Tan Phu Leigh Wade, 1997-08 In Vietnam in 1963 Leigh Wade was a radioman for the newly formed Special Forces Team A 23 a twelve man unit sent to Tan Phu a hell on earth in the Mekong Delta Their mission run sweeps and hammer and anvil operations kill or capture as many VC as possible and move back to camp before they could strike again By the time Wade left Vietnam in December 1963 after a six month tour all but two of its original twelve members had been wounded or captured Wade left Vietnam thinking that the Americans would pull out within twelve months unaware that he would see five more years of bloody combat

Special Forces at War Shelby L. Stanton, 2008-06-15 A rare insider s experience paired with a scholarly historical approach making it an essential standout for any military library Midwest Book Review More than 8 7 million Americans reported for military duty in Southeast Asia but only a select few wore the Green Beret the distinctive symbol of the U S Army Special Forces These elite soldiers played a crucial role during the protracted conflict Special Forces at War an Illustrated History Southeast Asia 1957 1975 by wartime veteran and military historian Shelby L Stanton shows Special Forces activity from the first deployments of Green Berets into battle through their training wartime advisory border surveillance strike force and special operations roles Unprecedented in scope this photographic history features rare and unpublished images providing an exclusive insider view of covert activities such as Project Delta whose Special Forces trained Vietnamese commandos posed as North Vietnamese Army or Viet Cong troops behind communist lines It depicts Special Forces camps before during and after enemy assaults It features an array of lethal weapons used by resourceful Green Berets fighting to preserve their remote outposts as well as allied and enemy documents and propaganda From ordinary camp life to special missions no aspect of Special Forces activities during the Second Indochina War has been overlooked Stanton knows his subject first hand During six years of active duty as an infantry officer in the U S Army he served as a paratrooper platoon leader an airborne ranger advisor to the Royal Thai Army Special Warfare Center and a Special Forces long range reconnaissance team commander in Southeast Asia before being wounded in combat in Nam Yu Laos

Green Berets in the Vanguard Chalmers Archer Jr., 2018-09-15 The author of an award winning memoir about growing up black in Mississippi Chalmers Archer turns his attention in this book to his experiences as one of the first members of the U S Army s Special Forces His perspective is unique not only as one of the first to wear the Green Beret but as a black man in the early days of armed forces integration Archer participated in some of the earliest forays into Laos long before Southeast Asia was in American headlines and he was a member of the first U S unit to go into Vietnam He trained the first Special Forces teams of the South Vietnamese army and participated in some of their earliest operations many of them unknown until now because of their highly classified nature He saved the lives of the first American and Vietnamese soldiers injured in war and also witnessed the first American combat death in Vietnam holding the man in his arms as he died His unit operated alongside the Central Intelligence Agency and helped influence American foreign policy A self described soldier teacher he developed and spread the early gospel of special warfare while serving in the Philippines Hawaii Korea Taiwan and Panama as well as in Southeast Asia All of these activities are fully chronicled in this book but Archer s perspective as an African American in an elite unit of the U S armed forces in the 1950s gives his memoir additional depth and insight It is an uplifting though sometimes harrowing story of struggle in unfamiliar environments and an eye opening account of events little known today Operations of Special Forces "A" Team 312, 5th Special Forces Group (Airborne), in a Stay-behind Operation on 26-28 April 1965 in Phuoc Thanh Province, Republic of Vietnam Larry F. Spargo,1968

