Sir Gawain & the Green Knight William Stanley Merwin,2003 Sir Gawain the Green Knight is a classic Arthurian tale of enchantment adventure and romance This splendid new translation by one of the world's leading poets has already been acclaimed in America The original poem and W S Merwin's modern version are comparable in stature and imaginative power to another medieval epic Beowulf in Seamus Heaney's rendering All Camelot is merry with Christmas revelry when an enormous green skinned knight with brilliant green clothes rides into King Arthur's court This giant throws down a sinister challenge he will endure a blow of the axe to his neck without offering any resistance but whoever delivers the fatal blade must promise to take the same in a year and a day When the young Gawain beheads him the Green Knight grabs hold of his severed head and makes off on horseback The poem follows Gawain's adventures thereafter shockingly brutal hunts an almost impossible seduction and terrifyingly powerful adversaries as he gallantly struggles to honour his promise Capturing the pace impact and richly alliterative language of the original Middle English text presented on facing pages Merwin brings a new immediacy to a spellbinding timeless narrative written many centuries ago by a master poet whose identity has been lost to time Modern and Middle English parallel text edition University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
