Tanzania, Post Report ,1984 The Fipa and Related Peoples of South-West Tanzania and North-East Zambia Roy G. Willis,2017-02-10 Routledge is proud to be re issuing this landmark series in association with the International African Institute The series published between 1950 and 1977 brings together a wealth of previously un co ordinated material on the ethnic groupings and social conditions of African peoples Concise critical and for its time accurate the Ethnographic Survey contains sections as follows Physical Environment Linguistic Data Demography History Traditions of Origin Nomenclature Grouping Cultural Features Religion Witchcraft Birth Initiation Burial Social Political Organization Kinship Marriage Inheritance Slavery Land Tenure Warfare Justice Economy Trade Domestic Architecture Each of the 50 volumes will be available to buy individually and these are organized into regional sub groups East Central Africa North Eastern Africa Southern Africa West Central Africa Western Africa and Central Africa Belgian Congo The volumes are supplemented with maps available to view on routledge com or available as a pdf from the publishers Africa Alan B Mountjoy,Clifford Embleton,2023-12-01 First published in 1965 Africa provides a geographical political economic and social description of the continent Contemporary Africa is a continent of change and revolutions The diversity and limitations of the African environment gives us a fuller understanding of the explosive dynamism of the African economic and social scene This book will be of interest to students of geography economy anthropology and political science Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann,Peter Duignan,1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism The British Labour Movement and Imperialism Billy Frank,Craig Horner,David Stewart,2010-05-11 With Foreword by Tony Benn This edited collection explores the British labour movement s relationship with imperialism in the period 1800 1982 through nine inter connected articles Labour historians have tended to neglect the labour movement s interaction with imperialism preferring to concentrate on industrial relations internal factionalism the Labour Party trade union alliance and economic policymaking In order to redress the balance this book takes a broad chronological overview of the subject and engages with key themes ranging from trade union interaction with empire and the influence of popular imperial culture to post war colonial development and responses to post colonialism Taking stock both of the labour movement in a broader context and of new approaches to the history of British imperialism the collection combines the work of leading authorities on labour history with recent scholarly research By blending this combination of economic social political and cultural analyses it makes a substantial contribution to the debates surrounding the legacy of imperialism and the evolution of the British labour movement The book will be of interest to academics researchers teachers and students of modern British political social economic and cultural history It will also appeal to Labour Party members and labour movement activists Post Report, 1980 Series of pamphlets on countries of the world revisions issued The Colonial Office List Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1956 Tanganyika, 1955 The Statesman's Year-Book S. Steinberg, 2016-12-23 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Visions for an African Valley DR JONATHAN M. JACKSON, 2025-03-11 What was the effect of the numerous albeit often unsatisfied plans for development on the land and communities of the Kilombero valley throughout the colonial period and into the first decades of independence This book traces histories of development in and crucially visions of development for the Kilombero valley of south central Tanzania Taking the notion of development planning as a form of future making the book examines the many visions or past futures projected onto Kilombero by colonial and national governments by international organisations syndicates and individuals It examines how such plans were conceived evaluates their successes and analyses their shortcomings against changing political and economic landscapes Four key themes agricultural intensification ecology control infrastructure and re settlement are shown to persistently surface and continue to shape the valleyscape today By considering past future visions for the reorganisation of rural life in Tanzania the book reveals how even recent initiatives have suffered through their failure to learn from this history Offering fresh insights and approaches to the historiography of development Visions for an African Valley shows Kilombero to be a prism which refracts broader phenomena across more than a century ERS, 1961

Agency for International Development. Office of Agriculture, 1975 The Culture of Colonialism T. O. Beidelman, 2021-12-22 What did it mean to be an African subject living in remote areas of Tanganyika at the end of the colonial era For the Kaguru of Tanganyika it meant daily confrontation with the black and white governmental officials tasked with bringing this rural people into the mainstream of colonial African life T. O. Beidelman's detailed narrative links this administrative world to the Kaguru's wider social cultural and geographical milieu and to the political history ideas of indirect rule and the white institutions that loomed just beyond their world Beidelman unveils the colonial system's problems as it extended its authority into rural areas and shows how these problems persisted even after African independence
