Lee Kong Chian Art Museum Yaw Lu, Lee Kong Chian Art Museum, 1990 The Chinese art collection of the Lee Kong Chian Art Museum, National University of Singapore, is presented in this catalogue published to commemorate the Museum's official opening in August 1990. There are some 540 plates, 350 in colour, giving prominent display to the collection which has been organised into four main areas of Chinese art: Ceramics, Bronze, Archaic Jade, and Painting and Calligraphy. The ceramics section is the most extensive, covering some 6 000 years of Chinese history and representing a fairly complete cross section of the various types of ceramic ware found through the millennia. Around 80 per cent of these pieces were acquired in the last six years in the light of recent archaeological discoveries. Many of these are comparable to those found in famous collections the world over. There is also a brief introductory essay on each of the four sections.

Chinese Ceramics Li He, Asian Art Museum of San Francisco, 1996 For centuries Chinese ceramics have been the objects most coveted in the West by collectors with an interest in the arts of Asia. The extraordinary innovations of Chinese potters count among the most outstanding accomplishments in the cultural heritage of the world since the Neolithic era. Systematic study of Chinese ceramics began in the eighteenth century with the French Jesuit Père d'Entrecolles; it has been greatly enlarged in the twentieth century and since the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1976, extensive excavations at kiln sites have yielded invaluable new insights into the chronological development of ceramic forms, glaze types, and decorative styles. This remarkable book cites all the latest scientific and archaeological evidence, examining provenance, technique, archaeological and historical context and ancient traditions of Chinese connoisseurship and patronage to provide an integrated and highly detailed approach to the subject In over 700 color photographs specially taken for this book a wide range of imperial and regional decorative and practical export and domestic ceremonial and funerary wares are fully represented
