K. Mahadevan,1995 Fates Worse Than Death Brian St.Claire-King,2003-02 A role playing game of suspense horror and hope in 2080 on the streets of Manhattan The Golden Bough: A Study in Magic and Religion (Third Edition, Vol. 03 of 12) James Frazer,2021-12-02 The Golden Bough James George Frazer,Sir James George Frazer,1995-12 A world classic The Golden Bough describes our ancestors primitive methods of worship sex practices strange rituals and festivals Disproving the popular thought that primitive life was simple this monumental survey shows that savage man was enmeshed in a tangle of magic taboos and superstitions Revealed here is the evolution of man from savagery to civilization from the modification of his weird and often bloodthirsty customs to the entry of lasting moral ethical and spiritual values The Golden Bough J.G. Frazer,2009-05-01 Published originally in two volumes in 1890 this extraordinary study of primitive myth and magic led Scottish anthropologist J G Frazer to identify parallel patterns of ritual symbols and belief across many centuries and many different cultures His observations on the mysteries of fertility and death and the rites of the sacrificial king who must die to save his people overturned much of contemporary intellectual thinking not least because of the enlightening or heretical parallels it suggested with the Christian religion Frazer's elegant and authoritative style and the breadth of his learning inspired a whole generation of ethnographers and comparative anthropologists and had a particularly powerful effect on many other thinkers and writers such as Sigmund Freud D H Lawrence Joyce Yeats and T S Eliot This definitive volume includes the unabridged original 1890 edition as well as several essays and lectures by Frazer

A Sensory History of Ancient Warfare Conor Whately, 2021-08-26 How can we attempt to understand the experience of those involved in ancient battles sieges and campaigns What was the visual impact of seeing the massed ranks of the enemy approaching or the sky darkened with their arrows How did it feel to be trapped in the press of bodies as phalanxes clashed shield to shield What of the taste of dust on the march or the smell of split blood and entrails What of the rumble of approaching cavalry the clash of iron weapons and the screams of the dying The assault on all five senses which must have occurred is the subject of this innovative book Sensory history is a new approach that attempts to understand the full spectrum of the experience of the participants in history Conor Whately is the first to apply the discipline in a dedicated study of warfare in the classical world He draws on literary archaeological reconstructive and comparative evidence to understand the human experience of the ancient battlefield in unprecedented depth

Blood Work Shawn Salvant, 2015-01-12 The invocation of blood as both an image and a concept has long been critical in the formation of American racism In Blood Work Shawn Salvant mines works from the American literary canon to explore the multitude of associations that race and blood held in the consciousness of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Americans Drawing upon race and metaphor theory Salvant provides readings of four classic novels featuring themes of racial identity Mark Twain's Pudd'nhead Wilson 1894 Pauline Hopkins's Of One Blood 1902 Frances Harper's Iola Leroy 1892 and William Faulkner's Light in August 1932

His expansive analysis of blood imagery uncovers far more than the merely biological connotations that dominate many studies of blood rhetoric the racial discourses of blood in these novels encompass the anthropological and the legal the violent and the religious Penetrating and insightful Blood Work illuminates the broad ranging power of the blood metaphor to script distinctly American plots real and literary of racial identity
