Snakes Daughter The Roads In And Out Of War:

New Jersey and the Medal of Honor Peter Zablocki, 2023-10-16 Awarded by the President of the United States in the name of Congress the Medal of Honor commemorates those who have shaped our nation's history and continue to inspire its future with their acts of valor humanity patriotism and sacrifice New Jersey has been credited with ninety three honors in the state's military history Robert Augustus Sweeney was the recipient of two non combatant medals when he jumped into stormy waters to save a fellow sailor twice becoming one of only nineteen double Medal of Honor recipients of all time and the only African American to do so On the infamous day of December 7 1941 Peter Tomich serving on the USS Utah sprung to action when it became evident his ship would capsize from the two Japanese torpedoes staying behind to man the fireroom to ensure the boilers were secured to prevent an internal fire and saving countless additional deaths Author Peter Zablocki reveals the harrowing stories of New Jersey's most valorous moments in the defense of our nation and freedom around the world

Snake's Daughter Gail Hosking Gilberg, 1997 Gail Hosking Gilberg's father was a hero a valiant soldier decorated posthumously with the Medal of Honor a man who served his country throughout his entire adult life But Charles Hosking was a mystery to his daughter He was killed in Vietnam a week after her seventeenth birthday She buried the war the protests the medal and her military upbringing along with her father so much so that she felt cut off from herself It took more than twenty years for her to recognize the stirrings of a father and a daughter not yet at peace Gilberg began a journey two journeys really to find out who her father was and in the process to find herself She explored her buried rage shame and silence and examined how war had shaped her life In studying the photo albums that her father had left behind Gilberg found that the photographs demanded that she give voice to her feelings then release her silent words words that had no meaning in the world for her The result was an epiphany The photographs became the roads she took in and out of war and her words brought her father home Snake's Daughter reveals the crossroads where a soldier father's life and a daughter's life connect

Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman, 2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one's truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person's life that have yet to be explored Brat Life Caren J. Town, 2024-02-23 With hundreds of thousands of current and former military brats in the United States their lives as children of service members are surprisingly little documented Reading about the experiences of fellow brats can help these children of warriors understand both themselves and the unique world in which they were raised Learning of the challenges that these children face will also help the general population consider how to honor and to help those whose lives were shaped by the military without volunteering or being drafted This book explores the military brat experience as reflected in novels intended for adults adolescent fiction autobiographies and biographies and highlights the common elements frequent moves the ever present sense of danger the potential loss of the service member and isolation from the larger civilian world By understanding the lives of brats we can better understand the very real costs beyond the lives of service members themselves that families bear in the name of our collective freedom and security The Making of a Black Scholar Horace A. Porter, 2003 This captivating and illuminating book is a memoir of a young black man moving from rural Georgia to life as a student and teacher in the Ivy League as well as a history of the changes in American education that developed in response to the civil rights movement the war in Vietnam and affirmative action Born in 1950 Horace Porter starts out in rural Georgia in a house that has neither electricity nor running water In 1968 he leaves his home in Columbus Georgia thanks to an academic scholarship to Amherst College and lands in an upper class mainly white world Focusing on such experiences in his American education Porter's story is both unique and representative of his time The Making of a Black Scholar is structured around schools Porter attends Georgia's segregated black schools until he enters the privileged world of Amherst College He graduates spending one semester at Morehouse College and moves on to graduate study at Yale He starts his teaching career at Detroit's Wayne State University and spends the 1980s at Dartmouth College and the 1990s at Stanford University Porter writes about working to establish the first black studies program at Amherst the challenges of graduate study at Yale the infamous Dartmouth Review and his meetings with such writers and scholars as Ralph Ellison Tillie Olsen James Baldwin and Henry Louis Gates Jr He ends by reflecting on an unforeseen move to the University of Iowa which he ties into a return to the values of his childhood on a Georgia farm In his success and the fulfillment of his academic aspirations Porter represents an era a generation of possibility and achievement Writing Life Stories Bill Roorbach, 2008-07-01 How to Make Memories into Memoirs Ideas into Essays and Life into Literature From drawing a map of a remembered neighborhood to signing a form releasing yourself to take risks in your work Roorbach offers innovative techniques that will trigger ideas for all writers Writing Life Stories is a classic text that appears on countless creative nonfiction and composition syllabi the world over This updated 10th anniversary edition gives you the same friendly instruction and stimulating exercises along with updated information on current memoir writing trends ethics internet research and even marketing ideas You'll discover how to turn your untold life stories into vivid personal essays and riveting memoirs by learning to open up memory access emotions shape scenes from
