Taoist Tradition And Change The Story Of The Complete Perfection Sect In Hong Kong:

Taoist Tradition and Change Bartholomew P. M. Tsui, 1991-01-01 The Way of Complete Perfection , 2013-06-01 An anthology of English translations of primary texts of the Quanzhen Complete Perfection school of Daoism The Teachings and Practices of the Early Quanzhen Taoist Masters Stephen Eskildsen, 2012-02-01 Stephen Eskildsen's book offers an in depth study of the beliefs and practices of the Quanzhen Complete Realization School of Taoism the predominant school of monastic Taoism in China The Quanzhen School was founded in the latter half of the twelfth century by the eccentric holy man Wan Zhe 1113 1170 whose work was continued by his famous disciples commonly known as the Seven Realized Ones This study draws upon surviving texts to examine the Quanzhen masters approaches to mental discipline intense asceticism cultivation of health and longevity mystical experience supernormal powers death and dying charity and evangelism and ritual From these primary sources Eskildsen provides a clear understanding of the nature of Quanzhen Taoism and reveals its core emphasis to be the cultivation of clarity and purity of mind that occurs not only through seated meditation but also throughout the daily activities of life The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis Ray Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion The Cambridge History of China: Volume 9, The Ch'ing Dynasty to 1800, Part 2 Willard J. Peterson, 2016-04-07 Volume 9 Part 2 of The Cambridge History of China is the second of two volumes which together explore the political social and economic developments of the Ch'ing Empire during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries prior to the arrival of Western military power Across fifteen chapters a team of leading historians explore how the eighteenth century's greatest contiguous empire in terms of geographical size population wealth cultural production political order and military domination peaked and then began to unravel The book sheds new light on the changing systems deployed under the Ch'ing dynasty to govern its large multi ethnic Empire and surveys the dynasty's complex relations with neighbouring states and Europe In this compelling and authoritative account of a significant era of early modern Chinese history the volume illustrates the ever changing nature of the Ch'ing Empire and provides context for the unforeseeable challenges that the nineteenth century would bring

Cultivating Perfection Louis Komjathy, 2007-09-30 This important work focuses on early Quanzhen Complete Perfection Daoism a twelfth century Daoist religious movement and subsequent monastic order Emphasis in this first study to approach Quanzhen from a comparative religious studies perspective is placed on the complex interplay among views of self specific training regimens and the types of experiences that were expected to follow from dedicated praxis On the basis of historical contextualization and textual analysis it is demonstrated that in its formative and incipient organized phases Quanzhen was a Daoist religious community consisting of a few renunciants dedicated to religious praxis The study proper is followed by a complete annotated translation of a text attributed to the founder which represents one of only two early Quanzhen texts translated to date Subsequent appendices address issues of dating and contents of the early textual corpus as well as technical Quanzhen religious terminology

The Taoists of Peking, 1800-1949 Vincent Goossaert, 2020-03-23 By looking at the activities of Taoist clerics in Peking this book explores the workings of religion as a profession in one Chinese city during a period of dramatic modernization The author focuses on ordinary religious professionals most of whom remained obscure temple employees Although almost forgotten they were all major actors in urban religious and cultural life The clerics at the heart of this study spent their time training disciples practicing and teaching self cultivation performing rituals and managing temples Vincent Goossaert shows that these Taoists were neither the socially despised illiterates dismissed in so many studies nor otherworldly ascetics but active participants in the religious economy of the city In exploring exactly what their crucial role was he addresses the day to day life of modern Chinese religion from the perspective of ordinary religious specialists This approach highlights the social processes institutions and networks that transmit religious knowledge and mediate between prestigious religious traditions and the people in the street In modern Chinese religion the Taoists are such key actors Without them Taoist ritual and Taoist self cultivation are just empty words

