approach life family friends and work Most people walk through life never thinking deeply about why things are happening to them accepting whatever life throws at them Several core qualities separate those who value short lived happiness from those who strive for long term success MOVEME stands for these six ideas Motivation to do things that take them out of their comfort zone to strive for excellence Openness a willingness to listen to new ideas that may be beneficial to their growth personally and professionally Vision the ability to see beyond the surface of situations to see beyond what is directly in front of them Exposure encourages you to think about the kinds of experiences you have been exposed to in your life Mastery dedication to excellence in everything that you do in life Engagement interaction with groups organizations and the community to get things accomplished The workbook format of this book is essential to identify and dismantle the mindsets
