

Adrian Fogelin

An illustration of a hand holding a thread that extends down to a spider. The hand is light orange with a gold ring on the ring finger. The thread is a thin grey line that loops slightly before reaching the spider. The spider is a simple black silhouette with eight legs. The background is a solid light orange color.

Sister Spider Knows All:

Sister Spider Knows All Adrian Fogelin, 2003 Twelve year old Rox and her grandmother Mimi sell at a flea market every weekend to supplement the family's only income that of construction worker and college student cousin John Martin

Sister Spider Knows All Adrian Fogelin, 2007-10-02 When Roxanne discovers her absent mother's teenage diary she finds some painful but important answers to the unsolved questions of her past and possibilities for a different future For twelve year old Rox there are two things in life she can count on her beloved grandmother Mimi and her weekend job at the flea market But outside this fragile weekend world she's lost A so-so student with few aspirations for higher education she feels out of place at school And who is she anyway Her teenage mother left when she was only three months old and her father's identity is a mystery And no one least of all Mimi will talk about what happened But then her cousin John Martin brings home a girlfriend from college who has very different ideas about the way life works And when Rox discovers her mother's teenage diary she begins discovering some answers to her own past and her future With gentle wit and an uncanny sensitivity author Adrian Fogelin captures the fragility of life's certainties in this moving novel of an adolescent girl's struggles to find her way in the world