The Encyclopedia of Taoism Fabrizio Pregadio, 2013-05-13 The Encyclopedia of Taoism provides comprehensive coverage of Taoist religion thought and history reflecting the current state of Taoist scholarship Taoist studies have progressed beyond any expectation in recent years Researchers in a number of languages have investigated topics virtually unknown only a few years previously while others have surveyed for the first time textual doctrinal and ritual corpora The Encyclopedia presents the full gamut of this new research The work contains approximately 1 750 entries which fall into the following broad categories surveys of general topics schools and traditions persons texts terms deities immortals temples and other sacred sites Terms are given in their original characters transliterated and translated Entries are thoroughly cross referenced and in addition see also listings are given at the foot of many entries Attached to each entry are references taking the reader to a master bibliography at the end of the work There is chronology of Taoism and the whole is thoroughly indexed There is no reference work comparable to the Encyclopedia of Taoism in scope and focus Authored by an international body of experts the Encyclopedia will be an essential addition to libraries serving students and scholars in the fields of religious studies philosophy and religion and Asian history and culture The Taoist Experience Livia Kohn,1993-10-05 Containing sixty translations from a large variety of texts this is an accessible yet thorough introduction to the major concepts doctrines and practices of Taoism It presents the philosophy rituals and health techniques of the ancients as well as the practices and ideas of Taoists today Divided into four sections it follows the Taoist Path The Tao Long Life Eternal Vision and Immortality It shows how the world of the Tao is perceived from within the tradition what fervent Taoists did and how practitioners saw their path and goals The Taoist Experience is unique in that it presents the whole of Taoist tradition in the very words of its active practitioners It conveys not only a sense of the depth of the Taoist religious experience but also of the underlying unity of the various schools and strands Hong Kong Grant Evans,Maria Tam,1997-07-01 Hong Kong has become a by word for all that is modern and sparkling in Asia today Yet tourist brochures still play with the old cliché of Hong Kong as a place where East meets West Images of so called traditional China junks sailing Victoria Harbour or old women praying to gods in smoky temples mingle with those portraying Hong Kong as a consumer and business paradise This collection of essays attempts to transcend the old polarities It looks at modern Hong Kong in all its splendour and diversity in the run up to its re absorption into Greater China through the mediums of film food architecture rumors and slang It explores the question of a distinct modern Chinese identity in Hong Kong and even when it explores the traditional stamping ground of the older anthropology in the New Territories it finds a dramatically changed context in particular for women This collection presents an intriguing insight into the process of transition from tradition to modernity in this Modern Chinese Metropolis Confucianism and Spiritual Traditions in Modern China and Beyond Fenggang Yang,Joseph Tamney,2011-11-11 Confucianism is reviving in China and spreading in America This multidisciplinary volume includes philosophical and theological articulations of Confucianism and other spiritual traditions for the modern and globalizing world and empirical studies of and analytical reflections on Confucianism and other traditions in Chinese societies by historians sociologists and anthropologists Hong Kong's Religions in Translation [i.e. Transition] Chunwah Kwong,2000 Dr Kwong analyzes the transition of Hong Kong s religious communities from British colonial rule to life under the People s Republic of China What led up to the change of government July 1 1997 and how religious leaders and people prepared for the change and the future This study gives an inside understanding of the cultural and religious life of Hong Kong past present and possibilities for the future The book traces new and deepened dimensions of pluralism in the dynamic society of Hong Kong Daoism Handbook Livia Kohn,2018-12-24 Thirty major scholars in the field wrote this new authoritative guide to the main features and development of Daoism The chapters are devoted to either specific periods or topics such as Women in Daoism Daoism in Korea and Daoist Ritual Music Each chapter rigidly deals with a fixed set of aspects such as history texts worldview and practices Clear markings in the chapters themselves and a detailed index make this volume the most accessible key resource on Daoism past and present Daoist Identity Livia Kohn, Harold D. Roth, 2002-02-28 Daoist Identity is an exploration of the various means by which Daoists over the centuries have created an identity for themselves Using modern sociological studies of identity formation as its foundation it brings together a representative sample of in depth analyses by eminent American and Japanese scholars in the field The discussion begins with critical examinations of the ways identity was found among the early movements of the Way of Great Peace and the Celestial Masters The role of sacred texts and literary culture in Daoist identity formation is discussed The volume then focuses on lineage formation and the increasing role of popular religious practices such as spirit writing in modern Daoism since the Song dynasty Finally it discusses the Daoist adaptation and reinterpretation of Buddhist rites such as the feeding of souls in hell and the use of ritual gestures and the changes made in contemporary Daoism in relation to traditional rites and popular practices Contributors Asano Haruji Suzanne Cahill M Csikszentmihalyi Edward L Davis Terry F Kleeman Livia Kohn Mabuchi Masaya Maruyama Hiroshi Mitamura Keiko Mori Yuria Peter Nickerson Charles D Orzech Harold D Roth Shiga Ichiko Tsuchiya Masaaki Traditional Musics in the Modern World: Transmission, Evolution, and Challenges Bo-Wah Leung, 2018-07-25 This book reviews the current practices of traditional musics in various cultures of all continents and examines the impact and significance of traditional musics in the modern world A diverse group of experts of musicology and music education collaborate to expose the current practices and challenges of transmission and evolution of traditional musics in order to seek sustainable development so that traditional musics can take the place they deserve in the modern world and continue to contribute to human civilization This volume contains three main sections that include transmission of traditional musics authenticity and evolution as well as challenges in future Based on the chapters the editor proposes four major trends of transmission of traditional musics namely formalization politicization Westernization and modernization in transforming contexts Facets of Qing Daoism Monica Esposito, 2016-03-11 As China is rapidly reemerging as the world's dominant economic powerhouse that it had been until the mid eighteenth century interest in its religions and philosophies is on the rise Just as the history and culture of Western civilizations can hardly be grasped without a measure of knowledge about Christianity an understanding of Chinese civilization and its history seems impossible without some comprehension of Daoism Though it has long been clear that modern Daoism has its roots in Daoist movements of the Qing dynasty 1644 1911 research on premodern Daoism had been largely neglected Published in six languages Italian French English German Chinese and Japanese the pioneering studies by Monica Esposito 1962 2011 on Qing Daoism have been instrumental in kindling keen scholarly interest both in the West and in China and Japan This book presents corrected and augmented versions of three of Dr Esposito's seminal articles that had originally been published in English Daoism in the Qing The Longmen School and its Controversial History and Longmen Daoism in Qing China Doctrinal Ideal and Local Reality along with English versions of two articles that had hitherto only been available in Japanese and Chinese Beheading the Red

