Talking Poet Naropa:

Talking Poetry Lee Bartlett, 1987      Talking Poetics from Naropa Institute Anne Waldman, 1978      Poets Talk Pauline Butling, Susan Rudy, 2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry Using the relaxed format of the personal interview Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub literary forms Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan African liberation movements Annharte explains her use of humour to de program Native people Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world      Speaking for the Generations Simon J. Ortiz, 2022-02-08 Now it is my turn to stand At Acoma Pueblo meetings members rise and announce their intention to speak In that moment they are recognized and heard In Speaking for the Generations Acoma Pueblo poet Simon Ortiz brings together contemporary Native American writers to take their turn Each offers an evocation of herself or himself describing the personal social and cultural influences on her or his development as a writer Although each writer s viewpoint is personal and unique together they reflect the rich tapestry of today s Native literature Of varied backgrounds the writers represent Indian heritages and cultures from the Pacific Northwest to the northern plains from Canada to Guatemala They are poets novelists and playwrights And although their backgrounds are different and their statements intensely personal they share common themes of their relationship to the land to their ancestors and to future generations of their people From Gloria Bird s powerful recounting of personal and family history to Esther Belin s vibrant tale of her urban Native homeland in Los Angeles these writers reveal the importance of place and politics in their lives Leslie Marmon Silko calls upon the ancient tradition of Native American storytelling and its role in connecting the people to the land Roberta J Hill and Elizabeth Woody ponder some of the absurdities of contemporary Native life while Guatemalan Victor Montejo takes readers to the Mayan world where a native culture had writing and books long before Europeans came Together these pieces offer an inspiring portrait of what it means to be a Native writer in the twentieth century With passion and urgency these writers are speaking for themselves for their land and for the generations

Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century      The Beats, Black Mountain, and New Modes in American Poetry Matt Theado, 2021-09-15 The Beats Black Mountain and New Modes of American Poetry explores correspondences amongst the Black Mountain and Beat Generation writers two of most well known and influential groups of poets in the 1950s The division of writers as Beat or Black Mountain has hindered our understanding of the ways that these poets developed from mutual influences benefitted from direct relations and overlapped their boundaries This collection of academic essays refines and adds context to Beat Studies and Black Mountain Studies by investigating the groups intersections and undercurrents One goal of the book is to deconstruct the Beat and Black Mountain labels in order to reveal the shifting and fluid relationships among the individual poets who developed a revolutionary poetics in the 1950s and beyond Taken together these essays clarify the radical experimentation with poetics undertaken by these poets

William S. Burroughs Cutting Up the Century Joan Hawkins,Alex Wermer-Colan,2019-05-17 This definitive book on Burroughs decades long cut up project and its relevance to the American twentieth century including previously unpublished works William S Burroughs s Nova Trilogy The Soft Machine Nova Express and The Ticket That Exploded remains the best known of his textual cut up creations but he committed more than a decade of his life to searching out multimedia for use in works of collage By cutting up folding in and splicing together newspapers magazines letters book reviews classical literature audio recordings photographs and films Burroughs created an eclectic and wide ranging countercultural archive This collection includes previously unpublished work by Burroughs such as cut ups of work written by his son cut ups of critical responses to his own work collages on the Vietnam War and the Watergate scandal excerpts from his dream journals and some of the few diary entries that Burroughs wrote about his wife Joan William S Burroughs Cutting Up the Century also features original essays interviews and discussions by established Burroughs scholars respected artists and people who encountered Burroughs The essays consider Burroughs from a range of perspectives literary studies media studies popular culture gender studies post colonialism history and geography A landmark in scholarship Choice The Wisdom Anthology of North American Buddhist Poetry Andrew Schelling, 2005-05-15 This unique collection brings us African Americans reading the Black diasporahrough the eyes of exiled Tibetan monks Americans of Vietnamese and Tibetan heritage wrestling with the cultural norms of their parents or ancestors Zennd Dada inspired performance pieces and groundbreaking writings from theioneers of the Beat movement so many of whom remain not just relevant butital to this day With its eclectic mix of acknowledged elders and newlymergent voices this landmark anthology vividly displays how Buddhism isnfluencing the character of contemporary poetry The Works of Allen Ginsberg, 1941-1994 Bill Morgan, 1995-02-28 Avant garde poet and popular culture icon Allen Ginsberg has been one of the world s most important writers for over 40 years This comprehensive bibliography covering the years 1941 to 1994 was prepared with the cooperation of the poet himself All books periodicals photographs recordings films and miscellaneous appearances are listed here Entries are grouped in chapters according to type of work and each entry provides full descriptive bibliographic information Allen Ginsberg is perhaps the most famous poet of our time as well as one of our most prolific writers His subjects range from Buddhist studies to drug research to gay rights to political issues of every description from Vietnam to censorship Ginsberg gave the author access to personal files and as a result every appearance of Ginsberg s writings in the English language is noted This bibliography is a comprehensive descriptive record of all of Ginsberg s works The volume contains descriptive annotations of every book pamphlet and broadside by Ginsberg It also contains complete descriptions of every contribution by Ginsberg to the works of others In addition all periodical contributions recordings films and miscellaneous publications are listed Due to Ginsberg s recent acceptance as a photographer of note a special section identifies all of his published photographs Entries are arranged in chapters according to the type of work to facilitate ease of use As a result this book presents a history of Ginsberg s works and traces the evolution of his writings over a period of publications and revisions The Beats and the Academy Erik Mortenson, Tony Trigilio, 2023-04-01 The Beats and the Academy marks the first sustained effort to train a scholarly eye on the dynamics of the relationship between Beat writers and the academic institutions in which they taught Rather than assuming the relationship between Beat writers and institutions of higher education was only a hostile one The Beats and the Academy begins with the premise that influence between the two flows in both directions Beat writers suspicion of established institutions was a significant aspect of their postwar countercultural allure Their anti establishment aesthetic and countercultural stance led Beat writers to be critical of postwar academic institutions that tended to dismiss them as a passing social phenomenon Even today Beat writing still meets resistance in an academy that questions the relevance of their writing and ideas But this picture like any generalization is far too easy The Beat relationship to the academy is one of negotiation rather than negation Many Beats strove for academic recognition and quite a few received it And despite hostility to their work both in the postwar era and today Beat works have made it into syllabi conference presentations journal articles and monographs The Beats and the Academy deepens our understanding of this relationship by emphasizing how institutional friction between the Beats and institutions of higher education has shaped our understanding of Beat Generation literature and culture and what this relationship between Beat writers and the academy might suggest about their legacy for future scholars

The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O'Hara, Ted Berrigan and John Forbes Duncan Hose, 2022-04-04 The Pursuit of Myth in the Poetry of Frank O'Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes traces a tradition of revolutionary self mythologising in the lives and works of Frank O'Hara Ted Berrigan and John Forbes as a significant trefoil in twentieth century English language poetry All three had untimely deaths excited a collective homage and developed cult followings that reverberate today This book tracks the transmission of the poem as charm the poet as charmer and the reinstitution of troubadour erotics as a kind of social poetics Starting with Orpheus the book refreshes the myth of the poet as mythmaker examining how myths of self and nation are regenerated for the twenty first century and how persons as myths are made in community through coterie of artists and beyond Duncan Bruce Hose's critical vocabulary with its nucleus of mythos searches the edges of phenomenal enquiry closing in on the work of glamour aura charm possession phantasm the daemonic and the logic of haunting in the continuing being of these three poets as charismatic animals
