about sharing his adoration of movies has been a journalist's dream. Lost and confused, he still managed a gutsy ambition: young Quentin decided he would be a filmmaker. Tarantino has conceded that Ordell Samuel L. Jackson, the homicidal African American con man in Jackie Brown, is an autobiographical portrait. If I hadn't wanted to make movies, I would have ended up as Ordell. Tarantino has explained, I wouldn't have been a postman or worked at the phone company. I would have gone to jail.

Death is Served Stella Castelli, 2023-02-06 The American cultural imaginary is hungry for death and thus representations of death are prominently repeated and serialized in US literature and media. Stella Castelli shows how American culture fetishizes death as part of a repetition compulsion which stems from the inability of language to satisfactorily grasp death. Taking an intermedial approach she investigates the forms and tropes born from this preoccupation with death and conceptualizes its imagination alongside an appetite which manifests as repetitive encoding. These metaphors of food consumption provide a hermeneutic framing for analyzing representations of death across American literature and media. Post-Theory, Culture, Criticism, 2016-09-12 Post Theory Culture Criticism offers a collection of essays that provide provocative re-articulations of theory culture and criticism. It contains distinguished and original work by a number of leading and emerging figures within cultural and critical theory and cultural studies who believe that all of the above is in urgent need of theoretical and practical exploration. In probing the feasibility and desirability of theory's re-articulation the essays demonstrate that theory can only reinvent itself as worthwhile post theory through its own critical self revaluation.
