

The image features a close-up of a black fly, possibly a snow fly, resting on a textured, light-colored surface that appears to be snow or ice. The fly is positioned on the left side of the frame, facing towards the right. Its body is dark and elongated, with visible legs and wings. On the right side of the image, there is a large, stylized blue star graphic. The star has a white outline and is surrounded by a ring of smaller, light blue star-like shapes. Inside the central blue star, the text "Bugs in Snow?!" is written in a white, serif font. The overall composition suggests a theme of winter insects or the survival of bugs in cold environments.
