Mystical Power and Politics on the Swahili Coast Nathalie Arnold Koenings, Nathalie Arnold, 2024 Traces changing visions of mystical power and authority on the island of Pemba whose people s reputed resistance to outside rule has shaped the national narratives of both Zanzibar and Tanzania For two centuries Pemba the second largest island of Zanzibar has been known by East Africans and outsiders alike as rich in dangerous knowledge Despite Pembans reputation for piety and deep Islamic knowledge uchawi mystical work and power sometimes termed magic witchcraft or sorcery has long featured in diverse visions of their identity and as key to worldly power Today as traditional methods of securing agency are called into question and new ways proliferate the mystical world is an intensely conflicted realm where the nature of power ethical action and reality itself is continually reframed This luminous ethnography follows Pemban notions of invisible and worldly power through the Zanzibar Revolution of 1964 the trials of multiparty democracy the rise of Islamic revival and intensifying neoliberalism Through an exploration of rural imaginings of power it argues that nations and the grammars that underwrite them are made in and by their peripheries which give the centre shape Highlighting the intersections of mystical practices religion and politics as such on the Swahili Coast the book contributes new perspectives to studies of the imagination power and religious transformation in Africa the Indian Ocean and the larger Islamic world Tanzania and Its People David Lawrence, 2009 This work looks at Tanzania from a contemporary and historical perspective The focus is on Tanzania today Subjects covered include a general background of Tanzania the geography of the country life in Tanzania today and how life was in the seventies and eighties under socialism known as ujamaa which means familyhood in Kiswahili the country's transition from socialism to a free market economy ethnic groups or tribes and their home districts and regions racial minorities who constitute a significant part of Tanzania's population the Swahili people and their culture towns and cities the union of Tanganyika and Zanzibar and its prospects and challenges and life in Tanzania what was then Tanganyika in the fifties just before independence There are also chapters on Dar es Salaam the nation's largest city and commercial centre and former capital and on the former island nation of Zanzibar And there's a lot more covered in the book Tanzania's Agricultural Economy in Brief Brian J. Pritchard, 1974 Socialist Development and Public Investment in Tanzania, 1964-73 W. Edmund Clark, 1978-12-15 With its emphasis on rural development as opposed to urban development Tanzania has pursued an individual path in socialist development This work is the first empirical analysis of public investment in matters of agriculture education rural health manufacturing and commerce comparing the actual program of investment to the strategy outlined in the Arusha Declaration of 1967 In Socialist Development and Public Investment in Tanzania 1964-1976 Dr Clark finds that Tanzania has been more successful in reorienting its program of social investment than its program of economic development This failure stems from real differences within Tanzania and among socialists generally about appropriate investment strategies for a country at Tanzania's stage of development In fact no clear specification of an economic strategy exists and as a result policy has been heavily determined by the interests of the dominant political groups It also reflects the fact that in its initial stages Tanzanian socialism was not a mass movement It was imposed from the top and consequently the bureaucracy remains relatively immune from the pressures of the people and the poverty in which they live Dr Clark argues that Nyerere's basic strategy is appropriate to Tanzania at a stage when it lacks the resources to pursue the traditional socialist goal of an integrated industrial economy but that the implementation of this strategy should and must be improved Skillfully blending political and social with economic analysis he provides a provocative interpretation of socialist investment strategy in Tanzania and provides an illuminating perspective on the economics of developing countries Tanzania Business Law Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Basic Laws IBP, Inc, 2012-01-01 Tanzania Business Law Handbook Strategic Information and Basic Laws Intellectual Property Law in Tanzania Jacob

Jaconiah,2022-09-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this monograph provides a survey and analysis of the rules concerning intellectual property rights in Tanzania It covers every type of intellectual property right in depth copyright and neighbouring rights patents utility models trademarks trade names industrial designs plant variety protection chip protection trade secrets and confidential information Particular attention is paid throughout to recent developments and trends The analysis approaches each right in terms of its sources in law and in legislation and proceeds to such legal issues as subject matter of protection conditions of protection ownership transfer of rights licences scope of exclusive rights limitations exemptions duration of protection infringement available remedies and overlapping with other intellectual property rights The book provides a clear overview of intellectual property legislation and policy and at the same time offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based Lawyers representing parties with interests in Tanzania will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative intellectual property law Where is Uhuru? Issa G. Shivji,2009-04 Neoliberal policies promised to correct multiple distortions in postcolonial Africa But democratic politics land reform rights and freedom all suffered Shivji calls for Africa centred thinking that embraces the continent s right to self determination Adams & Adams Practical Guide to Intellectual Property in Africa Adams & Adams,2012 Cargoes in Motion Burkhard Schnepel,Julia Verne,2022-02-08 An innovative collection of essays that foregrounds specific cargoes as a means to understand connectivity and mobility across the Indian Ocean world Scholars have long appreciated the centrality of trade and commerce in understanding the connectivity and mobility that underpin human experience in the Indian Ocean region But studies of merchant and commercial activities have paid little attention to the role that cargoes have played in connecting the disparate parts of this vast oceanic world Drawing from the work of anthropologists geographers and historians Cargoes in Motion tells the story of how material objects have informed and continue to shape processes of exchange across the Indian Ocean By following selected cargoes through both space and time this book makes an important and innovative contribution to Indian Ocean studies The multidisciplinary approach deepens our understanding of the nature and dynamics of the Indian Ocean world by showing how transoceanic connectivity has been driven not only by economic social cultural and political factors but also by the materiality of the objects themselves Essays by Edward A Alpers Fahad Ahmad Bishara Eva Maria Knoll Karl Heinz Kohl Lisa Jenny Krieg Pedro Machado Rupert Neuh fer Mareike Pampus Hannah Pilgrim Burkhard Schnepel Hanne Sch nig Tansen Sen Steven Serels Julia Verne Kunbing Xiao AF Press Clips ,1975 Preventing Violent Conflict in Africa Y. Mine,F. Stewart,S. Fukuda-Parr,T. Mkandawire,2013-10-17 Horizontal inequalities are root causes of violent conflict in Africa Yet people take actions not because of statistical data on inequalities of which they might not be aware but because of injustices they perceive This volume analyses the results of original surveys with over 3 000 respondents in African cities and towns exposing clear discrepancies between objective inequalities and people s subjective perceptions The contributors examine experiences in country pairs and probe into the reasons why neighbouring countries sharing common historical traits sometimes took contrasting pathways of peace and violent conflict Combining quantitative analysis and qualitative anatomy of historical experiences of conflict and reconciliation in Rwanda Burundi Ghana Cote d'Ivoire South Africa Zimbabwe Uganda Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria the study brings forward a set of policy recommendations for development practitioners This work further addresses the issue of institutional choice and reveals how sustainable power sharing and decentralisation contribute to political stability in Africa Demographic Analysis Andrzej Klimczuk, 2021-11-03