Dragon The Heart of Feminine Alchemy and An Example of Daoist and Tantric Interaction during the Qing Dynasty The Longmen xinzong In addition this volume contains a bibliography of all her publications and a detailed index Daoist

Modern Xun Liu, 2020-03-17 This book explores the Daoist encounter with modernity through the activities of Chen Yingning 1880-1969 a famous lay Daoist master and his group in early twentieth century Shanghai In contrast to the usual narrative of Daoist decay with its focus on monastic decline clerical corruption and popular superstitions this study tells a story of Daoist resilience reinvigoration and revival Between the 1920s and 1940s Chen led a group of urban lay followers in pursuing Daoist self cultivation techniques as a way of ensuring health promoting spirituality forging cultural self identity building community and strengthening the nation In their efforts to renew and reform Daoism Chen and his followers became deeply engaged with nationalism science the religious reform movements the new urban print culture and other forces of modernity Since Chen and his fellow practitioners conceived of the Daoist self cultivation tradition as a public resource they also transformed it from an esoteric pursuit into a public practice offering a modernizing society a means of managing the body and the mind and of forging a new cultural spiritual and religious identity Chinese Beliefs and Practices in Southeast Asia Hock-Tong

Cheung, 2021-08-16 This book consists of fifteen chapters which can be divided into five major themes i Chinese religion ii Chinese attitudes toward religion iii Chinese spirit cults in Malaysia iv the development of local spirit cults and v major festivals celebrated in Malaysia The first section deals with three Chinese religious traditions in Malaysia in particular and other countries like Singapore Indonesia and Thailand in Southeast Asia in general The second section attempts to discuss on Chinese attitudes towards religion Chinese religious conception and its implication in their social life and how Confucian ethics have contributed to the economic success of the Chinese in Malaysia The Third section seeks to examine the various aspects of the Nine Emperor Gods the Datuk Kong Malay keramat and the spread of Malay and Chinese spirit cults to Sabah East Malaysia The fourth section deliberates on three major processes of change in the development of spirit cults in Malaysia the localization of Chinese locality cults including Tudigong and Dabogong the Sinicization of the Malay keramat and the indigenization or desinicization of an aboriginal Datuk Seman in Broga Selangor And the last section winds up with the practical aspects of celebrating festivals in Malaysia and other parts of Southeast Asia with special emphasis on festivals in general in the Chinese calendar the festival of the Nine Emperor Gods in Southeast Asia and the socio psychological aspects of the Nine Emperor Gods Vegetarian Festival in Thailand Knowledge and Text Production in an Age of

Print: China, 900-1400, 2011-02-17 The essays in this volume seek to flesh out the diversity of Chinese textual production during the period spanning the tenth and fourteenth centuries when printing became a widely used technology By exploring the social and political relations that shaped the production and reproduction of printed texts the impact of intellectual and religious formations on book production the interaction between print and other media readership and the growth of collections the contributors offer the first comprehensive examination of the cultural history of book production in the first

500 years of the history of printing In an afterword historian of the early modern European book Ann Blair reflects on the volume s implications for the comparative study of the impact of printing Journal of Chinese Religions ,2001
