Poverty and Inequality in Middle Income Countries Einar Braathen, Julian May, Marianne Ulriksen, Gemma C.

Wright, 2016-04-15 This collection offers a timely reassessment of viable ways of addressing poverty across the globe today. The profile of global poverty has changed dramatically over the past decade and around three quarters of the poor now live in middle income countries making inequality a major issue. This requires us to fundamentally rethink anti poverty strategies and policies as many aspects of the established framework for poverty reduction are no longer effective. Featuring contributions from Latin America, Africa and Asia, this much needed collection answers some of the key questions arising as development policy confronts the challenges of poverty and inequality on the global, national and local scale in both urban and rural contexts. Providing poverty researchers and practitioners with valuable new tools to address new forms of poverty in the right way. Poverty and Inequality in Middle Income Countries shows how a radical switch from aid to redistribution based social policies is needed to combat new forms of global poverty.

Woman's Work for Woman, 1896 Nectar and Ambrosia Tamra Andrews, 2000-10-26 A publishing first Nectar and Ambrosia presents an encyclopedic treatment of the magic properties and uses of food by mortals and immortals alike from the pages of myth and legend. Now for the first time the magic properties and uses of food by both mortals and immortals as represented in the world's myths and legends are brought together and explained in Nectar and Ambrosia. This A-Z volume is filled with an abundance of exotic lore and legend.

A Battered Woman Went to Harvard Suzanne Duque, 2012-08-03 How does one survive in a home that's become a torture chamber where your daily ration is fear and trauma? One does not have to subject themselves to dehumanization but most of the time putting a stop to it is not so simple an act. Until one can safely separate themselves or escapes, how does one cope with such an unfathomable trauma riddled circumstance? This is a memoir of catharsis from dehumanization to the reclamation of the dignity and integrity. It is a disclosure, a confession and reflection if you will, by a mother of five who for thirty years lived with her own terrorist and was subjected to a cycle of physical, intellectual, spiritual and emotional abuse and violence. Through religion and spirituality she manages to cope and eventually find the path to deliverance and peace of mind and heart. This disclosure is a case study which puts a face, a mind and heart to the traumatic subjection to intimate partner violence.

Religious Diversity Today Jean-Guy A. Goulet, Liam D. Murphy, Anastasia Panagakos, 2015-12-01 This insightful three volume set examines faith through the social and cultural perspective of anthropology, sociology and religious studies, shedding light on the role of religion in the human experience. Why is human suffering and the existence of evil part of the human experience? How does religious doctrine establish one's identity? In what ways does religion interact with and shape the social order? This thought provoking work ponders these questions and explores the concept of religion from various perspectives as a tool for self and community based spiritual awareness, as a set of practices that translates faith into interaction with others and as a cornerstone of society for those who seek to harness or hinder its influence. Written in accessible and inviting language, each volume focuses on a particular dimension of religion. The first book examines religious experience in the modern world and explores suffering in religious faiths the second volume centers around ritual and pilgrimage and the last book analyzes the controversial relationship between religion and societies The content features such thought provoking topics as death and green burials sexuality and sex trade and how and why evil manifests in the human experience
