So Rich A Tapestry The Sister Arts And Cultural Studies:

So Rich a Tapestry Ann Hurley, Kate Greenspan, 1995 This interdisciplinary collection differs from other collections of essays on literature and the visual arts in its emphasis on the image as situated in cultural as opposed to perceptual contexts Broadly speaking the writers of these sixteen essays join those who in a variety of fields have been taking note of the ways in which communication relies on a matrix of social or cultural norms From this point of view cultural setting becomes not merely interesting background but intrinsic to comprehension

John Donne's Poetry and Early Modern Visual Culture Ann Hurley, 2005 This study argues the thesis that John Donne's poetry already well served by the insightful close readings of earlier generations of scholars can now profit from being read in the context of early modern cultural experience specifically its visual culture It points out that the focus on visual culture allows for a non monolithic flexible reading of Donne's verse in part because it acknowledges that while the complexity of his religious identity has been well explored the complexity of his secular interest has perhaps been less thoroughly examined Since a study of early modern visual culture is deeply concerned with the vicissitudes of the image both religious and secular such a context serves to integrate what in Donne sometimes invites polarity Focused on close readings of several poems the study is in two parts On the one hand it examines the visual culture of early modern England and argues that reading Donne's poetry enhances our understanding of how that culture actually operated when looked at through the experience of a practicing poet the visual culture through which it participated adds a dimension to that verse that would otherwise be less accessible to us Ann H Hurley is Professor of English at Wagner College

During the eighteenth century, theatrical writing developed as a genre. The publishing market responded to a seemingly insatiable appetite for accounts of the personalities, social lives and performances of celebrated entertainers. This series features actors who were significant in their development of new ways of performing Shakespeare. From Rome to Eternity: Catholicism and the Arts in Italy, ca. 1550-1650 Pamela M. Jones, Thomas Worcester, 2021-10-01. This book treats Rome, the arts and religious culture in Italy in the century or so after the Council of Trent. In that era, clerical bureaucrats may have sought to impose control and uniformity, but nine original essays in this volume demonstrate continuing vitality of a wide range of creative artistic production. The book is illustrated with more than 50 reproductions. Part I and II explore themes of Italian Artists as Saints and Sinners and Arts of Sanctity, Suffering and Sensuality in Italy. Part III, Italy and Beyond Rome and Global Catholic Culture, acknowledges world-wide dimensions of early modern Catholicism. From Rome to Eternity elucidates the rich and multifaceted character of Catholicism in Italy, ca. 1550-1650. Papal Rome spoke, but even as Italian Catholics listened, they themselves also spoke and wrote, sang, acted, painted. Contributors include Michael A. Zampelli, Gauvin Alexander Bailey, Fiora A. Bassanese, Peter Burke, James Clifton, Sheldon Grossman, Pamela Jones, Robert L. Kendrick, David M. Stone and Thomas Worcester. Textual Vision Timothy Erwin, 2015-03-06. A stylish critique of literary attitudes towards painting, Textual Vision explores the simultaneous rhetorical formation and empirical fragmentation of visual reading in enlightenment Britain. Beginning with an engaging treatment of Pope's Rape of the Lock, Timothy Erwin takes the reader on a guided tour of the pointed allusion, apt illustration or the subtle appeal to the mind's eye within a wide array of genres and texts, before bringing his linked case studies to a surprising close with the fiction of Jane Austen. At once carefully researched, theoretically informed and highly imaginative, Textual Vision situates textual vision at the cultural crossroads of ancient pictura poesis doctrine and modernist aesthetics. It provides reliable interpretive poles for reading enlightenment imagery, offers vivid new readings of familiar works and promises to invigorate the study of Restoration and eighteenth-century visual culture. Cultural Capitals Karen Newman, 2021-06-08. Social theories of modernity focus on the nineteenth century as the period when Western Europe was transformed by urbanization. Cities became thriving metropolitan centers as a result of economic, political and social changes wrought by the industrial revolution. In Cultural Capitals, Karen Newman demonstrates that speculation and capital, the commodity, the crowd, traffic and the street, often thought to be historically specific to nineteenth-century urban culture, were in fact already at work in early modern London and Paris. Newman challenges the notion of a rupture between premodern and modern societies and shows how London and Paris became cultural capitals. Drawing upon poetry, plays and prose by writers such as Shakespeare,

Scud ry Boileau and Donne as well as popular materials including pamphlets ballads and broadsides she examines the impact of rapid urbanization on cultural production Newman shows how changing demographics and technological development altered these two emerging urban centers in which new forms of cultural capital were produced and new modes of sociability and representation were articulated Cultural Capitals is a fascinating work of literary and cultural history that redefines our conception of when the modern city came to be and brings early modern London and Paris alive in all their splendor squalor and richness

Conrad and Impressionism John G. Peters,2001-03-15 In this 2001 book John Peters investigates the impact of Impressionism on Conrad and links this to his literary techniques as well as his philosophical and political views Impressionism Peters argues enabled Conrad to encompass both surface and depth not only in visually perceived phenomena but also in his narratives and objects of consciousness be they physical objects human subjects events or ideas Though traditionally thought of as a sceptical writer Peters claims that through Impressionism Conrad developed a coherent and mostly traditional view of ethical and political principles a claim he supports through reference to a broad range of Conrad s texts Conrad and Impressionism investigates the sources and implications of Conrad s impressionism in order to argue for a consistent link between his literary technique philosophical presuppositions and socio political views The same core ideas concerning the nature of human experience run throughout his works

The Life and Work of Rosalba Carriera (1673-1757) Angela Oberer,2025-10-01 The Life and Work of Rosalba Carriera 1673 1757 The Queen of Pastel is the first extensive biographical narrative in English of Rosalba Carriera It is also the first scholarly investigation of the external and internal factors that helped to create this female painter s unique career in eighteenth century Europe It documents the difficulties complications and consequences that arose then and can also arise today when a woman decides to become an independent artist This book contributes a new in depth analysis of the interplay between society s expectations generally accepted codices for gendered behaviour and one single female painter's astute strategies for achieving success as well as autonomy in her professional life as a famed artist. Some of the questions that the author raises are: How did Carriera manage to build up her career? How did she run her business and organize her own workshop? What kind of artist was Carriera? Finally, what do her self-portraits reveal in terms of self-enactment and possibly autobiographical turning points?
