Parent Talk Wendy Mogel, 2018-09 Are you tired of arguing with your children Do you find you re repeating the same messages over and over Or perhaps you ve given up trying to communicate with your kids at all In this frank and open book parenting expert of over three decades and New York Times bestselling author Dr Wendy Mogel offers an essential and realistic guide of how to take steps to transform your relationship with your child Several years ago Mogel began giving lessons to parents who were struggling with their children demonstrating how changing the way they talked to them improved how well their child received the message leading to fewer arguments and less household stress In Parent Talk Mogel elaborates on her approach teaching parents How to talk to your children at every age from babies through to the teenage years How to break the cycle of nagging pleading and shouting How to feel less like your children are strangers to you How to talk to your child about difficult topics such as death and sex How to really listen to what it is your child is trying to say to you Why talking to girls is a world away from talking to boys and how to master this skill Overcome the distraction of digital devices for both you and your child Revealing how each stage of life brings new opportunities to relate better to your children Parent Talk is the definitive guide for how to talk with your child conquer parenting frustrations and shape meaningful and lasting family relationships

Talking Texts Rosalind Horowitz, 2017-09-25 This volume examines how oral and written language function in school learning and how oral texts can be successfully inter connected to the written texts that are used on a daily basis in schools Rather than argue for the prominence of one over the other the goal is to help the reader gain a rich understanding of how both might work together to create a new discourse that ultimately creates new knowledge Talking Texts Provides historical background for the study of talk and text Presents examples of children s and adolescents natural conversations as analyzed by linguists Addresses talk as it interfaces with domains of knowledge taught in schools to show how talk is related to and may be influenced by the structure language and activities of a specific discipline Bringing together seminal lines of research to create a cohesive picture of discourse issues germane to classrooms and other learning settings this volume is an essential resource for researchers graduate students classroom teachers and curriculum specialists across the fields of discourse studies literacy and English education composition studies language development sociolinguistics and applied linguistics

Parent Talk Chick Moorman, 2003-03-04 The right words for every situation Do you find yourself in those maddening situations where you sound like a broken record when talking to your child Your preschooler won t decide what she wants to wear regardless of how many times you insist that she just choose your struggling third grader says I can t do math and your Sure you can reassurance falls like a dead weight your daughter smears on black eyeliner just before the bus arrives and your daily protests are muted by hers What s left to say Lots In

Parent Talk a must have for every parent with a preschool to high school age child Chick Moorman tells you what to say so that you can communicate more effectively and peacefully with your child in every circumstance including The morning mad dash to dress eat and leave the house on time The nightly struggle to focus on homework The endless car ride of exhaustion induced whining The meltdown in the mall For instance Moorman s antidote to the I can t loop is Act as if you ve done this before With Moorman s help you ll learn the words to use and the words to avoid to end power struggles and the fruitless conversation loops you re stuck in Talking about Right and Wrong Cecilia Wainryb,Holly E. Recchia,2014-03-20

Though it is generally acknowledged that parents are directly implicated in how and what their children learn about right and wrong little is known about how the process of moral socialization proceeds in the context of family life and how it gets played out in actual parent child conversations This volume brings together psychological research conducted in different countries documenting how parents and their children of different ages talk about everyday issues that bear on right and wrong More than 150 excerpts from real parent child conversations about children s own good and bad behaviors and about broader ethical concerns that interest both parents and children such as global warming or gender equality provide a unique window into the moral socialization process in action Talking about Right and Wrong also underscores distinct psychological and sociocultural processes that explain how such everyday conversations may further or hinder children s moral development

Not Just Talking Sioban Boyce,2017-07-12 This innovative approach to dealing with communication difficulties was devised by the author following encounters with increased numbers of children who had learned to talk but still were unable to communicate effectively This new theory of communication development devised in the late 1990s has been successfully used by the author and a wide range of educators and promotes the good use of non verbal skills in children This programme changes the lives of the children in the family and at school who benefit from it The book will look at Non verbal communication theory Normal and disordered development Problems arising behaviour social skills emotions education in the family Prevention Assessment and Intervention Generally those children with poor non verbal skill development will have limited ability to communicate effectively in all situations and may even be shut down i e not attempting to communicate unless they choose to This flagship book provides a whole new perspective and presents a concrete alternative approach to tackling the fundamentals from which communication difficulties arise Helping Baby

