Television And Womens Culture The Politics Of The Popular:

Television and Women's Culture Mary Ellen Brown,1990 An international team of contributors examine critically the relationship between television and women s culture in this text which argues that such different media as soap opera and police fiction offer women opportunities for negotiation of their own meanings and appreciation Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb,2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclo pedia of Television 2nd edition website A Companion to Television Janet Wasko,Eileen R. Meehan,2020-03-17 The latest edition of the acclaimed volume on television studies featuring new original essays from leading scholars in the field Although the digital age has radically altered the media and communications landscape worldwide television continues to play a significant part of our lives From its earliest beginnings through to the present day television and its influence has been the subject of extensive study critique and analysis A Companion to Television brings together contributions from prominent international scholars comprising a wide range of perspectives on the medium Original essays define television in its current state explore why it is still relevant survey the ways in which television has been studied discuss how television has changed and consider what television might look like in the future Now in its second edition this compendium includes fresh chapters that cover technological changes affecting television contemporary approaches to understanding television audiences new programming trends and developments and more Addressing nine key areas of television studies such as industry genres programs and audiences the Companion offers readers a balanced well rounded integrative approach to scholarship in the field This volume Provides overviews of extensive original research from leading scholars and theorists Examines television s development and significance in various regions of the world Includes national and regional outlines of television around the world Features theoretical overviews of various critical approaches to television studies Explores historical economic institutional political and cultural issues studied by media scholars Presenting diverse perspectives on topics ranging from television advertising to satirical representations of the industry A Companion to Television Second Edition is an invaluable resource for those in undergraduate courses in television studies as well as in general media studies and communications Living Room Wars Ien Ang,2006-07-13 Living Room Wars brings together Ien Ang s recent writings on television audiences and in response to recent criticisms of cultural studies argues that it is possible to study audience pleasures and popular television in a way that is not naively populist Ang examines how the makers and marketers of television attempt to mould their audience and looks at the often unexpected ways in which the viewers actively engage with the programmes they watch Living Room Wars highlights the inherent contradictions of a politics of pleasure of television consumption Ang moves beyond the trditional forcus on textual meanings to explore the structural and historical representations fo television audiences as an integral part of modern culture Her wide ranging and illuminating discussion takes in the battle between television and its audiences the politics of empirical audience research new technologies and the tactics of television consumption ethnography and radical contextualism in audience studies television fiction and women s fantasy feminist desire and female pleasure in media consumption and the transnational media system Popular Music Will Straw, International Association for the Study of Popular Music, Centre for Research on Canadian Cultural Industries and Institutions, 1995 Women, Power, and Politics Lori Cox Han, Caroline Heldman, 2023-05-29 As women continue to gain more prominence as active participants in the American political and electoral process as voters candidates and officeholders it becomes even more important to understand how gender shapes political power and the distribution of resources within our society There are many areas of research in a variety of disciplines focusing on women gender and feminism and many of them intersect with a discussion of women in American politics Our goal in writing this book is to present these topics in an interesting lively and timely way through an analysis of contemporary political gender related issues We hope to have provided just enough of an historical context to get students interested in the evolution of women in American political life and enough theory and analysis to inspire them to seek more information and knowledge about gender justice today The study of women and U S politics as well as the role gender plays in the broader political context has emerged as a powerful voice within the discipline of Political Science in the last few decades As such we hope that readers find this text a useful addition to the ongoing dialogue while instructors find it to be a useful pedagogical tool for their courses on women gender and politics Television and the Public Sphere Peter Dahlgren, 1995-10-01 In this broad ranging text Peter Dahlgren clarifies the underlying theoretical concepts of civil society and the public sphere and relates these to a critical analysis of the practice of television as journalism as information and as entertainment He demonstrates the limits and the possibilities of the television medium and the formats of popular journalism These issues are linked to the potential of the audience to interpret or resist messages and to construct its own meanings What does a realistic understanding of the functioning and the capabilities of television imply for citizenship and democracy in a mediated age Gender, Politics and Communication Annabelle Sreberny, Liesbet van Zoonen, 2000 This text focuses specifically on three interrelated sets of questions with respect to gender politics and communication How do serious and popular media alike represent male and female politicians how do they frame their politics and how can these representations and frames be explained What is the role of mainstream and movement media for the women s movement how are feminist issues covered in the media and what kinds of media related activities do women s movements undertake How are the social and political concerns of ordinary women voiced in the media in talkshows in particular and how does this different popular platform interact with mainstream and feminist politics Pierre Bourdieu 2 Derek Robbins, 2004 Gender in Film and the Media Elżbieta H. Oleksy, Elżbieta Ostrowska, 2000 Authored by an international team of academics Gender in Film and the Media responds to continuing debates about representation and gender in cinema and other media with a particular concentration on the ways in which they may relate to the Central European context since 1989 The emphasis of these essays on the intersections between social and cultural formations and practices of gender represents an attempt to move beyond the abstractions of the founding texts in this field and to ground theoretical reflection in close textual and contextual analysis This book thus also represents the expansion of cultural exchange between East and West since 1989 which has created new and challenging opportunities to rethink the imaging of gender in national and international frameworks Culture, Politics and Sport Garry Whannel, 2008-01-11 This book on politics and sport contains critical analyses of the commercialisation of sport and also includes a complete reprint of the author's classic 1983 study Blowing the Whistle The Politics of Sport Cultural Studies and the Study of Popular Culture John Storey, 2010 Cultural Studies Quagga Kultuur Michel Clasquin, 2003 New Literature on Women , 1991 Media Asia , 1990 Kids' Media Culture Marsha Kinder, 1999 A collection of feminist cultural studies essays on children's television Dressed to Impress William J. F. Keenan, 2001-03 How humans dress defines their identity These writings show how the dressed body is central to the construction of a recognizable identity and provide accessible accounts of the link between dress and a considerable variety of lifestyles Tough Girls Sherrie A. Inness, 1999 The author examines toughness and the image of the tough girl as developed in popular media and culture Contesting the Frontiers Ullamaija Kivikuru, 2001 Gennem indledende refleksioner omkring medier kultur og etnicitet efterfulgt af case studier analyseres og identificeres nogle af de vilkår hvorpå borgere i Danmark Norge og Sverige forhandler skaber og konstituerer deres historie deres socialorden og deres kulturelle praksis Open Up Jonathan David Nichols-Pethick, 2006
