heroes such as Andy Warhol Jasper Johns and John Cage for the time his efforts to explain his art to a bewildered astrophysicist at high table at King s College Cambridge his astonishment at seeing the house and art collection of Charles Saatchi for the first time and his surreal experience of staking out Christine Keeler at the height of the Profumo scandal He recalls too his first tentative steps as a practising artist and emergence as a key figure of early conceptual art in Britain He also looks back on his achievements as a teacher at Goldsmiths where he nurtured two generations of students among them Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas earning himself the sobriquet the godfather of the YBAs As he considers the development of his own career and the evolution of the art world over the last half century he offers the benefit of insights gained from his professional highs and lows revealing the essential attributes and knowledge that one needs as an artist today He also tackles controversial issues such as the fashionability of contemporary art the enduring status of painting the relevance of life drawing and practical skills the qualities of art schools the role of commercial dealers the importance of speaking clearly about art and the judgment of what is good and bad in art More than the life of one of the most creative minds of our age On Being An Artist provides lesson after valuable lesson to anyone wishing to know what it means and what it takes to be an artist today

How to Find Out About the Arts Neville Carrick, 2014-05-16 How to Find Out About the Arts A Guide to Sources of Information discusses the main sources of information printed or otherwise in the field of the arts The book begins by describing where information on art careers can be found Separate chapters then discuss how information on art can be traced in libraries by means of the catalogue and classification scheme and turning to bibliographies when information on a particular aspect of art cannot be traced by these means Subsequent chapters deal with sources such as encyclopedias and dictionaries general indexes to reproductions and portraits works on iconography periodicals directories yearbooks and sales records This book aims to serve some of the needs of the student of art the experienced artist and indeed all of those with an intelligent interest in the arts In particular it should help those in libraries colleges and other educational institutions whose task it is to guide others to the right sources
