denis Brian, 1972

Boris Karloff Beverly Bare Buehrer, 1993-08-23 This reference work on Boris Karloff presents a comprehensive record of the life and career of this famous performer. The volume begins with a biography which succinctly presents the facts of Karloff's life. A chronology of his significant achievements follows. The remaining chapters overview Karloff's broad career. Chapters document and comment upon his film, stage, radio, and television performances. A discography is included as well. The book concludes with an annotated bibliography of books and articles about Karloff, along with a comprehensive index.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Autobiographers Wikipedia contributors, John Ford Bill Levy, 1998-11-30 John Ford, 1894-1973, is universally acknowledged as one of the greatest directors in the history of cinema. He is the only person to win four Academy Awards for Direction for The Informer (1935), The Grapes of Wrath (1940), How Green Was My Valley (1941), and The Quiet Man (1952). This reference book is a comprehensive guide to his career. The volume begins with a biography that looks at Ford as a person, a director, and a cinematic legend, and influence. Ford's life is discussed chronologically, but the biography repeatedly considers how his early experiences shaped his creative vision and attempts to explain why he was so self-destructive and unhappy throughout his career. In addition, the biography carefully scrutinizes his methods, styles, techniques, and secrets of direction. A chronology presents his achievements in capsule form. The rest of the book provides detailed information about his many productions and about the response to his works. The heart of the volume is a filmography which includes individual entries for 184 films with which Ford was involved as either an actor, a director, a producer, a writer, an advisor, or an assistant. These entries include cast and credit information, a plot synopsis, critical commentary, and excerpts from reviews. The book also includes the most extensive annotated bibliography on Ford ever published with more than 1000 entries for books articles dissertations documentaries and even four works of fiction concerning Ford Additional sections of the book provide information about his unrealized projects his radio television and theater work his awards and honors and special collections and archives
