Anthropology and Humanism      The Evolution of Human Wisdom Celia Deane-Drummond, Agustín Fuentes, 2017-10-18

This volume addresses key questions about the puzzle of human origins by focusing on a topic that is largely unexplored thus far namely the evolution of human wisdom How can we best understand the human capacity for wisdom where did it come from and how did it emerge It explores lines of convergence and divergence between Christian theology and evolutionary anthropology in its search to identify different aspects of wisdom Critical to this discussion are the philosophical difficulties that arise when two very different methodological approaches to the manner of humans becoming wise are brought together The relative importance and significance of human language is another area of intense debate in defining the meaning of wisdom and its expression How far and to what extent does a theologically informed wisdom discourse push evolutionary anthropology to formulate new questions and vice versa This volume shows that there is no simple consonance between evolutionary anthropology and theology Yet each discipline has much to learn from the other the authors are in agreement that even in the midst of an awareness of dissonance and some tension there can still be mutual respect The goal of this book is to begin to develop a trans disciplinary approach to the evolution of human wisdom where each discipline is challenged to ask questions in a new way This volume tackles the relationship between theology and science in a fresh way by focusing on a specific theme wisdom that is equally generative for both theology and evolutionary anthropology      When Elephants Weep

Tucker, 2011-04-15 History illustrates the power of religion to bring about change Mary Evelyn Tucker describes how world religions have begun to move from a focus on God human and human human relations to encompass human earth relations She argues that in light of the environmental crisis religion should move from isolated orthodoxy to interrelated dialogue and use its authority for liberation rather than oppression      Culture's Futures Eric Aronoff, 2025-02-24 This book argues that science fiction has been a key participant along with anthropology and literary theory in the interdisciplinary debates over culture and narrative form from the modernist period to the present Both science fiction and the anthropological ethnography in their modernist forms and post modern postcolonial reinventions are intertwined technologies for constructing culture and difference through narrative worldbuilding This book traces the ways SF authors including Ray Bradbury Ursula K Le Guin and Octavia E Butler as well as Indigenous futurists Craig Strete Celu Amberstone Rebecca Roanhorse and Cherie Dimaline have deployed interrogated and revised these models of culture representation and power to imagine new futures      Christian Perspectives on Sexuality and Gender Elizabeth Stuart, Adrian Thatcher, 1996 This collection of articles present a variety of broadly Christian responses to issues such as sexuality and gender sexuality and spirituality gay and lesbian sexuality sexuality and violence sexuality and singleness and the family      The Crisis in Sociology Joseph Lopreato, Timothy Alan Crippen, 2001-09-01 Crisis in Sociology presents a compelling portrait of sociology's current troubles and proposes a remedy that is likely to inspire controversy In the authors view sociology's crisis has deep roots traceable to the over ambitious sweep of the discipline's founders Lopreato and Crippen argue that the most disabling flaw is the failure to discover even a single general law or principle necessary to systematically organize empirical observations guide inquiry by suggesting falsifiable hypotheses and form the core of a genuinely cumulative body of knowledge Crisis in Sociology invites sociologists to consider that participation in the new social science exemplified by thriving new fields such as evolutionary psychology may help to build a vigorous scientific sociology
