The book is innovative in its collaborative writing and its combination of audio visual and textual material It presents a methodology for remote and hybrid research advocating for more inclusive equitable and decolonising research interactions Through three co written chapters it contributes to themes of displacement gender and the city as displaced women share testimonies and audio visual outputs revealing experiences of violence conflict and aspirations for change as they rebuild their lives This book stands out for its collaborative authorship and integration of text with audio visual material offering rich insights It will interest researchers and practitioners working inside and outside universities who are interested in developing remote hybrid and audio visual participatory methodologies as well as those who want to understand more about displacement and the challenges of urban resettlement from women s perspectives After reading this book we d appreciate if you could let us know what you think by answering some quick questions https app onlinesurveys jisc ac uk s newcastle co producing knowledge with displaced women in colombia The Open Access version of this book available at www taylorfrancis com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4 0 license Giving Voice to Diversity in Criminological Research James Windle, Orla Lynch, Yasmine Ahmed, 2021-09-03 The people most impacted by criminal justice policies and practices are seldom included in the decision making processes that affect their lives Building on the nothing about us without us social movement this edited volume advocates an inclusive approach to criminology that gives voice to historically marginalized silenced and ignored groups Incorporating the experiences of service users academics and state and grassroots practitioners this volume considers how researchers might bridge the gap between theory and lived experience It furthers criminological scholarship by capturing the voices of marginalized groups and exploring how criminology can authentically incorporate these voices Handbook on Gender and War Simona Sharoni, Julia Welland, Linda Steiner, Jennifer Pedersen, 2016-07-27 This interdisciplinary Handbook offers a comprehensive and detailed overview of the relationship between gender and war exploring the conduct of war its impact aftermath and opposition to it Offering sophisticated theoretical insights and empirical research from the First World War to contemporary conflicts around the world this Handbook underscores the centrality of gender to critical examinations of war Childhood and the Production of Security J Marshall Beier, 2018-02-02 Responding to security scholars puzzling dearth of attention to children and childhoods the contributors to this volume reveal the ways in which they not only are already present in security discourses but are actually indispensable to them and to the political projects they make possible From zones of conflict to everyday life contexts in the post industrial Global North dominant ideas about childhood work to regulate the constitution of political subjects whilst variously enabling and foreclosing a wide range of political possibilities Whether on the battlefields of Syria in the halls of the UN or the conceptual musings of disciplinary Security Studies claims about or ostensibly on behalf of children are ubiquitous Recognizing children as engaged political subjects however challenges us to bring a sustained critical gaze to the discursive and semiotic deployments of children and childhood in projects not of their making as well as to the ways in which power circulates through and around them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Remaking Home Maja Korac, 2009 Rather than emphasising boundaries and territories by examining the integration and acculturation of the immigrant or the refugee this book offers insights into the ideas and practices of individuals settling into new societies and cultures It analyses their ideas of connecting and belonging their accounts of the past the present and the future the interaction and networks of relations practical strategies and the different meanings of home and belonging that are constructed in new sociocultural settings. The author uses empirical research to explore the experiences of refugees from the successor states of Yugoslavia who are struggling to make a home for themselves in Amsterdam and Rome By explaining how real people navigate through the difficulties of their displacement as well as the numerous scenarios and barriers to their emplacement the author sheds new light on our understanding of what it is like to be a refugee As War Ends James Meernik, Jacqueline H. R. DeMeritt, Mauricio Uribe-López, 2019-07-25 For decades a bitter civil war between the Colombia government and armed insurgent groups tore apart Colombian society After protracted negotiations in Havana a peace agreement was accepted by the Colombian government and the FARC rebel group in 2016 This volume will provide academics and practitioners throughout the world with critical analyses regarding what we know generally about the post war peace building process and how this can be applied to the specifics of the Colombian case to assist in the design and implementation of post war peace building programs and policies This unique group of Colombian and international scholars comment on critical aspects of the peace process in Colombia transitional justice mechanisms the role of state and non state actors at the national and local levels and examine what the Colombian case reveals about traditional theories and approaches to peace and transitional justice Handbook on Migration and Human Rights Ruth Rubio Marín, Dorothy Estrada-Tanck, Benedita Menezes Queiroz, Fulvia Staiano, 2025-09-10 This Research Handbook examines the complex issues faced by migrants and refugees in securing their human rights By challenging and reformulating the crisis narrative often perpetuated by states and international organizations it provides a gendered cutting edge in depth investigation of key themes central to the human rights implications of migration