Battle for the Central Highlands George Dooley,2007-12-18 THE CENTRAL HIGHLANDS WHERE DANGER REIGNED SUPREME AND DEATH WAS A CONSTANT COMPANION The fighting was fierce in the Central Highlands where Green Beret George Dooley served with elite Special Forces A teams training the rugged Montagnards in guerrilla warfare and accompanying them on patrols The Viet Cong and NVA were entrenched in the sparsely populated Highlands where towering mountains gave them the ruthless upper hand The missions Dooley led often in enemy territory provided a steady diet of sniping ambushes booby traps and mines As the war escalated Dooley commanded his own A team and the battles against the large numbers of crack NVA troops became even more desperate and deadly By then military command routinely assigned anything but routine missions to Special Forces and expected them to meet their objectives BATTLE FOR THE CENTRAL HIGHLANDS details the unbelievable valor of these legendary American warriors U.S. Army Special Forces A-team Vietnam Combat Manual Shelby L. Stanton,1988-01-01 Legend Eric Blehm,2015-04-28 The true story of the U S Army s 240th Assault Helicopter Company and a Green Beret Staff Sergeant s heroic mission to rescue a Special Forces team trapped behind enemy lines during the Vietnam War from New York Times bestselling author Eric Blehm On May 2 1968 a twelve man Special Forces team covertly infiltrated a small clearing in the jungles of neutral Cambodia where U S forces were forbidden to operate Their objective just miles over the Vietnam border was to collect evidence that proved the North Vietnamese Army was using the Cambodian sanctuary as a major conduit for supplying troops and materiel to the south via the Ho Chi Minh Trail What the team didn t know was that they had infiltrated a section of jungle that concealed a major enemy base Soon they found themselves surrounded by hundreds of NVA under attack low on ammunition stacking the bodies of the dead as cover in a desperate attempt to survive the onslaught When Special Forces Staff Sergeant Roy Benavidez heard their distress call he jumped aboard the next helicopter bound for the combat zone What followed would become legend in the Special Operations community Flown into the foray of battle by the 240th Assault Helicopter Company Benavidez jumped from the hovering aircraft ran nearly 100 yards through withering enemy fire and despite being immediately and severely wounded organized an extraordinary defense and rescue of the Special Forces team. Written with extensive access to family members surviving members of the 240th Assault Helicopter Company on the ground eye witness accounts never before published as well as recently discovered archival and declassified military records Blehm has created a riveting narrative both of Roy Benavidez's life and career and of the inspiring almost unbelievable events that defined the brotherhood of the air and ground warriors in an unpopular war halfway around the world. Legend recounts the courage and commitment of those who fought in Vietnam in service of their country and the story of one of the many unsung heroes of the war.

Roughneck Nine-One Frank Antenori, Hans Halberstadt, 2006-05-30 Publisher Description Tales from the Teamhouse Jim Kelley, 2004 Operations of Special Forces A Team 109, 5th Special Forces Group (Airborne), in a Search and Destroy Operation Conducted in the Vicinity of the Special Forces Camp Charles A. Stulga, 1968 South-East Asian Special Forces Kenneth Conboy, 2012-05-20 Elite units have long been prominent in the armies of South East Asia and given the turmoil in the region after the 1960s these forces have had ample opportunity to be tested in combat. Acknowledged expert on South East Asia Ken Conboy outlines the history organization and insignia of Vietnamese Cambodian Indonesian Malaysian and various other South East Asian special forces from their origins up until the late 80s covering such groups as the Vietnamese Luc Luong Dac Biet Special Forces and Lien Doi Ngoui Nhia underwater demolition team and the Cambodian Airborne Brigade Group.

Team Sergeant William T. Craig, 1998 TANKS IN THE WIRE The son of a career enlisted man Bill Craig was a hard bitten Korean War veteran and Special Forces brawler. In Vietnam they called his kind of soldier a snake eater. Now here is Craig's unvarnished account of a military career that catapulted him to team sergeant the pinnacle of achievement for a Special Forces operator. It also took him to the trough of anger and despair. For during Tet 1968 his camp at Lang Vei was overrun by NVA. A nearby force of Marines refused to come to the camp's aid even though the NVA had parked a Soviet tank on Craig's command bunker and the enemy was dropping grenades down the air ducts. The riveting description of the breakout that followed and the raw courage of men fighting to save their comrades is an inspiration for anyone venturing into harm's way.

The Green Berets in the Land of a Million Elephants Joseph D. Celeski, 2020-01-10 The untold story of US Special Forces in Laos one of the longest secret wars of the Cold War by a military historian and Special Forces veteran. The Secret War in Laos was one of the first long wars fought by US Special Forces spanning a period of about thirteen years. It was one of the largest CIA paramilitary operations of the time kept out of the view of the American public until now. Between 1959 and 1974 Green Berets were covertly deployed to Laos during the Laotian Civil War to prevent the Communist Pathet Lao from taking over the country. Operators disguised as civilians and answering only to Mister were delivered to the country by Air America where they reported to the US Ambassador. With limited resources they faced a country in chaos. Maps had large blank areas and essential supplies often didn't arrive at all. In challenging tropical conditions they trained and undertook combat advisory duties with the Royal Lao Government. Shrouded in secrecy until the 1990s this was one of the first major applications of special warfare doctrine Now the story is comprehensively told for the first time using official archival documents and interviews with veterans
