Roth, 2013-09-18 Exhausted by her job as a political press secretary Melinda Roth found the courage to escape Her goal a simpler life in rural Illinois that would let her pursue her passion for writing But then real life intervened A fire at a neighboring farm and a misinterpreted gesture of kindness transformed her into the reluctant caretaker of a homeless menagerie of animals Roth coauthor of the New York Times bestseller From Baghdad with Love writes vividly movingly and often humorously of the chaos that descended into her life One of her new tenants was a wild mustang broken but not bowed his restless spirit propelling him to escape the fences and pens that enclosed him a far different life than before he was violently captured by a government sponsored round up Ultimately these two fiercely independent characters each provide the catalyst for the other s life changing and life affirming decisions Mestengo is a captivating emotional account that taps into readers love of animals Marley and Me meets The Horse Whisperer An entertaining and delightful read it is a cinematic sometimes tense but always beautiful story of the power of healing
