Tar Beach:

Tar Beach Faith Ringgold, 1991-01-16 CORETTA SCOTT KING AWARD WINNER CALDECOTT HONOR BOOK A NEW YORK TIMES BEST ILLUSTRATED BOOK Acclaimed artist Faith Ringgold seamlessly weaves fiction autobiography and African American history into a magical story that resonates with the universal wish for freedom and will be cherished for generations Cassie Louise Lightfoot has a dream to be free to go wherever she wants for the rest of her life One night up on tar beach the rooftop of her family's Harlem apartment building her dreams come true The stars lift her up and she flies over the city claiming the buildings and the city as her own As Cassie learns anyone can fly All you need is somewhere to go you can't get to any other way The next thing you know you're flying among the stars

The George Washington Bridge Michael Aaron Rockland, 2008 Since opening in 1931 the George Washington Bridge linking New York and New Jersey has become the busiest bridge in the world with 108 million vehicles crossing it in 2007 Many people also consider it the most beautiful bridge in the world yet remarkably little has been written about this majestic structure Intimate and engaging Michael Rockland's rich narrative presents perspectives on the GWB as it is often called that span history architecture engineering transportation design the arts politics and even post 9/11 mentality Stunning archival photos from the late 1920s when the bridge was built through the present are a powerful complement to the bridge's history Rockland covers the competition between the GWB and the Brooklyn Bridge that parallels the rivalry between New Jersey and New York City Readers will learn about the Swiss immigrant Othmar Ammann an unsung hero who designed and built the GWB and how a lack of funding during the Depression dictated the iconic uncovered steel beams of its towers which we admire today There are chapters discussing accidents on the bridge such as an airplane crash landing in the westbound lanes and the sad story of suicides off its span the appearance of the bridge in media and the arts and Rockland's personal adventures on the bridge including scaling its massive towers on a cable Movies television shows songs novels countless images and even PlayStation 2 games have aided the GWB in becoming a part of the global popular culture This tribute will captivate residents living in the shadow of the GWB the millions who walk jog bike skate or drive across it as well as tourists and those who will visit it some day First major book on the George Washington Bridge Full of amazing facts about the GWB that will surprise even bridge historians Includes over 30 spectacular illustrations ranging from archival photographs of the building of the bridge to those that show it draped in an enormous flag after 9/11 Includes personal accounts of the author's adventures on the bridge

Tar Beach Faith Ringgold, 1996-01 A young girl dreams of flying above her Harlem home claiming all she sees for herself and her family Based on the author's quilt painting of the same name

Davenport, 2006-06-30 Human transport by land sea and air has increased exponentially through time in intensity paralleling rises in population prosperity and rates of technological change Transport has considerable ecological effects many of them detrimental to environmental sustainability This volume brings together international experts from a variety of disciplines to review the ecological effects and their causes in terms of road rail ship and aircraft transport The contributors have different attitudes and agendas Some are ecologists some planners others social scientists Focus ranges from identification of threats and amelioration of damaging effects through to future design of transport systems to minimize environmental degradation Some chapters consider restricted areas of the globe others the globe itself Views encompass deep pessimism and cautious optimism New York Magazine, 1991-02-18

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Teachers' Reading/Teachers' Lives Mary Kay Rummel, Elizabeth P. Quintero, 1997-08-28 The premise of this book is important that teachers literacy experiences not only make a difference in their literacy instruction but also in their professional judgment and actions related to curriculum decisions and their resistance to prescribed methods and materials which do not allow children s literacy to flourish The teachers own words in the autobiographical chapters offer powerful testimony supporting approaches to literacy that encourage and support the job of reading and writing rather than pedantic and meaningless curriculum methods that emphasize isolated skills and drills The topic is very significant There is currently a backlash against the whole language approach which through the years has had other titles but has always emphasized the creative responsive teaching described in meaningful individual integrated and joyful approaches to the teaching of reading and writing This book could have a positive influence on the current discussions about the teaching of literacy Brown Gold Michelle Martin, 2004-03 This is the first comprehensive look at African American picture books from the mid nineteenth century to today Brooklyn Roots Estelle B. Breines, 2011-02-07 Brooklyn Roots is the story of Estelle Breines experience growing up in Borough Park but it will resonate with anyone who grew up there or for that matter in any other urban ethnic neighborhood She paints word pictures that take you back in time evoking the scenes scents and sensibilities of the old neighborhood Leslie Werstein Hann writer editor HannWriting Inc Once stirred those memories rolled out in bursts demanding recording A description of the neighborhood of her youth emerged her fathers pharmacy shops along the avenue and the house with its magnificent purple irises peeking above a stone wall as tall as a four year old A small garment is remembered in detail a dolls dress made from an old pillowcase using a needle encrusted by baked on grease from the stuffed chicken necks her grandmother prepared this the woman who braided the authors hair so tightly as surrogate parent while her parents worked to provide for them all in an era emerging from the Great Depression There was the school she attended when the war began and the celebrations at its end and the places she and her friends explored as they grew Her recollections of the neighborhoods artifacts appear as she envisions pickles and egg creams Each shop along the 13th Avenue of her memory is sustained in its original character even the corsetiere and milliner of the past stuck there in time