Talk Lorraine Rocissano,Jean Grasso Fitzpatrick,1994 Two child language development experts offer parents a pressure free approach to maximizing their child s speech development Helping Baby Talk helps teach parents the proper techniques they should use in talking to their children allowing speech to develop spontaneously Palin Parent-Child Interaction Therapy for Early Childhood Stammering Elaine Kelman,Alison Nicholas,2020-04-02 Now available in a fully revised and updated second edition this practical manual is a detailed guide to the Palin Parent Child Interaction Therapy programme Palin PCI developed at the Michael Palin Centre for Stammering MPC Palin PCI builds on the principle that parents play a critical role in effective therapy and that understanding and managing stammering is a collaborative journey between the child parent and therapist This book emphasises a need for open communication about stammering offering a combination of indirect techniques such as video feedback interaction strategies and confidence building along with direct techniques to teach a child what they can do to help themselves This second edition Reflects the most up to date research in areas such as neurology genetics temperament and the impact of stammering on children and their families Offers photocopyable resources such as assessment tools information sheets and therapy handouts to support the implementation of Palin PCI Focuses on empowerment through building communication confidence in children who stammer and developing knowledge and confidence in their parents Based on a strong theoretical framework this book offers a comprehensive understanding of the Palin PCI approach in order to support generalist and specialist speech and language therapists as they develop their knowledge skills and confidence in working with young children who stammer and their families For more information about Alison and her work please visit www.alisonnicholasslt.co.uk To learn more about Elaine and her work please visit www.michaelpalincentreforstammering.org

The Power of Community Concha Delgado-Gaitan, 2001 Fifteen years ago Concha Delgado Gaitan began literacy research in Carpinteria California At that time Mexican immigrants who labored in nurseries factories and housekeeping had almost no voice in how their children were educated Committed to participative research Delgado Gaitan collaborated with the community to connect family school and community Regular community gatherings gave birth to the Comit de Padres Latinos Refusing the role of the victim the Comit participants organized to reach out to everyone in the community not just other Latino families Bound by their language cultural history hard work respect pain and hope they created possibilities that supported the learning of Latino students who until then had too often dropped out or shown scant interest in school In a society that accentuates individualism and independence these men and women look to their community for leadership support and resources for children The Power of Community is a critical work that shows how communities that pull together and offer caring ears eyes and hands can ensure that their children thrive academically socially and personally It offers a fresh approach and workable solution to the problems that face schools today

200 Conversation Starters for Kids and Parents Them Kids, 2019-08-28 Put away your phone and get to know your family We are bringing intentional parenting to the table the dinner table that is Don't touch your smart phone for 20 minutes and have a conversation with your kids Your smart phone will be waiting for you after dinner Social media will always be there later Your kids though time with your children is precious Babies grow too quick and the grade school age kids tweens to middle school and then high school teens all happen in an instant Take time while everyone is sitting and attentive at the dinner table to create conversation We aren't talking family debates we are encouraging families to gain a better understanding of who each child and parent is as a human not just a member of the family We have created this family book that's to be left on the dinner table or in the kitchen Start a conversation create connections and maybe even laugh a little by using our simple questions We have formulated questions that are specific to kids for you to help gain a better understanding of who your kids are The How was your day question is great but can be so surface The questions in this conversation book go a bit deeper sometimes funny light hearted and sometimes inquisitive All were created to help you be intentional in spending time and growing your relationship with your child There are questions for parents that the kids can ask These parent questions will help your child know who you are and learn a little bit about how you grew up who you were then what you are proud of and more We also have general questions These are perfect for nights when you just want to talk They also work well as conversation starters when you have dinner guests Use this book to help sibling relationships as well These family talks can help each brother sister mother and father understand one another better I wrote this family conversation starters book for kids to help you get to know your kids As a parent to 4 kids I can verify that the rumors are true Time flies kids grow up too fast Embrace this time by spending a few minutes at the dinner table learning about one another in a fun and creative way So much can be learned about each other by just asking questions 200 Conversation Starters for Kids and Parents Put your phone down and get to know your family Learn what to talk about and how to create connection conversation and community This is a must have parenting book for families My hope is that this fun family activity becomes a habit and that the relationships and bond between each member grows all thru conversations and questions
