Steps toward a Tibetan Understanding of Purity James E. Morrison,2025-03-27 Though of little concern to most westerners notions of what is considered clean and unclean pure and impure are of great importance to many cultures Both ritual and moral purity and impurity are significant concerns for Tibetan Buddhists and Buddhists at large being foundational to how they live their everyday lives Steps Towards a Tibetan Understanding of Purity provides a detailed analysis of Tibetan conceptions of purity and purification through a careful examination of salient Tibetan texts across a wide range of genres The practical applications of this study articulate ways to contextualize the good news of Jesus in a Tibetan Buddhist context with an emphasis on the gospel of purification Such an approach provides the reader with renewed impetus to share the gospel in meaningful and relevant ways to a Buddhist audience while also providing additional insights into the worldview of Tibetans

The Heart of Meditation The Dalai Lama, 2017-04-11 The Dalai Lama reveals how training the mind in compassion for other beings is directly related to and a prerequisite for the very pinnacle of Buddhist meditation The heart of meditation the thing that brings it alive is compassion This is not an ordinary compassion but one that is developed and expanded in parallel with wisdom that arises through meditation Without that essential foundation other practices are pointless Fortunately the mind can be trained in compassion and the mind thus trained is fertile ground for the practice of the Great Completeness Dzogchen which is considered the pinnacle of spiritual practice by many in Tibetan Buddhism In this book His Holiness the Dalai Lama teaches the Great Completeness simply but thoroughly using as his reference a visionary poem by the nineteenth century master Patrul Rinpoche to show that insight can never be separated from compassion Through practice of the Great Completeness we can access our innermost awareness and live our lives in a way that acknowledges it and manifests it The wisdom and compassion that arise from such insight are critical His Holiness teaches not only to individual progress in meditation but to our collective progress toward peace in the world

Jackson, 2019-10-29

A definitive study of one of the most important practices in Tibetan Buddhism with translations of a number of its key texts. Mahamudra, the great seal, refers to the ultimate nature of mind and reality to a meditative practice for realizing that ultimate reality and to the final fruition of buddhahood. It is especially prominent in the Kagy tradition of Tibetan Buddhism so it sometimes comes as a surprise that mahamudra has played an important role in the Geluk school where it is part of a special transmission received in a vision by the tradition's founder, Tsongkhapa. Mahamudra is a significant component of Geluk ritual and meditative life, widely studied and taught by contemporary masters such as the Dalai Lama. Roger Jackson's Mind Seeing Mind offers us both a definitive scholarly study of the history, texts, and doctrines of Geluk mahamudra and masterful translations of its seminal texts. It provides a skillful survey of the Indian sources of the teaching, illuminates the place of mahamudra among Tibetan Buddhist schools, and details the history and major textual sources of Geluk mahamudra. Jackson also addresses critical questions such as the relation between Geluk and Kagy mahamudra and places mahamudra in the context of contemporary religious studies. The translation portion of Mind Seeing Mind includes ten texts on mahamudra history, ritual, and practice. Among these are the First Panchen Lama's root verses and autocommentary on mahamudra meditation, his ritual masterpiece Offering to the Guru, and a selection of his songs of spiritual experience. Mind Seeing Mind adds considerably to our understanding of Tibetan Buddhist spirituality and shows how mahamudra came to be woven throughout the fabric of the Geluk tradition.
